Those who have burned the midnight oil in order to arrive at some conclusion concerning the hen and a half that laid an egg and a half in a day and a half, may find the follow ing a relief: "A certain family in Lincoln county consists of one grandfather, two grandmothers, one father-in-law, two mothers-in-law three mothers, two fathers, two daughters, one son, one daughterin-law, one son-in-law, one granddaughter, and there are only six persons in the family.

Knocked From a Ladder.

Mr. John D. Steljes, a member of Yesterday's issue was dated, on Howard Relief Fire Engine Co., No. 1, met with a serious accident at the fire last night. He was on a ladder helping with the hose, when he was struck by a stream of water and knocked off, falling to the pavement in the alley. He was taken to Mr. W. F. Ortmann's saloon, on Second street, where Dr. Thomas was summoned to attend him. We are glad to be able to state that there are no fractures of any of the bones and it is hope I that he will be all night again in a few days.

Excursion Rates.

The railroads running into this city are making up their Summer excursion schedules now. The authorities of the Carolina Central have put out excursion rates and tickets for all points on their line and the roads of the Seaboard system and a man can bay a ticket now there and as a result they brought from any point in the interior di rect to Wilmington, Wrightsville, Southport. They expect a large excursion travel on their road this sea son and we do not think they will be disappointed. The authorities of the Atlantic Coast Line are also getting out a schedule and tickets for Summer travel, with rates from all points to this city.

Track and Horses but no Cars.

The curves for the street track were put in to-day. On yesterday 21 of 32 horses to be used were brought here and stalled at Mr. J. W. Taylor's stables, on Front street. They were purchased in the Western part of this State by Mr. Josiah Merritt. Mr. Taylor's stables is to be headquarters for the stock and the cars and to-day the curve was put in and the track was run into the stables. The cars have not yet arrived and cannot be had before the latter part of the month. The delay is vexatious, but it is unavoid

"CAPTAIN KIDD'S GOLD. THE TRUE STORY OF AN ADVENTUROUS SAIL-By James Franklin Fitts. No. 10 of the "Boys' Home Library." Paper, 12mo. Price, 25 162 William St., New York.

The author of this number of Mr. Burt's excellent Boys' Library has caught the true spirit of Daniel Defoe and Captain Marryatt, and he has here given to the boys of America a most fascinating story of the sea. Not only is it a clever and entertaining story, but it embodies such lessons in geography, and his tory as make it of sterling value to parents and instructors, while the Those for shipment in the interior high moral tone that everywhere will be taken direct from the water breathes through it is a strong recommendation. The author has evidently travelled far and seen much as his pen-pictures of interesting localities could never have been drawn at second-hand. The illustrations are apt, and the volume cannot fail to make its way to the boys. It is for sale at the book-

The Fire Last Night.

The alarm of fire last night came from the rear part of Messrs. W. E. Springer & Co.'s hardware house, on North Front street. The building in which it occurred opens on Toom er's alley but work has been in progress there of late for the purpose of connecting it with the main building. Some hardware and glass are were stored there and it is probable that all of that part of the stock is completely ruined. The fire department got to work at it in an almost incredibly short space of time, the Adrian getting in the first stream, and in ten minutes after they tackled it they had it under control, notwithstanding the fact that the upper floors were all in flames. The amount of loss is not yet fully known but it is amply cov. ered by insurance. The building, ewned by Messrs. Springer & Co. was insured in the policies which also cover the large building in front in the North British for $2,500; the Queen for $2,500, and the Orient for $2,750, all represented by Messrs Atkinson & Manning; and in the Royal for $3,500, the Georgia Home for $3,500, and the Norwich for $2,000, all represented by Messrs. Northrop, Hodges & Taylor. The stock was insured with Messrs. Smith & Boatwright, in the Liver pool, London & Globe, for $15,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Well Pleased.

The directors of the Seacoast Railroad went over the road yesterday on a tour of inspection. They found the track in thorough order, the bridges and trestles strong and substantial, and expressed themselves as well pleased with the manner in which the work had been done by the contractors.
