Fly Traps, best and cheapest, at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot.

The Sylvan Grove carried down a large party this morning to Carolina Beach.

Headquarters for Bass Balls, Bats Masks, Gloves, Belts &c., is at Heinsberger's.

Wire Cloth for your windows and and doors can be had at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot.

Indications.
For North Carolina, fair weather and stationary temperature.

"I cannot praise Hood's Sarsaparilla half enough," says a mother whose son, almost blind with scrofula, was cured by this medicine.

Fishing Tackle. A full assortment of all kinds for both salt and fresh water fishing at Jacobi's Hdw. Depot.

The Cornet Concert Club volunteered their services to play for the veterans this afternoon and the offer was cordially and thankfully accepted.

Mr. G. M. Altaffer has gone to the Valley of Virginia, near Stanton, to visit relatives there. He will return soon, but his daughter will remain for some time.

It is fickle weather. Last night was extremely warm and uncon-fortable, but towards morning the wind got around to the Northwest and cooled the atmosphere somewhat.

The State Guard is a good school for the volunteer soldier. The men are fitted there to command as well as obey and should another disastrous war occur the commissioned officers of the forces would be largely drawn from its ranks.

The fishing at the Rocks now is said to be splendid. On Monday morning, before breakfast, Mr. A.
H. Hammond, of Charlotte, caught 5 sheephead, averaging 4 pounds each, and a drum which pulled down the scales at 23 pounds.

The Crescent Opera Company closed their engagement here last night, with the presentation of the Mascotte. They went to Wrightsville to-day and will appear in a concert there to-night, at Capt.
Manning's pavilion.

The Bladen Street M. E. Church will give an excursion to-morrow on the Sylvan Grove to Carolina Beach.
The ladies will have refreshments for sale on the boat at city prices, and it is expected that a large party will take advantage of the opportunity.

Two old Wilmingtonians who were in our office yesterday, Messrs. Virginus Ballard and E. A. Whitaker, of Durham, were enthusiastic in praise of our people and our city.
Mr. Ballard remarking that in a few years our city and its seaside resorts would become the most famous and attractive watering place, on the Atlantic coast. Correct.

Twenty-five to Thirty Thousand.
Is it extravagant to say that the military and marine parades yesterday were witnessed by from 25,000 to 30,000 people? We think not.
Probably two-thirds of our own people saw them and there were thousands of visitors here from other places. The line of march from Tenth street on Market to the depot on Nutt street was lined with thick masses of humanity and the crowds were absolutely dense on lower Market and Front streets.

Decoration.
Flag Bunting. Flag Bunting.
By the yard or piece. For sale by
I. SHRIER,
16 N. Front street.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglass es Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Monument to Mrs. Greenhow.

The Ladies' Memorial Association have erected a monument at Oak dale to Mrs. Greenhow, whose unfortunate death while in the service of the Confederate government will be remembered. Capt. W. H. Birby has perpetually endowed the lot for care-taking. Some of Mrs. Green-how's relatives, who live in Charleston, wrote here when they heard that a monument was to be erected to her and offered to pay for it but the ladies told them that it was not a matter of charity, but of love and duty, and so the monument was erected by them.

Why They Were Not Mounted.

There is general regret expressed over the fact that the Scotland Neck Mounted Riflemen could not appear in the saddle at the parade yesterday afternoon. The citizens of Wilmington responded very generously to the demand upon them and Capt. Southerland had been notified of 70 horses which were at Capt. Anthony's disposal. When it was known that the parade had been abandoned the owners of these horses were notified that they would not be needed and hence they could not be had for the parade. It was a great disappointment to all.

Two Fine Displays.

The last time we saw a thousand armed and uniformed men parade the streets of Wilmington was when the 18th N. C. Regiment was ordered up from Fort Fisher to go to Coosawhatchie, S. C. There were about as many men in that regiment then as there were in the entire brigade yesterday afternoon.
But there wasn't much holiday soldiering about it. We believe the Yankee troops paraded here sometimes after they got possession of Wilmington but we were not on hand to see them.

