Indications.

For North Carolina, slightly warm er, followed by cooler fair weather and light to fresh northwesterly winds. The fishermen who were out in the rice fields and creeks on Saturday were fortunate. The fish bit better on that day than on any day thus far this season.

Personal.

We are sorry to learn that Capt T. . Southerland continues quite sick He was no better this morning but we hope to hear of a more favorable report to morrow.

The Military at Church.

The Wilmington Light Infantry paraded yesterday afternoon, in full uniform, on "Church duty." Preceded by the Cornet Concert Club they marched to St. John's Church, where the annual sermon was preached to them by the Chaplain of the Regiment, Rev. Dr. Carmichael, The services were very interesting. The Cornet Concert Club played a hymn with the full band and Dr. Carmichael preached a very effective discourse. Col. Jones, Adjutant Willard and Sergeant-Major Willson also attended, in full uniform.

Butts' Panorama.

Mr. John H. Frazier, of Charlotte, who is the traveling manager of Mr. A. L. Butts' panorama of Biblical scenes, is here and will exhibit at the Opera House in this city twice, Wire Cloth for your windows and to-night and to-morrow night. The admission price has been placed very low -25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children-and we think that there will be a large attendance on both nights. These paintings were exhibited in New Orleans of office in December 1886: five in 55 nights, St. Louis 20 nights, Louis- December 1889, and five in Decem ville 65 nights, Nashville, Tenn., 18 nights, Memphis 20 nights, Washington City 24 nights, and in Jacksonville 21 nights.

"In all Frankness." "In all frankness" it may be said that the "spirit" which dictated the remarks made in the REVIEW relative to the Queen is probably beyond the comprehension of the Mes-Goods. Try us. Wilmington Shirt senger but evidently not beyond that of the manager of the boat, who has himself thought it safest and best to send her North to "freeze her. out" before putting her on the Cape Fear. The same "spirit" which actnated the REVIEW is shared, en. ing. It was preceded by an unusudorsed and encouraged by a large ally warm night. The wind was majority of sensible people in this from the Northwest thoroughout town who are here to stay and therefore naturally feel more interest in the welfare of the place than those who are here to-day and may be gone to-morrow.

Death of Mr. W. J. Yopp.

The end has come at last and Mr. market this morning. William John Yopp, whose death has been hourly expected for nearly a week, fell on sleep yesterday morning, just as the church bells were pealing forth their summons to worship. He had been a very sick man for months past and for several weeks past his sufferings have been intense.

Mr. Yopp was 64 years of age in An important meeting will be held February last. He was a printer, having learned the trade in the Chronicle office, with the late Mr. Asa A. Brown. He afterwards became foreman of the Daily Herald, which was then published by Mr. Talcott Burr, Jr., and at one time, in conjunction with Mr. James I. Bryan, published here a temperance paper, the rame of which we cannot now recall. But for nearly a quarter of a century past he has been an officer of the railroads here, first as Freight Agent of the W. & W. R. R. and more recently of the combined offices of the W. & W. and W. C. & A. roads, in which positions it is needless to say that he was faithful in every trust confided to him. He was a leading member of the order of Odd Fellows, of which he was a Past Grand Master, and was the third in seniority in Cape Fear proving that he had sold over $700 Lodge No. 2, of this city. He was Parties interested in getting up a also, for many years, a director of been a first rate business done toof $4,000 having been secured. The and had for many years past been a ion. Young Men's Christian Association. The directors of the Young Men's Christian Association met according to appointment in Library Hall on Saturday night.

The committee on by-laws submitted their report, which was adopted by articles after short discussions. The committee had worked well, for few changes were made. Three hundred copies of the constitution and by-laws were ordered printed. The adoption of these necessitated a new election of of ficers, which resulted in the selection of the following: President-P. B. Manning. Vice President-B. F. King. Secretary-E. S. Tennent. Treasurer-W. J. Toomer.

The directors divided themselves into three classes-seven to go out

Other business was transacted which will be given to the public at the proper time.

State Dental Society.

The fourteenth annual meeting of the North Carolina State Dental Society will be held in Raleigh June 12th to 15th inclusive. Voluntary essays will be read upon different subjects by Dr. J. Rollo Knapp, of New Orleans; Drs. J. H. Durham, V. E. Turner and J. F. Griffith, of North Carolina, and Drs. W. H. H. Thackston and J. R. Woodley, of Virginia. A cordial invitation is extended to all members of the profession to attend this meeting, which promises to be the most interesting in every respect within the history of the Association. One day will be devoted entirely to clinics. Several specialists of renown have consented to be present and demonstrate their respective specialties. The Executive Committee have secured reduced rates at the hotels for dentists and their families, and on the railroads for about one and one-third fare for round trip.

A cold wave, totally unheralded, dropped in on us yesterday mornthe day and this morning fires and overcoats were comfortable. This forenoon it got around to the Southwest and a more genial condition of the atmosphere will probably result. to 10 A. M. and 1 to 7 P. M.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 50 bales. There were two additions to Grace

M. E. Church yesterday. Mr. D. E. Gilchrist, of Nichols, S.

C., was in the city to-day. Mrs. H. Rehder offers for sale a large lot of everblooming monthly roses. See ad. in this issue. A large swinging lamp in the hall of Mr. David Chadwick's residence on Nun, between Fifth and Sixth streets, fell last evening to the floor and was shattered but fortunately the oil did not take fire or a serious disaster might have resulted. Just what kind of a "spirit" is manifested here towards the Queen may be inferred from the fact that the New Hanover Transit Company hat written to Col. Christopher and tendered him the use of Barper's Pier for a landing, should he see fit to come here.

Saturday was a good day for the merchants. They had a splendid trade and Saturday night many of the stores were crowded. One Front street dealer showed us his books. worth on that day. There has also

The Street Railway.

The street railway is fairly under way now. Track laying was begun this morning at the intersection of Front and Red Cross streets and is being rapidly pushed down towards the business quarters. By to-night it will probably be laid to Chestnut street, and by to-morrow night to Market street. There is to be no let-up to the work now but it will be rapidly pushed forward to completion.
