Pimples, boils and other humors are liable to appear when the blood gets heated. To cure them, take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Indications.

For North Carolina, slightly warmer fair weather, preceded on the coast by local rains.

If you want to feel comfortable and well all you need is a good Hammock. You will find the largest assortment and cheapest at Heinsberger's.

Mr. R. M. Wescott and family returned from Kelley's Cove this morning. He reports the crops looking very bad, but after the rain last night the farmers have great hopes that they will turn out all right.

Attention Young Men's Democratic Club.
All members are hereby notified that I. Shrier has the contract to furnish uniforms, where subscriptions and names for enrollment will hereafter be received.

E. H. FREEMAN,
Chm Finance Com.

The steam yacht Tarpon took a large party up the Sound on Monday. They had a band of music on board and all enjoyed themselves hugely.

The wind blew a gale for a while at the Sound last night, and the rain came down in torrents. We have not heard of any damage being done.

Don't forget the excursion to-morrow to Carolina Beach on the Sylvan Grove, under the auspices of the Germania Cornet Band. There will be music by the band and the harpers; the committee are working hard to make this excursion superior to any we have had this season.

Eclipse of the Moon.

An eclipse of the moon will occur on the 22nd inst., and will be more interesting than the one of January 28th. The diameter of the earth's shadow will be much larger at that time in proportion to the diameter of the moon, darkening the place at midnight when the moon is higher in the heavens, and it will be visible in this section.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.
Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

From Freund's Music and Drama New York.

The Emerson Pianos are remarkable for their full, free tone, which is both beautiful in quality and very powerful; its evenness and sympathetic touch commend it to all musicians. The new scale, which has been put in the new styles, has greatly added to and increased the musical qualities of the instruments.

The Reunion at Jacksonville.

The Newbern Journal furnishes us with the following report of the celebration of the Fourth at Jacksonville, on which occasion Hon. A. M. Waddell and Hon. C. W. McClammy delivered addresses:

A subscriber at Jacksonville writes that the 4th of July was a gala day for Onslow county. The surviving soldiers of the war held their reunion. The rolls of the different companies were called and they formed in the outskirts of the town and marched to the court house, headed by the Newbern Steam Fire Engine Band. Everything worked smoothly, the crowd numbered near three thousand and the table was a sight to behold.

The speeches of Col. A. M. Waddell and Maj. C. W. McClammy were very fine and highly appreciated by the crowd. They did not discuss the issues of the coming campaign but talked about our country, the day we celebrate, the arduous and patriotic of the Confederate soldier and the happy prospects of a more happy and united people. It looked as if all of Onslow county was present and the day is one long to be remembered.

Headquarters for Bass Balls, Bats, Masks, Gloves, Belts &c., is at Heinsberger's.

There were fine rains at the Sound early yesterday morning and here in the afternoon and at night. It is likely that this entire section has been likewise blessed. This ensures the safety of the corn crop, which has been generally laid by.

Will Get It Wrong.

Our good friend of the Charlotte Chronicle manages to get it wrong every time when he speaks of the temperature in Wilmington. He is rarely less than five degrees too high. On Sunday it was not 98, but 92. On Monday it was 92 at the Signal Office and 93 at the REVIEW office, while at some of the interior towns it was as high as 102. Wilmington is the coolest place in the State in the Summer.

Personal.

Hon. D. G. Fowle and Maj. S. M. Finger went down to the Hummocks yesterday afternoon, remaining there until the last train.

Hon. Walter L. Steele, Mr. J. T. LeGrand and Mr. H. C. Neill, all of Richmond county, are spending some days at Stokeley's, on Wrightsville. They express themselves as delighted with the new road and the improvements which have followed in its train.

As Fast as Possible.

Almost an army of workmen are still employed at the new hotel and grounds at the Hummocks. The work is certainly being pushed as rapidly as possible. Until it can be completed the management beg the indulgence of the public, which we are sure will be willingly granted. Efforts are being made for the ample accommodation and comfort of all, colored as well as white. The former now have a handsome pavilion for their exclusive use and in a short time it is probable that they will have their own special means of access to the beach.

