Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses

Advice to old and young: In se lecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eve as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

The anniversary reception of the Wilmington Light Infantry took place at the Armory last night.

Dr. W. E. Storm opened the proceedings with an address.

Capt. J. C Morrison was then presented with a handsome gold Rescue Corps medal he having been an active member of the company for more than the required five years.

The presentation was made by Sergeant Thomas Gause and happily responded to by the recipient. As the Sergeant remarked, no more worthy member of the compa-Dog collars. The Last of Four Children.

It is with great regret that we chronicle to-day the death of Mr. George Winton Hardwicke, the last remaining child of our esteemed friend, Mr. Geo. W. Hardwicke, of the Star, and a young man not yet 21 years of age. Only a few days since Mr. Hardwicke laid away to rest his wife, the beloved companion of his manhood's years, and now the last of his children is to be borne to Oakdale to rest with those who have gone before.

Mr. Hardwicke has been a resi dent of this city for not more than fifteen years, and during that cycle and a half of time he has lost his entire family, wife, two sons and two children of his daughters, remain to comfort his declining years. It is simply terrible to think upon. The heart of the whole community, as with one throb, goes out to him in dained these terrible afflictions, and yet who doeth all things well, furnish a balm for these deep wounds.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Mr. Hardwicke will take place to-morrow, at St. o'clock. The interment will be in Oakdale.

An Incident on the Wharf.

An incident occurred on North Water street, near Market, this afternoon. Two white men, sailors, were seated in a doorway, with a large Newfoundland dog near them. A colored man with a small dog passed and the big dog growled at the little one. Its owner then turned and abused one of the white men. A quarrel resulted and the white man turned aside. As he did so his colored antagonist sprang forward and planted a blow on his head and then took to his heels and fled. In the meantime another colored man, a driver for one of Fowler & Morrison's coal carts, who sported a special policeman's badge 500 Fancy Colored Jerseys to match Sum on his shirt, had arrived on the scene and waited there some time. Capt. Morrison is new Second As soon, however, as the blow was 500 Cloth Shades Jerseys, worth $2.25 for struck he jumped from his cart, col- $1.25. to arrest him. The latter resisted 250 Cloth Black Jerseys, worth $1.25 fo and the man with the badge called him. The sailor swore that he would not surrender to a negro and he did not. Finally a white policeman appeared on the scene and the man submitted and was carried off.

> This is as it was told us. We do not know any of the names. There was much indignation expressed by those who saw it. The question is: How came the man in possession of the special police badge, and was he authorized to wear it?

> > Festival To-Morrow Night.

The pupils of the Union Graded School will give a festival at the City Hall to-morrow night for the benefit of the fund with which they propose to purchase a library. There will be calisthenics, marches and other attractive exercises. We hope that there will be a liberal turnout of our people on the occasion. The object is a most praiseworthy one and should meet with a warm and substantial encouragement.

City Court.

Before the Mayor this morning Lucy Brown was charged with disorderly conduct. She was fined $2.50 or five days. Marcus Bowen, disorderly conduct, discharged.

Mary E. Porter, disorderly, $20 of 18 days in a close cell.

Indications.

For North Carolina, warmer ex cept stationary temperature on the coast, rain followed by fair weather in the western portion, fresh to brisk easterly winds, diminishing in force.

The street railway track having been laid to Castle street the work men broke dirt to-day on Princess stree'. The route on Princess will be from Front to Fifth and there it turns into Fifth and from Fifth into Market.

Some of the cobble stones taken up on North Front street are to be used in paving Third street between Market and Princess.
