

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL XII WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, APRIL 14, 1888. NO 90.

THIS PAPER published every evening, Sundays excepted, by J. T. JAMES, Editor and Prop. SUBSCRIPTIONS, POSTAGE PAID: One year, $3.00; Six months, $2.00; Three months, $1.00. One month, 35 cents. The paper will be delivered by carriers, free of charge, in any part of the city, at the above rates, or 10 cents per week. Advertising rates low and liberal. Subscribers will please report any change to receive their paper regularly.

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS FOR PALE PEOPLE.
RESTLESSNESS. A STRICTLY VEGETABLE PAINLESS FAMILY MEDICINE.
J. B. ZEILIN & CO. PHILADELPHIA. Price, ONE Dollar.

Edwin D. Hilton, a Paterson machinist, has completed a silk loom which occupies less room than a typewriter, and weaves silk handkerchiefs of a pretty pattern four inches square. A child can operate it. Silk manufacturers of Paterson say it is the smallest working loom ever made.

At a teachers' examination in Jones county, Iowa, in answer to the question, "What is hygiene?" a young lady applicant for a certificate to teach school answered: "It is the soft spot on the top of the baby's head which gradually becomes harder as the baby grows older."

The Raleigh correspondent of the Petersburg Index-Appeal has this to say of the probable line of defence of the bank bootlers, Cross and White:

The line of defence, while not positively known, is thought to be as follows: That the forgeries selected for which they are to be put upon trial are not forgeries in fact, in that no moneys were received on the notes, they being simply held to make up assets in the bank statements. The utterance of forged paper, therefore, cannot be shown and this, it is thought, will prove quite a loop-hole by which they may escape punishment.

Stuff and nonsense! The "utterance of forged paper" is shown by the correspondent when he says that the notes "were simply held to make up assets in the bank statement." That is to say, they were held as representatives of value. A forged bank note has no value in itself, but it simply represents a value, the same as does a genuine note. The notes forged by the bootlers were placed just where genuine notes would have been and represented the same money value. If this is not "uttering" a forgery then we must confess to our ignorance of the meaning of the term.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is peculiar to itself and superior to all other preparations in strength, economy, and medicinal merit.

ANNUAL MEETING—Wilmington Compress & Warehouse Co

Sunset to-morrow afternoon at 34 minutes past 6 o'clock.

Finest shoes for ladies wear in the city at French & Sons.

School shoes for children, best in the city, at Geo. R. French & Sons.

Tomorrow is the anniversary of the big snow storm here on Sunday, April 15th, 1849.

Rev. W. S. Creasy will commence a series of services to-morrow night at Grace M. E. Church.

Union services at the Seaman's Bethel this, Saturday, evening at 8 o'clock, to be conducted by Mr. Elder.

The seats for the lecture room of Grace Methodist Church have been placed in position and will be used on to-morrow.

The street mail boxes have been repainted, a fact that many in depositing letters in them yesterday readily ascertained.

Quarterly meeting at Fifth Street Methodist Church tomorrow. Rev. T. W. Guthrie, the prosiding elder, will be in attendance.

Where can you buy the best and finest boots and shoes for the money in the city? Why, at Geo. R. French & Sons. They keep the largest stock.

You will find a very nice line of Gent's Heavy Jeans Drawers, at 50 cents a pair at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No 27 Market street, J. Elsbach, Prop.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses
Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Day's length 13 hours and 7 minutes.

But one interment in Bellevue, this week, a child.

Three interments, all adults, in Oakdale this week.

Services in St. John's Church to-morrow at 7:30 and 11 a. m. and 5:30 p. m.

Twenty-three new members were admitted last night to Unity Tent No. 60, I. O. R.

The Register of Deeds last week issued marriage licenses to 3 couples, one white and two colored.

A slight frost is reported from the Sounds this morning but it was not severe enough to do any harm.

Mr. B. F. Penny is having erected a fine two-story frame dwelling on Seventh street, between Market and Dock.

The track of the Seacoast Railroad was laid across Market street to-day, instead of yesterday, as we had it.