City Court.

Mayor Fowler disposed of the following cases this morning:
Willie McCall, asleep on street, discharged.

J. T. Metts, unlicensed dog, case continued.

Jno. Bagwell, disorderly conduct, discharged.

Melvin Bryant, disorderly conduct, $20 or 30 days.

Geo. Sadgwar, unlicensed dog, judgment suspended.

Martha Wescott, contempt of court, 24 hours in a close cell.

Evangelical Alliance.

The members of the Young Men's Christian Association met at their Hall last night, and thence marched in a body to Grace Methodist Church to attend the regular meeting of the Evangelical Alliance, which was held there.

The services were opened with religious exercises, after which the Rev. Mr. Creasy declared the meeting ready for business.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, and then Dr. T. F. Wood was elected Vice-President in place of the Rev. Mr. Strange, resigned.

Dr. Wood thanked the Alliance for the honor conferred upon him and took his place in the chair as presiding officer of the meeting, the President being absent.

The "Desecration of the Sabbath" was then taken up for consideration and in this connection a memorial was presented by the Rev. P. H. Hoge requesting railroads and proprietors of steamboats not to run excursions on the Sabbath day.

The Rev. W. S. Creasy seconded the memorial and he, Mr. B. G. Worth, Rev. P. H. Hoge and Rev. J. W. Primrose spoke in favor of them. The memorial was then unanimously adopted and ordered sent to the parties memorialized.

The signatures of about three hundred laboring men were read protesting against running excursions on Sunday upon the pretext that it is for their benefit.

A notice was read that the steamer Queen of St. John's would not run on Sundays.

The meeting adjourned to meet again on the second Monday in October next.

Mr. Henry Letgen is having erected a fine two story frame dwelling on Market, between Fourth and Fifth streets, with all of the latest improvements.

THE GALLOWS.

Stephen Freeman, the Rapist, Pays the Penalty of His Crime—He Meets His Doom Calmly.

At an early hour this morning a crowd began to gather around the county jail, and although only those who had previously obtained a ticket of admission from the Sheriff would be admitted, by 10 o'clock the street in front of the jail was crowded with people, both white and black, anxious to see what they could of the execution.

At ten minutes to 11 o'clock Deputy Sheriff Shaw arrived at the jail, accompanied by his assistants and the undertaker. The coffin was then carried in and the doors of the prison opened to admit those who were to witness the execution.

At 11:04 the death warrant was read to Freeman. He appeared somewhat agitated, but was exceedingly calm. After the warrant had been read he conversed with Mr. Shaw, telling him that he was ready and willing to die; that he was innocent; God knew he was innocent; that while his body was hanging on the gallows his soul would be climbing Jacob's ladder to the New Jerusalem; that he was the victim either of a plot or a great mistake and that he had forgiven everybody. He was then left for awhile with his spiritual adviser, Father Burns, with whom he often talked, and at times he would pace the floor of the enclosure around the cells with a quick and nervous step, repeating some prayer or hymn, and saying: "Here I am an innocent man, got to die and I aint done nothing at all."

At 11:18 Jailer Elder, with two assistants, pinioned his arms to his sides, and at 11:26 the prisoner was brought out of the cell and taken to the gallows. Arriving at the place of execution Father Burns and Freeman knelt in prayer, after which he was allowed to speak for the last time on earth. Here he again said that he was an innocent man; that he would not say so if it was not the truth; that he would meet God face to face and he knew he was innocent. He said that he was not talking that way expecting it to save himself; he knew it would not, but it was the truth. He prayed that his wife might be taken care of, and also prayed for several white families; that they might enjoy the blessings of heaven. He then requested Father Burns to take from his breast pocket a package and give it to his wife, telling her to keep it as a memento of him.

