SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR

Its peculiar efficacy is due as much to the process and skill in compounding as to the ingredients themselves. Take it in time. It checks disease in the outset, or if advanced will prove a potent cure. No home should be without it.

FOR WHOSE BENEFIT
It takes the place of a doctor and costly prescriptions. All who lead sedentary lives will find it the best preventive of all the low prostrating ailments, Headaches, Constipation, Neuralgia, Biliousness, Piles and Mental Depression. No loss of time, no interference with business, no pain, no danger from excess and harmfulness. No danger from excess and harmfulness. No danger from excess and harmfulness. No danger from excess and harmfulness.

FRANCIS'S OPINION.
I have been practicing medicine for twenty years and have never been able to get up a vegetable compound that would so effectively move the Liver to action, and at the same time aid (instead of weaken) the digestive and assimilative powers of the system.
Wm. H. Francis, M.D., Washington, Ark.

An English clergyman was arrested recently in London, charged with having knocked pieces off the credence table in Westminster Abbey. He wanted them as relics.

A Swiss watch manufacturer has just invented a watch for the blind, on the dial of which the hours are indicated by twelve projecting pegs, one of which sinks every hour.

One of the longest wedding journeys known has extended six years. The happy couple visited Europe, Asia and Australia, Japan and other islands and a part of Africa. The tour cost about $75,000.

A New York oculist asserts that the greatest enemy to the eyes of young men is the cigarette. It causes a disease known to the profession as the "cigarette eye," which can be cured only by long treatment.

The Democrats of the Third District have decided, without one dissenting voice, to retain the Hon. Chas. W. McClammy in the seat he has so acceptably and so honorably filled. The compliment is a very graceful one, yet one well deserved. In honoring him the Democrats of the Third have honored themselves. Maj. McClammy has been faithful to every trust confided in him; he has been a zealous, steady, hardworking and conscientious member and is rapidly acquiring position and influence among his fellow-members.

The admission fee will be ten cents, and lots of good things will be sold, including ice cream, cake, strawberries, fruits, devilled crabs, and other delicacies: all at reasonable prices. The entertainment is given in aid of the building fund of the Church and will be well worth visiting. Besides, the purpose for which it is given should commend it to everybody.

Agents for Mr. J. L. Stone's music house in Raleigh will canvass Wilmington during the next few days. Mr. Stone has just returned from New York, where he purchased the largest stock of pianos and organs ever shipped at one time to this State. He is prepared to furnish the citizens of this city and section with first-class instruments at low figures, and on terms to suit the purchaser. Mr. Stone has the exclusive agency for the celebrated Emerson pianos and has already sold several of them here.

Congressional Convention.

We alluded yesterday to the fact of Maj. McClammy's nomination at Goldsboro by acclamation. The Convention adjourned late in the afternoon and the following is a synopsis of the proceedings as condensed from the official report:

The convention was called to order by Hon. D. H. McLean, chairman of the District Executive Committee, and was temporarily organized by calling Hon. E. W. Kerr, of Clinton, to the chair, and Messrs. Joseph E. Robinson, W. E. Murchison and R. S. White were requested to act as secretaries.

The usual committees were appointed and submitted reports, as follows:

Committee on Credentials—No contests.

Committee on Permanent Organization: To make the temporary organization permanent. Whereupon Mr. Kerr, in a brief but enthusiastic speech, tendered his thanks to the Convention for the honor conferred upon him, counseled harmony in the deliberations, and predicted a glorious victory for Democracy in November next. His speech was received with rousing applause.

The Committee on Rules recommended the majority rule, which was adopted.

The Committee on Resolutions submitted the following report, which was enthusiastically received and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the administration of Grover Cleveland meets our cordial approbation, and we desire to see him again nominated and elected.

Resolved, That we do not deem any enunciation as to National affairs necessary at this time, knowing that our State and National Conventions will not violate the cardinal principles of Democracy, but will make such platforms as all loyal and true Democrats can stand upon.

On motion of Mr. C. B. Aycock, the Convention proceeded to entertain nominations for Congressmen.

Mr. A. C. Huggins, of Onslow, put in nomination Hon. W. J. Green, of Cumberland, whereupon Mr. Green claimed the attention of the chair to withdraw his name, and after an eloquent testimonial to the high statesmanship and untiring party service of Maj. C. W. McClammy, of Pender, the present efficient representative before the Convention and moved that he be renominated by acclamation. In an instant fifty delegates were upon their feet to second the motion, and with a rousing and enthusiastic vote the motion was carried and Mr. McClammy declared the Congressional nominee of the Convention.

To the National Convention the following delegates were elected: Mr. H. E. Faison, of Sampson, and Col. S. B. Taylor, of Onslow. Alternates, Mr. W. E. Murchison, of Cumberland, and Mr. Henry Weil, of Wayne.

The name of Mr. C. B. Aycock, of Wayne, was put in nomination for Presidential Elector, and the nomination was made unanimous.

