SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR
 Its peculiar efficacy is due as much to the process and skill in compounding as to the ingredients themselves. Take it in time. It checks disease in the outset, or if they be advanced will prove a potent cure.
No Home should be Without It.
 It takes the place of a doctor and a costly prescription. All who find sedentary lives will find it the best preventive of Biliousness, Constipation, Headache, Piles and Mental Depression. No loss of time, no interference with business while taking. For children it is most innocuous and harmless. Cures Colic, Diarrhoea, Bowel Complaints, Feverishness, and Feverish Colds. Invalids and delicate persons will find it the mildest and most refreshing sleep taking. A natural evacuation of the bowels, and a little taken in the morning sharpens the appetite, cleanses the stomach and sweetens the breath.
A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION.
 "I have been practicing medicine for twenty years and have never been able to put a vegetable compound that would not give me the Liver Regulator, promptly and at the same time aid (instead of weakening) the digestive and assimilative powers of the system."
 L. H. HARRIS, M.D., Washington, Ark.
Mark of Genuine: Look for the red mark on front of wrapper, and the Seal and Signature of J. H. Zeilin & Co., in red, on the side. Take no other.

THE DAILY REVIEW,

VOL. XII. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, JULY 12, 1888. NO 144.

Western North Carolina—The Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley R. R.—Politics, &c.
 MT. AIRY, N. C., July 10, 1888.
 DEAR REVIEWER:

"And thus we are exempt from public haunt. We find leaves in trees, books in running brooks, sermons in stones, and good in everything."

From an eminence of quite two thousand feet above the sea, enjoying the bracing air, fine water, the purest of food, the grandeur and sublimity of nature as well as immunity from flies, mosquitoes and malaria, we cannot, notwithstanding your elegant sea-side pleasures, but look down disdainfully upon the lowlands. Nature has been lavish in her blessings upon this mountain country. Its lands are rich, the air and water are pure, the women are pretty and the scenery in its grandeur and sublimity is beyond description. From any eminence nature may be seen in its perfection. There is the great Blue Ridge towering in its sublimity kissing the clouds, while below the eye feasts upon nature's green carpet, that appears more and more magnificent as it melts away in the distance, and yonder is the silvery Yadkin winding its way like a huge serpent in its merry struggle to reach the great Atlantic.

The prevailing impression in the East that our Western counties and their people are behind the times is a great mistake. From a critical inspection of the rural section around here, I find the people refined, progressive, moral and abreast of the times. An elegant church adorns every neighborhood. This place has prohibition, and there are not a half dozen barrooms licensed in this and the adjoining counties combined. The people are plain, unassuming, hospitable and intelligent. Being shut out from immediate transportation has stimulated them to action and energy. Think of an Eastern farmer or merchant hauling his goods and supplies over these rocky, steep roads for forty miles. This has made these people economical and self-reliant. Crop liens and chattel mortgages are unknown here.

This beautiful town has about fifteen hundred inhabitants and is surrounded by the mountains. Since the completion of the C. F. & Y. V. road here it has become a great commercial centre, having a radius of about forty miles. It is a healthy place, and is surrounded by many springs. We were glad to meet here Mr. John R. Paddison, a prosperous merchant and a former resident of Pender county. He is justly popular here as he was at home.

This great country is traversed by the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. which has its terminus at present here. Tho' now in its infancy, this road will soon be the best paying road in the State. Its stock is above par and its increasing and immense volume of business has surprised even the most sanguine.
 Wilmington will never regret its subscription, for ere long it will pour into her lap the inexhaustible treasures of this rich section. Its connection with Cincinnati and the great West is an assured fact. The connecting link of about thirty miles would have been completed ere now but for some legal quibble as to the large subscription of an adjoining Virginia county. Its officers are gentlemen of ability, practicable, easy of approach and especially kind to strangers.

It is one of the grandest internal improvement schemes ever inaugurated in the State, and mark the prediction, it will be a great road. It has made next door neighbors of the East and West, is owned by North Carolinians, built by North Carolinians and operated by North Carolinians, and we are proud of it.
 En passant: Upon inquiry we find our western brethren all right on the county government question. They sympathize with us, and will sustain it or some similar plan for the protection of our eastern counties.

This was a Fowle section at Raleigh, but Maj. Stedman, by his high-toned and magnanimous course, not alone in the canvass but in the convention, has captured these good people, and on every hand we hear praise of him and a readiness to promote him.
 The pleasure of our trip has been augmented by the company of three genial companions, Dr. Satchwell, Sheriff Johnson and Mr. Grattan Williams. The Doctor is a great naturalist, and loves to study the wisdom of nature. He will carry back with him much useful information as the result of his scientific investigations.

