Mr. John L. Wescott, of Southport, is on the sick list.

There was just about enough rain yesterday to lay the dust.

Fly Traps, best and cheapest, at Jacob's Hd. Depot.

Headquarters for Bass Balls, Bats, Minks, Gloves, Belts &c., is at Heinsberger's.

Wire Cloth for your windows and and doors can be had at Jacob's Hd. Depot.

Burglars. You can be safe from them by using the Burglar Proof Blind Locks, sold at Jacob's.

Two great enemies—Hood's Sarsaparilla and impure blood. The latter is utterly defeated by the peculiar medicine.

Another fine excursion will be given on the Passport to-morrow evening. The usual run will be made.

Dog collars. Largest and finest assortment ever before brought to this city, to be had at Jacob's Hd. Depot.

Another lot of those celebrated Oil Stoves just received at Jacob's Hd. Depot. It will pay you to use one.

Tuesday's Charlotte Chronicle arrived here safely this (Thursday) morning. Is this to be taken as a specimen of the workings of the new mail schedule?

A large crowd went down this morning on the Passport, the occasion being the excursion given by the ladies of Grace M. E. Church to the Rocks and the Forts.

Bathing Suits. Come down to Headquarters. 25 dozen Flannel Bathing Suits, in all sizes and colors, sold at the lowest manufacturing prices at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 27 Market st., J. Elsbach, Prop. Look for the blue awning.

Attention is invited to advertisement of the new grocery house of Messrs. Everitt & Clark. This house makes a specialty of Fulton Market corn beef. A gentleman was in there yesterday when they opened a fresh barrel and Mr. Everitt remarked to him that 21 years ago he sold this beef from the same house in New York. Then he was selling it for another man; to-day he sells it for himself.

There was not a big crowd on the Passport yesterday, but there were some good fishermen aboard. The party did not go out to the Snapper Banks, as was intended, but stopped at the rocks, about seven miles out, where they were kept busy hauling them in "hand over fist" for five or six hours. In all they got about 1,100 fish, two of the party, Messrs. William Koch and Oscar Vollers, who fished together, getting 230 fish between them.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses. Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

We are Determined To Kill The high prices which are ranging in this section, and we have nearly succeeded, as our increase of sales for the past month testifies. We guarantee a saving from 15 to 25 per cent. on all goods purchased; also, to be as well made, same material, as sold elsewhere, or money refunded if not satisfactory.

I. SHRIER'S, The Old Reliable Clothier, No. 16 and 20 N. Front St. Sign of Golden Arm.

Fishing Tackle. A full assortment of all kinds for both salt and fresh water fishing at Jacob's Hd. Depot.

I. O. O. F.

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows in this city have made a new start in gaining members. Orion Lodge made a friendly visit on Tuesday night to Cape Fear Lodge while two candidates were initiated and the degrees were conferred on several.

To-morrow will be a big day for Wilmington for on that day the first passenger train is to run between Wilmington and Wrightsville. The Sunday School of St. Paul's Church have chartered all trains for that day and four will be run, leaving Front street depot at 8:30 a. m. and 1, 2:30 and 5 p. m. The trains will leave Tenth and Market streets ten minutes after leaving Front street depot.

Bald Head. Somebody ought to build a wharf at Bald Head. There are many here who would like to visit the place and there are but very few who have ever been there. Ever since the publication of the article in the REVIEW last Winter descriptive of the place there has been a general desire to visit it. The prospect of even a short stay there would add a great deal of zest to a trip down the river.

New Law Firm. Capt. R. H. Lyon, of Bladen county, has removed with his family to the city, where we trust that his stay will be long and pleasant. He will practise his profession here and has formed a copartnership with Mr. Jas. T. Elliott, of this city. The firm name is that of Lyon & Elliott and these gentlemen have opened an office opposite the Court House for the general practise of the law. They will give faithful and prompt attention to all business entrusted to them.

The State Dental Society. The 14th annual convention of the State Dental Society is now in session at Raleigh. The News and Observer publishes a report of the routine of the first day and adds this:

The meeting is by far the most auspicious and successful ever held in North Carolina, and in talking with several prominent members of the association yesterday we heard them express themselves as highly gratified at the full attendance and at the interest and professional spirit which it indicated.

Each train brings in a large number of dentists, and up to this morning about 75 have arrived. The indications are that the meeting will prove of the greatest interest and of the most fruitful results of any ever held.

The papers which are being read and discussed in the meetings bear evidence of intelligence, research and the most careful thought and study. It ought to be a source of gratification to North Carolina that a class of her professional men entrusted with such delicate duties are thus endeavoring to advance and perfect their high calling.

City Court. There was a large crowd assembled at the city court this morning and a pretty full docket. The following cases were disposed of:

Thomas Robinson and Charlie Howe, affray, both discharged.

Lewis J. Mills, drunk and disorderly, $10 or 20 days.

Joe Ellison and John Beaty, larceny. John Beaty discharged, Joe Ellison bound over to the next term of Criminal Court in the sum of $100, justified bond.

Charles Croom, disorderly conduct, discharged.

Dave Johnson, larceny, bound over to the next term of Criminal Court in the sum of $200, justified bond.

Joe Seeden, disorderly conduct, $20 or 30 days.

There were two other cases of disorderly conduct but we suppress their names by request.

Politics and Peaches. We thank our good friend, Mr. J. T. Collins, of Burgaw, for a box of very fine peaches from his orchard, received by express this morning. Mr. Collins says that from two trees he has already gathered two bushels of peaches and no one would know that any fruit had been pulled from those trees. His apple crop is also a very fair one. He says that the truckers of the Burgaw section are still hard at work shipping potatoes, beans, fruit, &c. Mr. Collins predicts good crops and a big Democratic majority this year in Pender

Closing Exercises of the Lutheran Anniversary Celebration.

