CONSTIPATION

It is called the "Father of Diseases," because there is no medium through which disease so often attacks the system as by the absorption of poisonous gases in the retention of decayed and effete matter in the stomach and bowels. It is caused by a Torpid Liver, not enough bile being secreted from the blood to produce Nature's own cathartic, and is generally accompanied with such results as

Loss of Appetite,
Sick Headache,
Bad Breath, etc.

The treatment of Constipation does not consist merely in unloading the bowels.
The medicine must not only act as a purgative, but be a tonic as well, and not produce after its use greater costiveness. To secure a regular habit of body without changing the diet or deranging the system

"My situation, after suffering with Constipation for two or three years, was called to Simmons Liver Regulator, and, having tried almost everything else, concluded to try it. I first took a small quantity, and afterwards reduced the dose to one capsule, as per directions, after each meal. I found that it had done me so much good that I continued it until I took a bottle. Since then I have not experienced any difficulty. I keep it in my house and would not be without it, but have no use for it, it having cured me."—Geo. W.
Stark, Asst. Clerk Superior Court, Bibb Co., Ga.

stating that the tournament had

Two men were arrested here today on suspicion of being from Florida but they soon established the fact that they were from Savannah and were released.

A member of one of the largest wholesale and retail houses in this city told us this morning that he was satisfied that he got more satisfactory returns from his advertisement in the REVIEW than from any other paper in the city.

The First Fox Hunt.

The Wilmington Fox Club had their first hunt this morning. They started a fox near Capt. Nobles' place and had a fine run. There were 22 dogs in the pack. Mr. Phil Thomas got the brush and he handed it over afterwards to a young lady.

The Last of Earth.

The remains of the late Hon. A. H.
VanBokkelen were yesterday laid to rest in Oakdale. The funeral services took place at St. James' Church and were conducted by Rev.
Robert Strange, rector of that church, and Rev. Dr. Carmichael, of St. John's. The pall-bearers were Messrs. B. G. Worth, F. Rhew, Clayton Giles and J. G. Wright, and Cols. Jno. L. Cantwell and Roger Moore. The remains were accompanied to the grave by the Ladies' Memorial Association, members of the Chamber of Commerce and the Produce Exchange in a body, the Wilmington Light Infantry in undress uniform and the Association of Officers of the Third Regiment, N.
C. Infantry.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Personal.
Mr. A. Shrier returned to the city last night from a visit to Northern markets.

Mrs. M. Jacobi and daughter, Miss Adele, of Florence, S. C., are visiting Mr. Nath'l Jacobi.

Our clever young friend, Mr. Marcus Jacobi, is 21 years old to-day.
Another vote for Cleveland and tariff reform.

A young stranger, a boy, weight 11 pounds, has arrived at Mr. H. H.
Gieschen's house and taken up his permanent abode there. We tender our congratulations.

Rev. E. A. Yates, D. D., for a number of years the beloved pastor of Front Street M. E. Church, but now of Durham, is in the city, the guest of Mr. W. E. Springer. He will remain here until Friday.

Maj. John C. Winder has been appointed General Manager of the Georgia, Carolina & Northern Railway Company, and with entire charge of the operating departments from August 13th. Mr. F. W. Clark has been appointed General Passenger Agent.

It now seems definitely settled that Mr. Sol Haas has really resigned his position as Traffic Manager of the Associated Railways, to accept a similar position with the Chesapeake & Ohio system, but his successor has not yet been announced.

Y. M. C. Association.

The Young Men's Christian Association held their devotional meeting last night with unusual promptness and success. Toward the close of the meeting Mr. Busey, of West Virginia, was introduced to the members present. Mr. Busey is a young man engaged in Association work, and has been called by the Wilmington Association to the position of General Secretary. He has not yet accepted the position.

To-night at 8:15 there will be a meeting at which every one of the members is urged to be present. It will be entirely informal and short.

The Adventists at the Beach.

About the largest crowd of the season was at Carolina Beach yesterday. There were probably not less than 800 persons on the ground.
The principal interest of the occasion was in the fact that the Adven-tists would hold services there.

Elder Sherrill called the Conference to order, and said that suggestions were in order as to the most expedient plan of establishing an Advent organ.

Elder Cargyle offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Resolved, That the chair appoint three agents to represent Eastern and Western North Carolina and South Carolina, who shall solicit shares of not less than ten dollars each, until one thousand dollars are subscribed, to be paid in when the Conferences of Alabama and Georgia shall have raised one thousand dollars each for the purpose of establishing an Advent weekly newspaper in one of our Southern cities at an early day. The stockholders to appoint a meeting, elect the officers and proceed at once to purchase material and presses for the publication of said paper.

Elder Sherrill opened the services with a short but pointed discourse, after which Elder Cargyle delivered a lecture from the prophecies of Daniel. Owing to the very stiff breeze on the beach the chart could not be used.

