It is possible, and perhaps probable, that the gain will be 100 per cent. this year on the last. This shows the continued popularity of this delightful resort. It will never lose its favor with the public, at all events not while the present courteous management directs its destinies.

Reduction in Express Charges.

Mr. J. R. Williams, the curteous and efficient agent of the Southern Express Company in this city, tells Messrs. Wm. Calder and J. W. Hewus that there has been a very considerable reduction in express charges to and from points reached by the Atlantic Coast Line, Piedmont Air Line and Seaboard Air Line Railways, on fresh meats. dressed poultry, butter, beer, soda water, fruits and vegetables. Fuller particulars may be obtained by calling on Mr. Williams.

This reduction will be highly appreciated by merchants and housekeepers, who will welcome every movement that lessens the cost of articles of food that enter into the daily consumption of people in Wilmington.

Street Cars This Afternoon.

Four cars for the street railway were shipped last week, before Mr. Bellamy left New York, and two of these will in all probability arrive here this afternoon on the through Potter. We wish our clever young freight. If they do-and we think friend and his charming bride many there is very little doubt that they will get here then-they will be at once put on the track and it is possible that they may make the first run to-night. The other two cars will follow close on the heels of the first two and they may arrive here to morrow afternoon.

The Crescent Opera Troupe.

The opening of the operatic sea son at the Opera House last night was not signalized by a large house but the audience made up in appreciation what it lacked in size. "The Chimes of Normandy," which was presented on this occasion, is familiar to all opera goers. It was well presented and the company in its rendition established themselves on is not a chorus girl in it who is not bers of the troupe, male and female, Springs and other points of interest. are very good and the chorus, in action and in rhythm, is as good as the best that we have seen here in

To-night, by request, the same piece will be presented again and if the merits of the entertainment is taken as an indication there will surely be a full house. The "Bohemian Girl" and the "Mascotte" are on the repertoire for other nights this week and for the purpose of enabling those at the Sound and the Hummocks to attend these performances round trip tickets, including admission to the Opera House, wil be sold for 75 cents. A train will arrive here just before the performance and leave shortly after its

Audit and Finance.

The Board of Audit and Finance met in regular session yesterday. Present, R. J. Jones, chairman, and Moonlight Excursion to Car-

Communications were received from the Board of Aldermen, announcing favorable action taken by the Board on the following: 1st. A petition from citizens that a policeman be stationed at night on the west side of the river. After discussion it was moved and carried that the action of the Board of Aldermen be not concurred in.

2d. That a fire hydrant be placed at the corner of Fifth and Queen streets. On motion, it was agreed to defer consideration of this matter for the present, to give the chairman of the Board an opportunity to examine the contract of the city with the Water Works Company.

3d. That a drinking fountain be placed at the corner of Fourth and Campbell streets. The Board, on motion, refused to concur in the recommendation.

4th. That the lot on Fourth and Dock streets be leased to the Wilmington Light Infantry Company, for a term of ninety-nine years. On motion, the Board concurred.

Bills were audited and approved as follows: Current expenses, $724. 53; paving blocks for Front street, $851.40; collection of delinquent taxes, $327; coupons, $3,763; interest, $250. The coupons, redeemed and cancelled, were burned in the presence of the Board.

From the Chicago Musical Indicator. J. L. Stone, of Raleigh, N. C., is the subject of a laudatory notice in the Raleigh News and Observer, of Saturday, June 23d. The energy, enterprise and honorable methods of this well-known dealer are meeting with an abundant reward. The sales of his agents in North Carolina are rapid and large, and the shipping department presents a brisk appearnce. A few more such men as Mr. Stone would make Raleigh famous. He is State Agent for the celebrated Emerson Piano. †