A fine congregation assembled last night in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church to witness and take part in the closing exercises connected with the 30th anniversary celebration of its organization.

The church was handsomely and appropriately decorated for the occasion. The decorations were not only highly suitable but very pleasing and we might even say, grand. On a large black cloth which spanned the organ recess, immediately in the rear of the pulpit, the words "Blessed are the dead, which die in the Lord," were fastened, in letters of white, arranged so as to hang gracefully across the dark background. Choice plants were placed, as sentinels of beauty, on each end of the altar, but the finest, most attractive, appropriate and beautiful arrangement centered at and around the pulpit. At the foot of the pulpit the church record books were placed, opened at the lists of the dead of the church. Above these was a handsome chart on which the figures 1858 and 1888 and the words "In Memoriam" had been tastefully painted, surrounded with bronzing which fairly glittered under the gaslight. Over this hung a wreath of purest white. On the pulpit a picture of Rev. J. H. Mengert, the first pastor, was fastened, which was surmounted by a large and handsome cross made of well selected case jessamine flowers, which were kindly and thoughtfully presented for the occasion by Mr. George H. Ward, superintendent of Bellevue Cemetery, in honor and in memory of the late Prof. Knobloch. Fastened by invisible wires and projecting out and over the other adornments, seemingly without a support, it was a superb sight. Around these various decorations living plants were arrayed, and at the foot of them all lay sheaves of barley and sickles of flowers. Many who saw these decorations pronounced them to be the finest they had ever seen for such an occasion.

During the exercises Mrs. F. W. E. Peschau, standing in front of the altar, read a very excellent essay, on the history, progress and work of the Dorcas Society. The essay was well prepared, full of interesting lessons, was read in an admirable manner and received many commendations.

An essay was also read by Miss Kate Bremer, which was a very excellent production. It was on the history, progress and work of the Mengert Missionary Society. The essay and the admirable reading thereof reflected much credit on Miss Bremer and won general favor. We hope these ladies will ere long favor their friends and serve their societies by other essays as they certainly did well last night; any church could be proud of such writers and readers.

After the reading of these productions the choir sang a trio, and Rev. F. W. E. Peschau made some remarks in German. Miss Minnie Schwarz then sang in a most admirable manner the touching and grand solo "The Crucifix," by Faure.

After brief remarks in English, the pastor calling on the elders of the church, Messrs. H. Cronenberg and A. D. Wessel, to hold the records of the church, read the list of the dead without word or comment. During this impressive exercise the congregation stood in silence; many had never before witnessed such memorial exercises; it was a touching and solemn part of the occasion.

The last piece of the evening was Lachner's duette, "My faith looks up to Thee," and was sung by Miss Schwarz and Mrs. J. Haar, Jr. It moved many to tears.

During his remarks the pastor gave quite a number of interesting facts, regarding the peculiar and extraordinary events in the death and burial of members, etc. Thus closed the interesting exercises which were introduced by divine services last Sunday. The congregation held special services on the Lord's day, and so did the Sunday School. On Tuesday night, in Luther Memorial Building, the young people had their celebration, and the Young People's Association and the Christian Association were not forgotten, and on Wednesday night the Dorcas and Missionary Societies had their exercises, so that all the organized parts of the Church had proper observances of the 30th anniversary. The services and exercises were well attended, were of a highly interesting character and no doubt have done much good.

The Sunday School will have its excursion to-morrow, and will be the first to patronize the Seacoast Railway. The train leaves the Weldon Depot at 8:30 a. m. and leaves corner Market and Tenth streets at 8:40 a. m.

Knocked Down and Mashed. An accident occurred this morning at the corner of Front and Dock streets. Mr. Joe King, son of Rev. J. P. King, was riding down the street when a colored boy attempted to run across in front of the horse. The two came into collision, however, and the boy was knocked down and one of his feet was mashed. Mr. King had him conveyed to his home and offered to pay the fees of a physician.

A Bad Fall. A little girl of four or five years, the daughter of Mr. S. H. Penny, yesterday fell from a window on the second floor of her father's residence, 409 North Eighth street, to the ground below, a distance of twelve or fifteen feet. She was picked up unconscious and a physician was hastily summoned. We are glad to know that no serious injuries were sustained and that the little sufferer is resting comfortably today, with a prospect of an early recovery.

Two Interesting Problems. EDITOR REVIEW:—I saw your chicken problem in yesterday's issue, copied from the Atlanta Constitution. This is an old problem in a new dress. It was given me over ten years ago by a man who could not solve it; who said the man who gave it to him could not solve it, nor had he up to that time been able to find one who could. I gave him the answer; it is this: No. 1 sells 30 chickens at 2 for $1, receiving $15, making 15 sales of 2 for $1. No. 2 sells 30 at 3 for $1, receiving $10, but making only 10 sales of 3 for $1. The proportion of 5 for 2 therefore only existed up to the sale of 50 fowls, 10 sales of 5 for $1 and that 10 were sold at 2 for $1 and that is where the extra $1 comes in. Now that you are on problems I will give you one that was given to me about a year ago, to which I gave the correct answer, though the party by whom it was given out said that my answer was not right. I have given this problem to a great many since then but have yet to find one to give the correct answer. It is this: A man buys three (3) barrels sugar, weighing two hundred and ten (210) pounds each, which he sells at 12 1/2 cents per pound, but in selling he gives short weight, stealing one-half (1/2) ounce from each pound. How much did he gain by his rascality? The correct answer is $3.54, though the answer all give is $2.46. They overlook the fact that when selling what he steals he also steals from his stealings and the extra 8 cents comes in there.

Yours truly,
J. M. FORSHEE.
