Heinsberger's
Book and Music Store.

Judge Thurman has denied the report that has consented to the use of his name for the Vice-Presidential nomination.

The Guion Line is now having constructed a steamship that will cross the water between New York and Queenstown in five days.

North Carolina is bounded on one side by Vinegar Hill, on another by Crab Tree creek, on the third by the Penitentiary and on the fourth by Hell's Half-Acre. The R. & D. R. R. circumscribes the entire State.

The uncertainty concerning titles is thought to be a cause of dulness in New York real estate. Many of the old family properties were settled in a careless manner, and in some instances heirs have reappeared causing perplexity and confusion.

It is to be hoped the Democrats of Wake county and of the so-called "Metropolitan" district will put themselves together now and not let the enemy capture their fort this time, as he did the last. It isn't very complimentary to a candidate for Governor of the great commonwealth of North Carolina to say that he hails from a district which ought to be Democratic but which isn't.

A cobra bite has been cured. Dr. Richards, as reported by the India Daily News, was handling a cobra with the intention of extracting some poison, when he was bitten on the finger. He immediately cut it open to the bone above the wound, and applied permanganate of potash, put on a ligature, and hurried off for advice. Another doctor opened the wound and cauterized it with nitric acid, and Dr. Richards has recovered.

A young gentleman of France, one evening after a dance, made a bet while supping that he could swallow a raw egg without breaking the shell, and he did so. A few days afterward he experienced violent pains; the doctor administered a strong emetic, the egg came back, but broken, and out sprang a young chicken. The warmth of the young man's stomach had produced the unexpected result, and if any one doubts the truth of the story, say those who vouch for it, he can go to Chalons and see the chicken that was hatched.

The monument committee of the Pickett Association of Richmond, Va., have submitted a plan for the proposed monument to the late Gen. George E. Pickett in that city. The hexagonal design is recommended. The entire height of the shaft will be about eighteen feet, with six rustic columns and six bronze plates for inscriptions—one for Gen. Pickett, one for each of the four brigades and one for the artillery. The cost of the monument will be about $1,100, and sufficient money has been subscribed to justify the Association in contracting for the erection of the monument.

The sphinx has spoken. Mr. Blaine has written from Paris to his henchman and chief bottle-washer, Whitelaw Reid, and again declines to accept a nomination which has not yet been tendered him. This may or may not, be the final decision of the author of the Mulligan letters. He says: Assuming that the Presidential nomination could by any possible chance be offered to me, I could not accept it without leaving in the minds of thousands of these men the impression that I had not been free from indirectness, and therefore I could not accept it at all. The misrepresentations of malice have no weight, but the just displeasure of friends I could not patiently endure.

We have lost and of course we feel bad about it. But the bitterest part of the whole thing is that the nomination was given to a section which in no way deserves it. Per contra, the Cape Fear section is always Democratic and can always be relied upon to do its duty. It was here that reform was first started; it was here that the plans of the campaign which led to the overthrow of W. W. Holden and his gang of cut-throats was planned and it was here that originated and was enforced the suggestion for a new constitution. And yet we are overslaughed and disregarded, although it is the first time in more than half a century that we have asked to name the head of the party in the State.

When Gen. Cox telegraphed from Raleigh to Lumberton to hold Robeson and save the State, the reply was prompt, emphatic and decisive. Robeson was held, the State was saved and the infamous Holden's power was forever broken in North Carolina. Had the situation been somewhat reversed and had somebody in Lumberton wired somebody else in Raleigh to hold Wake and save the State we wonder what the response would have been!

Hood's Sarsaparilla is peculiar to itself and superior to all other preparations in strength, economy, and medicinal merit.

Family excursion on the Passport to-morrow.

May, the last of the Spring months, leaves us to-day.

The cheapest place to buy your school books and school stationery is at Heinsberger's.

Burglars. You can be safe from them by using the Burglar Proof Blind Locks, sold at Jacobi's.

Fishing Tackle. A full assortment of all kinds for both salt and fresh water fishing at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot.

The Seacoast Railway is at the Sound, Capt. Manning's place having been reached yesterday at 12 o'clock.

We have heard the address delivered at the National Cemetery yesterday by Rev. Mr. Coerr very highly spoken of.

Schooner Avita, Small, cleared to-day for St. Pierre, Mart., with 245,000 feet of lumber valued at $3,554, shipped by master.

Messrs. S. VanAmringe & Co. will to-morrow sell at auction the entire stock of goods of the late A. Lessman, on Second street.

Indications.
For North Carolina, slight changes in temperature, local rains, followed by fair weather and light to fresh southerly winds.

The steamer Passport will give this afternoon the second of the series of excursions about the harbor. She will run up to Hilton and to the Navassa Works and a short distance down the river.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.
Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Agents for Mr. J. L. Stone's music house in Raleigh will canvass Wilmington during the next few days. Mr. Stone has just returned from New York, where he purchased the largest stock of pianos and organs ever shipped at one time to this State. He is prepared to furnish the citizens of this city and section with first-class instruments at low figures, and on terms to suit the purchaser. Mr. Stone has the exclusive agency for the celebrated Emerson pianos and has already sold several of them here.