Next in order was the election of a new Executive Committee, which resulted as follows:

Executive Committee—Bladen, R. S. White; Cumberland, A. McBaie; Duplin, R. C. Broadhurst; Harnett, F. J. Swann; Moore, D. E. Melver; Onslow, J. W. Spicer; Pender, T. J. Armstrong; Sampson, J. W. S. Robinson; Wayne, O. Holmes.

The following preamble and resolution were read and unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, We recognize the great ability and high qualifications of Hon. Alfred M. Waddell as a party leader and an eloquent and fearless champion of the principles of Democracy, and remember with proud satisfaction the eminent services which he has rendered to his people in the past; therefore,

Resolved, That we hereby recommend to our State Convention, to assemble on the 30th inst., that that distinguished Democrat be selected as one of the Presidential Electors for the State at large.

Knights of Pythias.

Mr. T. D. Meares, Grand Chancellor of the Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias, visited last week the lodges at Charlotte, Salisbury, Greensboro, Fayetteville, Maxton and Laurinburg. At the latter place he delivered a public address. He left last night for Raleigh where he will visit Centre Lodge No. 3 to-day. To-morrow he will visit Durham, thus completing his official visitation to all the lodges of the Order in the State. He reports the Order in a flourishing condition, and gaining members rapidly.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.

Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Fly Traps, best and cheapest, at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot.

Republican State Ticket.

The Republican State Convention met yesterday in Raleigh. J. E. Boyd was elected permanent chairman by one vote over the Hon. D. L. Russell, of this city. Nominations were as follows: For Governor—O. H. Dockery; Lieut. Governor—J. C. Pritchard, of Madison; Secretary of State—G. W. Staunton, of Wilson; Auditor—C. F. McKesson, of Burke; Treasurer—G. A. Bingham, of Rowan.

Criminal Court.

The following cases were disposed of in this Court to-day:

State vs. Robert Williams, for larceny. Defendant submits. Judgment, $50 and costs.

State vs. Henry Jones, for forgery. Defendant submits. Judgment, $50 and costs.

State vs. Hilda Raymond and Ida Raymond, for keeping a bawdy house. Nol prosee with leave.

City Court.

Willis Drake was before the Mayor this morning charged with disorderly conduct and resisting a police officer. He was ordered confined in a close cell for 30 days.

William Martin, charged with disorderly conduct, was discharged.

Successful and Pleasant.

The festival given at the City Hall last night by the pupils of the Union Graded School was a remarkably successful and pleasant affair. The exercises and calisthenics and marching were very fine and elicited the warmest encomiums from the spectators. There was a delightful supply of the "delicacies of life" in the shape of ices, cakes, lemonades, coffee, salads, sandwiches, &c., which received the careful attention of the large audience present and the shovels flowed in as the sweets flowed out. The following young ladies were the presiding goddesses of the booths:

Candy Booth—Misses May French and Sarah Lippitt.

Cake Booth—Mrs. Harry Smith and Misses Mamie Johnson and Carrie and Mamie McInnis.

Milk Shake Booth—Misses Mary Maffitt, Carrie Maffitt, Mattie Allen and Janie Allen.

Flower Booth—Misses Fannie Hardin, Callie French, Augusta McPherson, Janie Northrop.

Refreshment Booth—Mrs. Maffitt, Mrs. Hancock and Miss Maggie Hall.

The waiters, sitting here and there, were Misses Rosa Smith, Maud Morris, Annie Forshee, Rosa Zeigler, Mary Stellers, Hannah Shrier, Estelle Shrier, Kate Johnson, Birdie Forshee and Eva Cook.

The proceeds of the festival, as is known, go to the Library Fund of the school and we are glad to chronicle the fact that about $100 was realized last night for this purpose.

Nothing Fairer.

I. Shrier, at No. 16 N. Front street, guarantees, if any purchasers of Clothing, Hats and Furnishing Goods are not perfectly satisfied, he will refund the money. He also guarantees to save you from 15 to 25 per cent. on the identical goods you may purchase elsewhere. It will be of no expense to you to convince yourself of the fact and you will be money ahead by calling at

Why He Wasn't There.

Maj. McClammy was not on hand yesterday at the Congressional Convention in Goldsboro and the way and the wherefore is amply and handsomely explained in the following letter to a friend in Goldsboro which was not, by the way, written for publication:

"The tariff debate closes on Saturday (last Saturday); any day after that time the bill may be called up for amendment and vote. Of course, I would like to be present at the convention, but these amendments are more important to the people who committed their interests to them, and I shall remain at my post and do my duty, even if I fail to get nominated."

Mr. H. O. Craig, representative from Orion Lodge No. 67 to the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, made a very elaborate report to his lodge last night. He reported the financial condition as very good—better than it has been for years—with a large increase of membership.

Mr. Doshier's new mail steamer, the Bessie, arrived in below at Southport last night.

Capt. Alfred G. Hankins delivered an interesting address before the Christian Association of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church at its session last evening.

Personal.

Mr. Geo. Z. French, of Rocky Point, was here to-day.

Mr. Thos. H. McKoy, Jr., of New York, was in the city to-day.