We shall bid good bye to this delightful country with reluctance, and, withal, how can one's measure of enjoyment be complete without the presence of the loved one that bears his name, and of the darling sweet little girl that is the sunshine of life?
 B. W.

WireCloth for your windows and doors can be had at Jacob's Hdw. Depot.

Burglars. You can be safe from them by using the Burglar Proof Blind Locks, sold at Jacob's.

It has been very pleasant to-day—out of the sun. The thermometer registered 92 degrees at this office at 2 o'clock.

Fishing Tackle. A full assortment of all kinds for both salt and fresh water fishing at Jacob's Hdw. Depot.

A fine dray horse, the property of Edgar Miller, colored, fell to-day on Second street, near Princess, evidently prostrated by the heat, and died.

If you want to feel comfortable and well all you need is a good Hammock. You will find the largest assortment and cheapest at Heinsberger's.

We are requested to state that, in consequence of the death in the family of one of those who were to take part, the concert intended for the pavilion at Atlantic View, on Wrightsville, has been postponed until further notice.

The steamer Bessie came up this morning from Southport in 1 hour and 55 minutes from dock to dock. This equals the record of the Passport, which made the same trip, in the same time, about two years ago.

It isn't worth while to frighten visitors away from the Encampment. Let the scribes possess their souls in patience. Accommodations will be found for all who come and comfortable accommodations at that. We cannot only feed but sleep all who may come.

Attention Young Men's Democratic Club. All members are hereby notified that I. Shrier has the contract to furnish uniforms, where subscriptions and names for enrollment will hereafter be received.

We thank Messrs. Adrian & Vollers for a bottle of pure California orange wine, a delicious table beverage. It is non-alcoholic and can be sold anywhere and by any person without a license. Messrs. Adrian & Vollers are the agents here.

Mr. John L. Dudley, of this city, has been appointed District Deputy Grand Patriarch by the Worthy Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment I. O. O. F. of North Carolina, to resuscitate Campbell Encampment No. 1 of the Patriarchal Order of Odd Fellows of this city.

The Germania Cornet Band and their guests have had a fine day for their excursion. The boat moved off this morning with a large and happy crowd on board and amid the waving of handkerchiefs and music by the band. Quite a large number also went down on the Grove at 3 o'clock, to join them.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses. Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Fatal Accident. Mr. Benj. C. Barden, a young man 21 years old, while bathing in Black river at Clear Run, Sampson county, on the 8th inst., accidentally struck his head and shoulders against the bottom with such force that his spinal column was injured to such an extent that he died from his injuries the next day. He was in the employment of Messrs. A. J. Johnson & Co., of Clear Run, and was a son of Mr. B. C. Barden, who lives near Rocky Point.

Dog collars. Largest and finest assortment ever before brought to this city, to be had at Jacob's Hdw. Depot.

The Old Company.

Mr. Thos. H. Sutton, of Fayetteville, writes us at considerable length relative to two errors we had ascribed to him in his address relative to Co. I, 18th N. C. Regiment. He was right as regards the name of Camp Wyatt, as it was the new camp of that name, near Fort Fisher, from which the regiment embarked. We understood him to refer to the old camp, at Carolina Beach. The Williams episode, he admits, occurred at Kingston. He claims that there was another married man in the company besides Williams. We are positive, though, that there was but one on the rolls at the time we took the average referred to. Possibly it may not have been Williams, who we are now inclined to think passed himself off at that time as a widower. It was a magnificent company and we again wonder if its record in regard to the youthfulness of its rank and file—96 men at an average age of 20½—can be beat in the records of the Confederate service.

It was a magnificent regiment, too, and we believe that if Gen. Robert E. Lee, who commanded the Department of South Carolina, after the fall of Beaufort and while the 18th was at Coosawhatchie, had ordered us to retake Beaufort it would have been done, despite the fleet of the enemy. We might not have been able to hold it, but we certainly could have captured it. We think that some such thing as this was in contemplation, for while we were in camp near Grahamsville scouts from the regiment were sent down to the front to reconnoiter. Lieut. Rod. McRae, of Co. I, (Wilmington Rifle Guards) had charge of the expedition and he took with him privates E. J. Moore, of Co. I, (who is one of the survivors), Downing, of the Robeson company, and Blake, of one of the Bladen companies. The party were in full Confederate uniform, Lt. McRae armed with sword and pistol, and the others with their pieces. The gallant little expedition tramped 30 miles to Beaufort without any serious misadventure, although they had several narrow escapes from discovery and capture. They succeeded in evading the enemy's pickets and in passing his lines and entered the town at night. They remained in Beaufort several hours and visited every part of the town, noting carefully everything. They visited the harbor, ascertained how many war vessels were there and got an approximate idea of their strength. They had many narrow escapes in the town as well as outside of it and barely escaped detection more than once. At one time a patrol approached within three feet of where they lay hid behind the fence in a churchyard. At the end of three days they returned to the camp, footsore and weary, but with valuable information for the Confederate authorities. They had marched 60 miles in three days. A report was made up and submitted and we understand was highly complimented at general headquarters.