The ordinance of baptism will be administered after the sermon to-morrow night at the First Baptist Church.

Rev. J. P. King will baptise a number of candidates to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the foot of Queen street.

Divine services will be held at St. James' Home, corner Eighth and Orange streets, to-morrow evening, on which occasion Rev. Robert Strange will preach a sermon especially addressed to young men.

Meeting This Evening.
There will be a meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association this evening at 8 o'clock, at the Library rooms. All members and those wishing to join are urged to attend. Delegates to the Convention which will meet in Charlotte on the 19th inst., will be elected at this meeting.

The Last of Earth.
The remains of the late Mr. James M. Dawson were yesterday laid to rest in Oakdale beside these of his father and mother. The body was taken direct from the depot to the cemetery. The last services of the Church were administered by Rev. Robert Strange, Rector of St. James'.

First of the Season.
Messrs. Hays & Jones brought into the city this morning the first beets and green peas seen here this season. They were from the firm's farm, on the old Newbern road, about one mile East of the city. The beets sold for 25 cents a bunch and the peas for $1 per peck.

The Trees on Market Street.
The row of trees on Market street, between Fourth and Thirteenth, are putting out beautifully now. They have been there a number of years (about ten years, we think) and have heretofore seemed to be undecided as to whether they would grow or not. Some of them, however, are "done dead" and should be replaced with others.

Religious Services.
Grace Methodist E. Church, northeast corner of Fourth and Mulberry streets, Rev. W. S. Creasy, pastor. Services to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock and to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock. Sabbath School at 3 p. m. The theme for the morning discourse will be "The Rainbow Around the Throne." In addition to using the lecture room arrangements will be made by which a portion of the auditorium will be used by which it is hoped to accommodate those who may wish to attend.

City Court.
No less than seven offenders interviewed the Mayor this morning and asked his advice as to future proceedings. These were:
Henry Barton, alias English Charley, charged with enticing seamen to desert. The defendant was represented by Mr. Herbert McClammy and so got off with a fine of $10.
E. M. Merrill, disorderly, $10 or 30 days.
James Nash, disorderly, $5 or 10 days.
Edward Roderick, disorderly, $20 or 30 days.
Emanuel Roderick, disorderly, case dismissed.
James Henry Watters and Harry Martin, charged with an affray, were each fined $5.

The Sermon in the Opera House.

Rev. J. P. King preached last night in the Opera House to a very large congregation, his subject being "Eternal Torment." He preached, we understand, for a solid two hours and a quarter. It was intended to take up a collection at the close of the services but the audience decamped in too much of a hurry. It was expected to thus defray the expenses of the evening and as this method failed those who invited Mr. King to repeat his sermon there will probably have to make up the amount among themselves.

To Be Considered.

These times naturally bring forth the question from a buyer, "where can I get the best for the least money?" If in want of Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Hats and Caps, it is easily answered. I. Shrier, the Old Reliable Clothier and Hatter, will sell you the goods lower than any other house in the city.

Remember we will not be undersold and guarantee every article as represented or no sale.

I. SHRIER,

The Old Reliable Clothier and Hatter, No. 16 North Front street (Purcell House.)

Sign of the Golden Arm.

Spring Medicine.

The necessity of a spring medicine is almost universally admitted. And the superiority of Hood's Sarsaparilla for this purpose becomes more and more widely known every year. That power to purify the blood, and those elements of strength and health which the system craves, and to which it is so susceptible at this season, are possessed by this peculiar medicine in a pre-eminent degree. Scrofula, pimples, boils, or any humor, dyspepsia, sick headache, catarrh, rheumatism, or any diseases or affections caused or promoted by impure blood or low state of the system, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Try the peculiar medicine.

Best shoes for boys at French & Sons.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 10 bales.

Ladies will find a nice line of good reliable scissors at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot.

There were two interments this week in Pine Forest; one adult and one child.

We presume that both of our morning contemporaries will appear as usual to-morrow morning. We have heard nothing as yet from them about postponing the issue until Monday morning.

Church Services To-Morrow.
