We are apt to think of Iceland as a rather small and unimportant island, though the fact is that it is over three-fourths the size of New York State, and a considerable part of the Northwest coast is still imperfectly known, having never yet been explored by a scientific traveller. Mr. Thoroddsen, the geologist, who visited Northwest Iceland last year, says the farms lie high above the sea level, appetite, and my food relished and satisfied and that, as there are no highways through the terribly rough country to the Southern settlements, the inhabitants are almost entirely cut off and are now making several hundred dollars two or three months when the ice may move off the coast, giving passageway to ships. These farmers who have often had little in their larders except the birds they have caught, will probably imagine they have found an Elysium at last when they see the wheat fields of Mani-

VICE PRESIDENT'S CHAMBER, WASHINGTON, June 16. Yours 13th at hand. It does not make much difference who is nominated, in my judgment. The candidates will cut but a small figure in the fight. body like Hayes in 1876. Among the men named there is not one "leader." No one whose personal or historical relations to the people would make a difference of 1,000 votes in the canvass. Sherman, Allison, Harrison, etc., have records that would be awkward on the tariff, the currency, the Chinese question, etc. Depew's connection with railroads and corporations would be a heavy load, especially in the agricultural States. We might as well nominate Gould or Vanderbilt at once. My impression is that Alger or Gresham came nearer filling the bill than any of the others, with some fellow like Phelps, of New Jer sey, who could reach the conservative forces of the East and get contributions from Wall street and the manufacturers. But you can judge much better than I what is best after consulting with the delegates.

I have the use of the wires during the convention, by the courtesy of the company, and you can therefore telegraph me fully at all times, if anything of interest transpires. J. J. INGALLS.

An Important Element

Of the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is the fact that every purchaser receives a fair equivalent for his money. The familiar headline "100 Doses One Dollar," stolen by imitators, is original with and true only of Hood's Sarsaparilla. This can easily be proved by any one who desires to test the matter. For real economy, Oct. 15th. buy only Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sold by all druggists. .