We hope that we have not wearied our readers with these reminiscences of a dead and gone past. There are many we know, who will read them with great interest, because it will recall to them scenes and incidents in which they themselves took part, and there are still living hundreds who will remember this gallant little episode of camp life in South Carolina. It is the first time it has ever found its way into print.

Orion Lodge I. O. O. F. District Deputy Grand Master W. G. T. Keen, assisted by Past Grands C. D. Morrell, H. O. Craig, S. A. Craig, W. S. Hewlett and C. M. Kelley, installed the following officers of Orion Lodge No. 67, I. O. O. F., last night:

Headquarters for Bass Balls, Bats, Masks, Gloves, Belts &c., is at Heinsberger's.

There was nobody for the Mayor to try to-day and hence the City Court stood adjourned until the docket shall have been reinforced.

There will be moonlight nights during the Encampment, at which prospect the youths and maidens will rejoice.

Mr. Stokley is making a marked improvement on his place at Wrightsville. The saloon and billiard room is being removed from the rear of the house to the Sound in front and will be placed over the water, making it much more attractive as much as convenient.

New Ticket Office. The ticket office at the depot of the Seacoast Railroad, on Tenth and Princess streets, is so far completed that an agent was placed there to-day to sell tickets and receive freight. Hereafter all freight on this road must be prepaid. Passengers are earnestly requested to purchase tickets before entering the train.

Wanted for Larceny. Sheriff Taylor, of Brunswick county, brought to the city to-day, on a capias, Daniel King, colored, who was wanted here on a charge of larceny. King was indicted some time ago but he got wind of the affair and took leg bail before the warrant could be served. He is safe now and will stand trial at the next term of Criminal Court.

A Wild Rumor. There was a wild rumor around the city this morning to the effect that Stephen Freeman's body was last night resurrected from the grave by some of his friends and that he was afterwards restored to life and given a sum of money and sent out of the city. It is all nonsense, of course, but still the rumor found many believers among credulous people.

About the Hottest. At half-past 3 o'clock to-day the thermometer in this office registered 93½ degrees. Judging by this it has been about the warmest day of the season. Yet it has not seemed so warm as either Sunday or Monday, probably because there was not so much humidity in the atmosphere as on those days. Still, those who have had to exert themselves in the sun to-day have found it fearfully hot.

Cardinal Gibbons. His Eminence, Cardinal Gibbons, is expected here to-night on the 9:55 train from the North. He will be the guest while in the city of Col. F. W. Kerchner. He will be received at the depot by the Young Catholic Friends Society, of which His Eminence was the founder, and a number of our citizens. We trust that his stay among us will be a pleasant one. While Bishop of North Carolina he was a resident of this city.

The Sylvan Grove's Schedule. The present schedule of the Sylvan Grove is as follows: Leaves Wilmington Sundays at 2:30 p. m.; Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays at 9:30 a. m. and 3 p. m.; Fridays and Saturdays at 9:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. Returning, leaves Carolina Beach Sundays at 6 p. m.; Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays at 1 and 6 p. m.; Fridays and Saturdays at 12 m. and 6 p. m.

Personal. Mr. E. B. Sanders, of Brunswick county, was in the city yesterday and favored us with a visit.
 We wrote that Mr. H. C. Wall was one of the Richmond county visitors at Wrightsville but it appeared H. C. Neill. We did not see the proof. Mr. David S. Cowan, Special Agent of the Treasury Department, left here on Tuesday night for San Francisco. He has been ordered to some special duty on the Pacific Coast and will be absent three months.

From the Chicago Musical Indicator. J. L. Stone, of Raleigh, N. C., is the subject of a laudatory notice in the Raleigh News and Observer, of Saturday, June 23d. The energy, enterprise and honorable methods of this well-known dealer are meeting with an abundant reward. The sales of his agents in North Carolina are rapid and large, and the shipping department presents a brisk appearance. A few more such men as Mr. Stone would make Raleigh famous. He is State Agent for the celebrated Emerson Piano.

PLEASE NOTICE. We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest, but the name of the writer must always be furnished to the Editor. Communications must be written only on one side of the paper. Personalities must be avoided. And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so stated in the editorial columns.