Freeman then took his position on the trap and Father Burns repeated another prayer with him, after which he requested that his shoes be removed from his feet. This was done, and he told all around him good-bye, shaking hands with many. It was twenty minutes to 12 o'clock when the black cap was adjusted. While the cap was being fitted on some of the spectators commenced singing a hymn.

The noose was put around his neck at 11:41, and then Deputy Sheriff Shaw stepped up to him and told him good-bye. A profound silence then ensued, which was broken by a sudden "All right," from the Deputy Sheriff and the trap-door swung down with a loud clang, and Stephen Freeman was launched into eternity. His neck was neither broken nor dislocated by the fall, and death resulted from strangulation. He died without a struggle, except a slight drawing up of the shoulders.

The trap was sprung at 11:42, and he was pronounced dead at 11:57, and the body was lowered into the coffin at 12 o'clock.

The crime for which he was hanged was rape. He was accused of committing this horrible deed on a Mrs. Sellers, a white woman then residing in the Eastern part of this city. He was arrested and fully identified by Mrs. Sellers at the preliminary trial. He was first tried at the Fall term of the Criminal Court, 1887, the trial commencing on Monday, Nov. 28th and continued through four days. The jury found him guilty and he was sentenced by Judge Meares to be hanged Dec. 22, 1887, from which decision he appealed to the Supreme Court, which failed to find error in the court below and he was again sentenced to be hanged on June 30 last, but through the untiring exertions of his attorney, Mr. T. W. Strange, the Governor granted him a reprieve until to-day. Every effort has been made to obtain Executive clemency in his behalf, but without avail.

Father Burns has been his spiritual adviser from the first of his imprisonment and he stood by him to the last, doing all he could to get a commutation of his sentence to imprisonment for life, failing in this he visited and prayed with him continually. He remained with Freeman all of last night and only left him when his body was lowered into the coffin after the execution to-day.

Freeman's body was turned over to his family for burial. The crowd around the jail was very orderly, there was not the slightest disturbance of any kind.

The Excursion to Southport.

During the excursion given by the ladies of Grace M. E. Church, a meeting was called by the passengers to express their appreciation to the officers for courtesies extended, and for so pleasant a day spent on the steamer Queen of St. John's.

Col. Roger Moore was called to the chair, and Mr. W. W. Hodges requested to act as secretary. The chairman stated the object of the meeting, and Rev. T. Page Ricard moved that a committee be appointed to draft suitable resolutions, which was adopted, and the following committee was appointed: Rev. T. Page Ricard and Messrs. J. W. Perdue and I. T. Alderman. Rev. W. S. Creasy being called upon, made an appropriate address.

The committee offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, We, the passengers on the Queen of St. John's, have been so comfortably and pleasantly entertained during this day's excursion, and have found it to be as agreeable a trip as we have ever taken; and whereas, we have been so favorably impressed with both the management of the ladies of Grace M. E. Church, and the courteous bearing of the officers of the boat; therefore be it

Resolved, That our thanks are due, and are hereby given, to Captain Paddison and officers and the lady managers, for the pleasure they have afforded us.

Resolved, That we can, and do, most heartily recommend the steamer Queen of St. John's as a boat for excursionists' enjoyment, and on board of which they will find ample room and refreshing breezes, (provided there be any breeze at all), as we this day have found it to be.

Resolved, That the secretary be requested to forward a copy of these resolutions to our city papers, with the request that they publish the same.

Personal.

At a business meeting of the Brooklyn Baptist Church, held on Monday night last, a six weeks' leave of absence was unanimously voted their beloved pastor, Rev. G. M. Tolson, who is to avail himself of the opportunity by making a visit to his mother, who resides in Alabama. Mr. Tolson has accomplished a good work since he has been pastor of the Brooklyn church and is held in high esteem by the good people of Wilmington.

In a Critical Condition.

There was a rumor circulating this morning to the effect that Mrs. Roberts, the lady who was so grossly outraged early Monday morning by some unknown wretch, was dead. We made inquiry and found that, though still living, she is in an exceedingly critical condition.
