BILIOUSNESS, which, if neglected, soon leads to serious disease. Simmons' Liver Regulator exerts a powerful influence over every kind of biliousness. It restores the liver to its normal condition, regulates the secretory organs, and puts the digestive organs in such a condition that they can do their best work. After taking this medicine no one will say, "I am bilious."

"I have been subject to severe spells of Constipation of the Liver, and have been in the habit of taking from 15 to 20 grains of calomel which generally does me up for three or four days. Lately I have been taking Simmons' Liver Regulator, which gives me relief without any interruption to business."—J. Hoveo, Middletown, Ohio.

The New York temperance people are now waiting to see whether Governor Hill will approve the high license bill just passed by both branches of the Legislature. The bill makes liquor licenses cost $500, and for beer makes a minimum rate of $100 and a maximum rate of $400.

Los Angeles, Cal., is going to try to have a good municipal government by hiring men to carry it on. Her new city charter provides for the payment of each member of the Board of Aldermen at the rate of $200 per month, and he is forbidden to engage in any other employment during his term of office.

Dr. Clemence S. Lozier, who died here some time ago, was one of the wealthiest as well as most successful women physicians in the country. Her professional income for several years has been between $30,000 and $25,000 each year. Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.
Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

New Clothes and a New Flag.
The new uniforms of the Wilmington Light Infantry have arrived and were given out at the Armory last night. They are of gray, and of excellent material. The trimmings are blue. The coats for the officers are double breasted and those for the non-commissioned officers and the privates are single-breasted. The helmets are of cork, covered with white felt and adorned with buffalo hair plumes. The members all appear delighted with their new clothes.

It is probable that the company will appear in their new uniforms some day early in the next week, probably on Tuesday, to receive their new flag, which will be formally presented to them on that occasion.

The Encampment Meeting.
A meeting of the citizens of Wilmington was held at the rooms of the Produce Exchange at noon to-day.

Man's Inhumanity to Man.

Our attention has been several times called, yesterday and to-day, to the treatment which is being meted out to a young man, one of the city prisoners. His name is E. O. Penny and he is serving a sentence of 30 days, beginning on the 23d of April. His sentence is probably a just one but his treatment is not.

Penny was sent to the chain gang but refused to work there and yesterday morning he was tied to the rear of a cart and dragged through the streets. But we will let our neighbor of the Messenger tell this part of it:
Yesterday morning when Overseer Sheehan took his gang out of the guard house to go to work at the corner of Fifth and Castle streets, there were no carts, as usual on all other mornings, in which the prisoners could ride out. When, therefore, it was time to move out, Penny wouldn't get a move on him, and swore he wouldn't go through the streets in the shackles.

The Mayor sent Policeman Turlington down stairs to make the prisoner go along. The policeman put his nipper on the recalcitrant prisoner, who suffered himself to be dragged on his back for a distance of fifteen feet and then he declined to go, swearing he would die first. The links of the nippers had cut into the prisoner's arm and it was blue and bleeding, but he was still unbending in his determination. The plan was then decided upon of hitching him up behind the cart in the manner mentioned above. He swore he would be dragged out and die before he would walk behind the cart, but in order to give him a chance to walk, after the cart started, the shackles were removed. When the cart started the determined man swung back on the ropes and suffered himself to be dragged through the streets to the place where the chain gang were at work. When he was taken to the spot he refused to work, and no inducement could be offered him to give up his obstinacy.

All of this happened on the public streets of the city of Wilmington and as yet no voice has been raised to condemn such barbarity and inhumanity. It is reserved to the DAILY REVIEW to do this. Such a thing is a shame and a disgrace and a blot upon the fair escutcheon of our public honor. It is more. It is an offense against the majesty of the law. Those who practice such barbarities as these are going outside of the pale of the law when they do them and they themselves become the offenders. This is plain talk but it is true talk. There is just as much protection in the law for the prisoner in his cell as there is for the judge on the bench and one is just as amenable to the law as the other. The city authorities had just as much legal right to take that man out and hang him as they had to strap him to the tail board of a cart and drag him through the streets. We really do not know what his offence was. He may be one of the most worthless characters in the State for what we know but that even would not excuse the barbarity which has been practiced towards him. It was simply horrible and we hope that we may never be called upon to chronicle anything of the kind again.
