The Daily Review.
THURSDAY, JUNE 28, 1888.
IN CONGRESS YESTERDAY.

SENATE.
WASHINGTON, June 27. — House bills were reported and placed on the calendar, authorizing the construction of railroad bridges across the Oconee and Flint rivers, Georgia, the Tennessee river at Lamb's Ferry, Alabama, the Warrior and Tombigbee rivers, Alabama, and the Ocmulgee river in Georgia.

The Senate then took up the River and Harbor Appropriation bill. The item for Philadelphia harbor was the first to provoke discussion, but it was agreed to. The amendment increases the appropriation from $250,000 to $550,000, and provides that $300,000 of that amount may be expended for the purchase of Smith's Island, Windmill Island and Petty's Island, in the harbor.

An amendment striking out the item of $100,000 for improving Winaway Bay, Georgetown, S. C., and inserting in lieu of it a provision for a board of army engineers to examine Capt. Bixby's plan for its improvement, was discussed at some length. The result was that the appropriation was retained, and the provision was also inserted.

Among the other amendments agreed to were the following: Increasing the appropriation for Savannah harbor, Ga., from $90,000 to $200,000, and inserting the words, "on the project for securing a channel twenty-eight feet deep at mean high water from Savannah to the sea."

The amendments were agreed to as follows: Increasing the appropriation to complete the improvement of the Cape Fear river below Wilmington, N. C., from $100,000 to $245,000; increasing the appropriation for Pamlico and Tar rivers, from the mouth to the falls at Rocky Mount, N. C., from $5,000 to $10,000, and of Roanoke river, N. C., from its mouth to Clarksville, Va., from $7,000 to $40,000; inserting an item of $5,000 for Lumber river, N. C.

An amendment inserting an item of $10,000 for Yadkin river, N. C., was the subject of a long discussion, the amendment being opposed by Mr. Edmunds and advocated by Mr. Ransom. Mr. Edmunds compared the Yadkin to that other stream in North Carolina which it was once proposed to improve, and as to which an army engineer reported that it could be made navigable if water were pumped into it from another river behind the mountains.

Mr. Ransom remarked that that was a piece of imagination on Mr. Edmunds' part, and said, jocularly, that if the Senator from Vermont were to see the Yadkin river, he would change his mind (as he had done in the case of the Cape Fear river), and would think that a million or two of dollars ought to be spent on it. There was more whiskey made in that county than the Senator from Vermont supposed there was water in the Yadkin.

The amendment was voted on and the result was—yeas 29, nays 6. No quorum.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The House resumed consideration of the public land bill, the yeas and nays being taken on Mr. Holman's amendment retaining the title of the government to coal mines found on public lands, but allowing entrymen to mine such coal deposits until Congress acts further in the matter. The amendment was adopted, and the bill was then passed.

On motion of Mr. Scott, of Pennsylvania, a resolution was passed granting leave to government employes who participated in the battle of Gettysburg to attend the anniversary of the battle.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the tariff bill.

STATE NEWS.

Durham Recorder: The farmers in Granville county are very backward with their crops. Not more than 70 cent of the tobacco crop has been planted owing to the severe drought.

Newbern Journal: The marriage of Mr. Wis. Sultan, one of our prominent merchants, to Miss Augusta Cohen, the accomplished daughter of Mr. Wm. Cohen, took place yesterday afternoon, Mr. Max Moses being the officiating Rabbi.

Raleigh News and Observer: The Governor yesterday duly commissioned the following military officers: J. B. S. McIntosh, Captain of Company C, 4th Regiment; W. S. Battle, Jr., First Lieutenant of the Warren Guard; S. L. Hart, Jr., Captain, C. W. Hammond, First Lieutenant, and Samuel A. Arrington, Second Lieutenant of the Rocky Mount Light Infantry.

Durham Plant: Yesterday a citizen of the town, and one who is abundantly able to back up his words with the shekels, declared that very shortly he would erect a grand new hotel and a cotton factory of respectable dimensions in the town. — Only a few days ago the Plant called attention to the need of gas works in the town. Now we are pleased to be able to state that negotiations are in hand that are likely to eventuate in giving Durham a first-class gas plant in the very near future. (We think you have a first-class Plant already.)

Charlotte Chronicle: The Lutheran parsonage, in the rear of the beautiful church in Concord, is nearing completion and a gem of a house it will be, worth about $3,000. — The Rev. Dr. J. B. Shearer, Vice-Chancellor of the Southwestern Presbyterian University, Clarksville, Tenn., who was unanimously elected President of Davidson College last week, has formally accepted the position in a letter received yesterday by Col. J. L. Brown, of this city, who is the President of the Board of Trustees of the College.

Asheville Citizen: A few days ago a mother, living in Madison county, not many miles from the Buncombe county line, gave birth to a female child, perfectly developed in every respect. In addition to all this a fully defined bustle, natural as a bustle can be, was also discovered on that portion of the body where a bustle is supposed to be worn by all well-regulated and fashionable females. This bustle formation is like unto the famous Goodrich rubber patent, and is not the result of deformity. The child is healthy and strong, and its mother is a middle-aged lady, in whom no deformity exists.
