For Elector-6th District: S. J. PEMBERTON, Of Stanley.

Mr. F. B. Loftin, a Republican for nany years past, and ex-State Senator from the Kinston district, is one of the latest converts to Democracy. If this thing keeps up much longer the fleeing Republicans will have themselves formed the color line for there will not be a white man left in the party. There is plenty of room, gentlemen, at the bottom. Those thorough loafer. who enter the party now in its heyday of success must be content to fall into line in the rear of those who have borne the burden and heat of previous campaigns. There is no room for you at the top.

President Cleveland in his mes-

It is not proposed to entirely re ieve the country of this taxation. It must be extensively continued as the source of the Government's income; and in a readjustment of our tariff the interest of American labor engaged in manufacture should be carefully considered, as well as the preservation of our manufacturers. It may be called protection, or by any other name, but relief from the hardships and dangers of our pres-ent tariff laws should be devised, with especial precaution against im-periling the existence of our manufacturing interests.

In this one paragraph lies the basis of the platform on which the Democratic party will fight and win this year. There is no free trade in At night, and twixt the snowy sheets this doctrine; it is just as far from that as it is from protection. It suggests a happy medium, which must and will be preserved; a medium that will benefit the manufac turer as well as the laborer; that will raise just money enough for the positive cure for all Blood and Skin expenses of the government, and no Diseases. The medical fraternity more, and that will not pile up the indorse and prescribe it. Guaranpeople's money in the Treasury vaults in useless idleness.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Sult, Druggist, Bippus. Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of Rheumatism of 10 years' standing" Abraham Hare, druggist, Bellville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience, is Electric Bitters."

Thousauds of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all discourse of the Line Fishers and the line and the line

It appears from the researches of an eminent French specialist that a sewer can really be made more healthful, in a certain sense, than a set of the series of t public street. He found, for instance, that the Rue de Rivoli contained more germs of disease than the drain which passed beneath that street.

It is interesting to know what some of the dead and gone leaders of the G. O. P. thought on the tariff question while they were among us. Gen. Garfield said this, in a speech delivered in the House of Representatives, in 1870, and he took occasion to reaffirm and repeat it in the tariff debate of 1880: We have seen that one extreme school of economists would place the price of all manufactured articles in the hands of foreign producers by rendering it impossible for our manufacturers to compete with them; while the other extreme school, by making it impossible for the foreigner to sell his competing wares in our market, would give the people no immediate check upon the prices which our manufacturers might fix for their products. I disagree with both these extremes. I hold that a properly adjusted competition between home and foreign products is the best gauge by which to regulate international trade. Duties should be so high that our manufacturers can fairly compete with the foreign product, but not so high as to enable them to drive out the foreign article, enjoy a monopoly of the trade and regulate the price as they please.

It would seem by this utterance, that if the ex-President were alive to-day, he could not be, as the New York Star says, eligible as a member in good standing in the Republican party. His denunciation of the prohibitory protection plank of the Alamance-March 5th, May 21sf, Sept. 24th. present Republican platform could not be more explicit. The truth is that never until this year of Republican desperation did it enter into the mind of any one claiming title to statesmanship to enunciate so extravagant and wicked a proposition as that formulated in the tariff plank of the Chicago Convention.

Inherited

heritance are most numerous and are daily accumulating. Here, alas, they become terrible, fateful and overwhelming. No fact of nature is more pregnant with awful meaning than the fact of the inheritance of disease. It meets the physician on his daily rounds, paralyzing his art and filling him with dismay. The legend of the ancient Greeks pictures the Furies as pursuing families from generation to generation, rendering them desolate. The Furiest still ply their work of terror and death, but they are not now clothed in the garb of superstition, but appear in the more intelligible but no less awful form of hereditary disease. Modern science, which has illuminated so many dark corners of nature, has shed a new light on the ominous words of the Scriptures, "The sins of the fathers shall be visited upon the children unto the third and fourth generation." Instances of hereditary disease abound. Fifty per cent. of cases of consumption, that fearful destroyer of families, of cancer and scrofula, run in families through inheritance. Insanity is hereditary in a marked degree, but, fortunately, like many other hereditary diseases, tends to wear itself out, the stock becoming extinct. A distinguished scientist truly says: "No organ or texture of the body is exempt from the chance of being the subject of hereditary disease." Probably more chronic diseases, which permanently modify the structure and functions of the body, are more or less liable to be inherited. The important and far-reaching practical deductions from such facts-affecting so powerfully the happiness of individuals and families and the collective welfare of the nation-are obvious to reflecting minds, and the best means for preventing or curing these diseases is a subject of intense interest to all. Fortunately nature has provided a remedy, which experience has attested as infallible, and the remedy is the world-famous Swift's Specific, a pure vegetable compound-nature's antidote for all blood poisons. To the afflicted it is a blessing of inestimable value. An interesting treatise on "Blood and Skin Diseases" will be mailed free by addressing THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO.,