Our Own Boys.

The people of Wilmington have always been proud of their gallant home company; proud of it in the past and proud of it in the present.
They had cause for their admiration yesterday. Their appearance in line was simply splendid. They looked like soldiers, every inch of every man, and their new uniforms, with the nodding horse-hair plumes, attracted and held the eyes of all.
Their marching was superb and nobody has ever seen a company marching by the front wheel better than they did as they turned from Market into Front street.

The Military Parade.

The most beautiful and pleasing site ever seen on the streets of Wilmington (next to the throngs of pretty girls, arrayed in white, who parade our thoroughfares every afternoon) was the display made yesterday by the State Guard. The martial music, the brilliant uniforms, the nodding plumes and the glittering arms and accoutrements of our 1,200 citizen soldiers made up a sight which will not soon be forgotten by those who were so fortunate as to behold it.

The brigade, which debarked at Tenth and Market and Tenth and Princess streets, did not appear until nearly 7 o'clock, and thousands had been waiting in the streets for hours for its appearance. It was not far from that hour when the head of the column appeared in sight on the brow of the hill at the corner of Fourth and Market streets.
On they came, marching by the front, with the bands of the respective regiments in front, stepping in perfect order and perfect time.
They were greeted with cheers all along the line of march and in the business quarters of the city it was with difficulty that the enthusiastic crowds could be kept back to the space assigned them. Adjutant-General Jones was in command and the line was accompanied by many of the Governor's staff, mounted, and in brilliant uniforms. The Guard marched in brigade order, the First Fourth, Third and Second Regiments appearing in the order named. The Governor, with some of his aides, was on the balcony of the Orton House and reviewed the column as it passed him. The march was made to the freight depot, on Nutt street, where there was more room for the men than at Front street depot, where the arms were stacked and a respite from duty was allowed before the time came for the return to camp.

The State Guard.

The principal item of interest at the Sound to-day was the shooting match, which took place at the Hummocks, under the supervision of Col. W. L. DeRosset. Cos. A, Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry; B, Lumber Bridge Light Infantry; C, Wilmington Light Infantry, and E, Maxton Rifles, all of the Second Regiment, furnished the teams. There was a company prize and an individual prize. The score was as follows:

Co. C—Tomlinson, 4, 4, 3, 4, 4—19; Vann, 5, 4, 5, 2, 4—20; Pembrton, 4, 4, 5, 4, 5—23; Barnes, 4, 4, 0, 5, 4—17; McDuffie, 3, 5, 3, 4, 4—19 Total 97.

Co. B—Marley, 3, 4, 3, 4, 5—19; McKinnon, 3, 4, 3, 4, 4—18; Bass, 3, 4, 3, 4, 2—16; Little, 4, 3, 4, 4, 4—19; Graham, 2, 3, 2, 4, 2—13. Total 85.
Co. C—Toomer, 3, 4, 4, 5, 2—18; Farrow, 3, 4, 3, 5, 3—18; Holmes, 4, 3, 3, 3, 2—15; Taylor, 3, 5, 5, 3, 4—30; Boatwright, 4, 2, 3, 4, 3—16. Total 87.

Co. E—McKinnon, 2, 2, 4, 4, 4—16; Sellers, 3, 2, 4, 4, 3—16; McBryde, 5, 3, 3, 4, 4—18; Carter, 4, 3, 4, 5, 3—19; Holland, 4, 3, 4, 4, 2—17. Total 86.

The camp officers for to-day are as follows:

Field Officer—Lt. Col. Bogart.
FIRST REGIMENT.

Officer of the Day—Capt. C. F.
Warren; Officer of the Guard, Lieut.
W. J. Burnett.

SECOND REGIMENT.

Officer of the Day—Capt. Wm.
Black; Officer of the Guard, Lieut.
J. C. Morrison.