Nothing Fairer.
I. Shrier, at No. 16 N. Front street, guarantees, if any purchasers of Clothing, Hats and Furnishing Goods are not perfectly satisfied, he will refund the money. He also guarantees to save you from 15 to 25 per cent. on the identical goods you may purchase elsewhere. It will be of no expense to you to convince yourself of the fact and you will be money ahead by calling at

I. SHRIER'S,
The Old Reliable Clothier,
No. 16 and 20 N. Front St.
Sign of Golden Arm.

Dog collars. Largest and finest assortment ever before brought to this city, to be had at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot.

Fowle Nominated.
The following special to the DAILY REVIEW will amply explain themselves:

CONVENTION HALL, 1:14 P. M.
Alexander withdrew on 22d ballot. Fowle will be nominated. W.

CONVENTION HALL, 1:27 P. M.
Alexander has withdrawn. The contest is narrowed to Fowle and Stedman. The indications are that Fowle will be nominated on the next ballot. M.

RALEIGH, 2 P. M.
Fowle nominated. Ballot not yet announced. W.

RALEIGH, 2:25 P. M.
On the final ballot Judge Fowle received 523 votes and Maj. Stedman 435. The vote was made unanimous, on motion of Maj. Stedman, who in a speech of singular nobility aroused great enthusiasm and called forth great applause for "Senator" Stedman. Judge Fowle is now addressing the Convention in a magnificent speech. Capt. Alexander will be nominated for Lieutenant Governor. W.

Ladies' Missionary Convention.
The Ladies' Missionary Societies of Wilmington Presbytery met in Convention yesterday afternoon in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian Church. There was a full attendance of delegates, nearly all the churches in the Presbytery being represented. Mrs. B. F. Hall, of this city, was elected president and Miss Anderson, of Goldsboro, secretary. A telegram conveying the greetings and congratulations from the Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Church of Charlotte was received and a committee was appointed to prepare a fitting response. The Convention adjourned until 11 a. m. this forenoon when it was addressed by Mrs. Stewart, wife of Rev. Mr. Stewart, missionary to China.

Noble in Defeat.
Lent Gov. Stedman's conduct in defeat is as glorious as it is in the hour of victory. He accepted the issue to-day very cheerfully,—more cheerfully, in fact, than his friends do. He never kicks over the party traces because he doesn't get what he wants and in all of the defeats which he has sustained he has never yet failed to contribute liberally to the election of his opponent, or refused to take the stump in his behalf.

The American for June.
The June issue of the The American Magazine is an exceptionally brilliant number. The illustrations and letter-press are excellent, and the contents varied and entertaining. Among the notable features is an interesting and finely illustrated paper on "Our Defenses from an Army Standpoint;" "The Art of Entertaining;" and "Dickens on the American Stage." The month furnishes Zitella Cooke with the text for a pretty poem, "June." "Barbados: The Elbow Island," is described in an illustrated paper. The concluding portion of "My Dream of Anarchy and Dynamite" is quite as interesting as the May installment. Another illustrated article is "Ecuador and her Cities." Hamlin Garland contributes another of his poetic-prose descriptions of "Boy Life on the Prairie," dealing with the time "Between Hay and Grass." "Other poems are "The Sky and the Wood," and "Evening." In this installment of "Two Coronets," Mary Agnes Ticker brings her readers back to New England. The number contains three short stories of merit: "Dinner for Two," "In His Own Country," and "From Out the Pines." The departments are unusually full and interesting.

Reduction in Passenger Rates.
A reduction in first-class ticket rates from four cents per mile to three and a half cents per mile, goes into effect on the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad to-morrow, June 1st. Passengers without tickets taking trains at stations where there are agents will be charged from twenty-five to fifty cents more than ticket rates.

Bathing Suits. Come down to Headquarters. 25 dozen Flannel Bathing Suits, in all sizes and colors, sold at the lowest manufacturing prices at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 27 Market st., J. Elsbach, Prop. Look for the blue awning.

The Sorcerer.
Never has a more delightful amateur entertainment been presented to the citizens of Wilmington than was that of Gilbert & Sullivan's charming comic opera, "The Sorcerer," at the Opera House last evening. It was for the benefit of the Armory Fund of the Wilmington Light Infantry and the Company were out in force and in full uniform. It was all home talent in the piece and the presentation was in every way a charming one. The cast was as follows: Lady Sangazure, Miss A. B. Cameron; Aline, Miss Josie Myers; Mrs. Partlett, Mrs. W. N. Harriss; Constance, Miss Minnie Schwartz; Sir Marmaduke Poindexter, Mr. R. S. French; Alexis, Mr. H. M. Emerson; Doctor Daly, Mr. E. P. Boatwright; John Wellington Wells, Mr. J. D. Nutt; Notary, Mr. W. A. Dick.

Aline was the character around which all revolved and not yet, in amateur circles in any city, anywhere, do we believe that the character has been more fully conceived or more faithfully portrayed. Miss Schwartz made a very happy hit as Constance. Miss Cameron's impersonation of the ancient dame was remarkably felicitous. Mrs. Harriss, as Mrs. Partlett, was excellent. Mr. Nutt, as The Sorcerer, was simply glorious. Messrs. Boatwright, Emerson, French and Dick were in good voice and trim and did excellently.

A repetition of the piece, at an early day, is now in order.
