Well Done and Promptly Done. One of the speakers at the railroad celebration at the Hummock on Saturday last-it was Col. Waddell, we believe-said that it was the first time in his knowledge where a raiiroad had been completed and turned over to the projectors in the time agreed upon and specified. In this instance the Seacoast Road was delivered to the company one day in advance of that agreed upon. The construction occupied only about one hundred days. Mr. W. H. Chadbourn was the contractor, Mr. Jas. H. Chadbourn, Jr., was the manager and the engineer was our young friend, Mr. W. H. Chadbourn, Jr. It was this latter gentleman who drew all of the plans and made all The Acme Base Ball Club, of this of the surveys.