THIRD REGIMENT.

Officer of the Day—Lieut. J. C.
Bessent; Officer of the Guard, Lieut.
Robt. S. Galloway.

FOURTH REGIMENT.

Officer of the Day—Capt. W. F.
Holland; Officer of the Guard, Lieut.
T. B. Siegle.

Maj. Samuel H. Smith, Quartermaster of the Third Regiment, was in camp on the old Wright place, 24 years ago, with Capt. T. J. Southerland's company.

Mr. Jno. S. Harriss had a 85-pound watermelon in camp to-day.

The First Regiment is the only one that had a ambulance corps in the parade yesterday.

One of the officers of the First Regiment lost the chain from his helmet during the parade yesterday.
The finder will please leave it at this office.

Capt. Black, of Co. E, Maxton Guards, Second Regiment, is entitled to the credit of having initiated the movement for the parade here. He was the first man to take the matter up and urge that action on the part of the companies which succeeded in having the parade ordered.

A large sea turtle was in camp today and was viewed with much curiosity by those who had never before seen one of the kind.

The health of the men in camp continues very gratifying and all express their delight at this fact.
There are less complaints than there were in camp at Asheville.

The Second was out in regimental drill this morning and they were highly complimented.

The Second Regiment moved up to the train at Wrightsville yesterday afternoon in single file and in two minutes the men were all on board and reported ready to move.

The pavilion and the hotel at the Hummocks are now lighted by gas.
As the time draws near to break camp the boys all express regrets that they are to go and many say that they would be willing to stay another ten days.

It is generally conceded that the next encampment will be held at Wrightsville, if the wishes of the officers and men are consulted. It was intended to hold a meeting today for ratifying the report of the committee appointed yesterday, but it was not considered necessary, as there seems to be a unanimous endorsement of Camp Pender.

The troops will break camp on Friday and leave us on that day.
To-morrow is the last of the regular encampment.

There is to be a tub race at the Hummocks this afternoon between Messrs. C. E. Croom, George Barker and Archie Marins.

There were many handsome uniforms in the parade yesterday afternoon but the handsomest was the dear old gray. Superiority of this color over the blue was apparent to everybody.

The Fire This Morning.

Fire broke out about 1:30 o'clock this morning in Mr. J. A.
Springer's woodyard on Water street, between Princess and Chestnut. When discovered it was near the stationary engine used in the yard, and soon spread to piles of wood and shingles, making a great blaze. An alarm was given and the apparatus of the Fire Department was speedily on the ground and checked the progress of the flames.
Four horses and mules that were in a stable exposed to the fire were saved with great difficulty. The prompt arrival of the firemen undoubtedly prevented an extensive conflagration. As it is Mr. Spring-er's loss will foot up not less than $800. The engine shed and stables and 30,000 shingles were destroyed.
The loss is covered by insurance for $1,600 in the Lancaster, represented here by Messrs. Northrop, Hodges & Taylor.

The Regatta To-morrow.

The following boats have entered for the regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club, over the Club course at Wrightsville, to-morrow:

Hermit, sailed by R. H. Cowan.
Sprite, sailed by A. J. Flanner.
Little Alice, sailed by S. P. Cowan.
Lillian Florence, sailed by H. M.
Bowden.

Rosa, sailed by Wm. L. Smith.
Phantom, sailed by R. L. Williams.

Ripple, sailed by J. H. Daniel.
Idler, sailed by Pembroke Jones.
Mascotte, sailed by Geo. D. Parsley.

Peggoty, sailed by Norwood Giles.
The first gun will be fired at 11 o'clock and the start will be made at 11:30.

The Old Vets.

The Ex-Confederates will go down to the Camp this evening and pay their respects to the Governor. Col.
W. L. DeRosset will be in command and they will leave on the 5:10 train.
Up to 12 o'clock nearly a hundred badges had been sold and it is hoped that there will be about 200 veterans in the line.