Elder DuBose concluded the services with prayer, after which, by request, the doors of the church were opened and one lady presented herself for baptism and insisted on being baptized before leaving the beach. After a short recess for dinner the people assembled at the sound, near the hotel, where the ordination was administered by Elder Cargyle.

After this, a delegation from Myrtle Grove church gave Elder Cargyle a pleasant sail around to that place, where he preached last night.

The agents for the Southern Advent organ are J. S. Harshaw of Caldwell county, N. C., S. F. Moore of Darlington, S. C., J. P. Stephens of Wilmington.

Already two barrels of copperas, three of wood ashes and nearly forty barrels of lime have been dispensed at the City Hall to private citizens for sanitary purposes.

but experienced hands need apply.

City Court.

There was a small crowd assembled at the City Court this morning and a docket that showed up two cases, which were disposed of as follows:

Dave West, disorderly conduct, discharged.

Henry Faison, disorderly conduct, $20 or 30 days.

The Regatta To-Morrow.

The following yachts have entered for the regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club which is to be sailed over the Wrightsville course tomorrow:

Loulie, sailed by W. Atkinson.

Little Alice, sailed by S. P. Cowan.

Lillian Florence, sailed by H. M.
Bowden.

Rosa, sailed by W. L. Smith.

Phantom, sailed by R. L. Williams.

Idler, sailed by Pembroke Jones.

Mascotte, sailed by W. L. Smith.

Peggoty, sailed by Norwood Giles.

A Special Schedule.

The display of fireworks which was to have taken place at Carolina Beach last week, and which was necessarily postponed, will be made on Saturday night. On that day and on Friday the Sylvan Grove will run a special schedule, making three round trips each day, leaving here at 9:30, 2:30 and 6 o'clock, and leaving the Beach on the return at 12:30, 4:30 and 9 o'clock.

Help the Health Officers.

Don't get vexed with the health officer who may inspect your premises. He is at this time one of the best friends you have. When he calls upon you and tells you that your premises are filthy and must be cleaned he is doing nothing more or less than his sworn duty. Don't get angry with him but turn around, like a little man, and help him by making his duties as light as possible. In an emergency it is as much the duty of the citizen as it is that of an officer to see that the police regulations are duly executed.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a called meeting of the Wilmington Light Infantry, held at their Armory last night, the following was adopted:

We are again assembled in our Armory in obedience to the mandate of Almighty God to offer a parting tribute to the character and life of an honored and active fellow-comrade who has in the words of the immortal Jackson, "passed over the river to rest under the shade of the beautiful trees." There is no name on the roll-book of the Wilmington Light Infantry that is more thoroughly identified with the history of the company than that of the late Hon. Adrian H. Van Bok-kelen, whose name appears among the first Honorary members. By his great enthusiasm for the success of everything that looked to the material development of our city, by his untiring and unselfish devotion to our company when there was scarcely a hope of our existing, by material aid as well as friendly advice, he has rendered services to us that can never meet with adequate reward. A man of the most generous impulses when fortune smiled upon him; a hero, when the vicissitudes of life overcame him; of a kind and genial disposition, he numbered his friends by hundreds who came in contact with him. Honorable and just in his dealings with his fellow-man, he was a typical Christian gentleman. Apart from his direct intercourse with us, we cannot but allude to the great interest he manifested in the memory of our Confederate dead. Administering to their wants on the field of battle, extending a warm heart and helping hand to the widows and orphans of the dead heroes and always foremost in the efforts made to perpetuate their deeds of heroism, his name will be inscribed in letters of gold on the roll book of the great Captain of Captains. Let us extend, therefore, to his good wife and his family our sincere sympathy in this, their hour of bereavement, trusting that God will give them strength to bear their loss with that fortitude that characterized his life.

EDITOR REVIEW:—I hope that the old ties of friendship and relationship between Pender and New Hanover counties have not been severed.
In Pender we are beginning to realize that a great political contest is pending, and we must buckle on our armor of Democratic strength and meet all adversaries in advance. We are not on the defence now as in days past, but are marching on the high road of Democratic principles.
The enemy must be charged from their strongholds, put to flight and forever demolished.

This must be the last year of Republican rule throughout this broad land of liberty. Pender is alive to her duties and will wave high in the breeze of victory the Democratic banner in November next. Many colored voters will be added to Cleveland's unprecedented majority.— And if we can select candidates for all our county offices whose views are broad and liberal, victory is Pender's.

I will here say in connection that the Democratic party intends running for the Legislature our old and steadfast friend and father of Pender county, G. F. Walker, whose enterprise and devotion to the county is indelible. Do we appreciate Pender as a county? If so, in the coming convention vote for G. F. Walker. Have we any gratitude left in our hearts for meritorious deeds and work done for the county and her people? If so, vote for G. F. Walker. If we desire integrity and ability, then go for G.
F. Walker. Pender county cannot afford to take any risk now in this election. Both parties are nearly equally divided. A few votes will turn the scales, and I assert without the fear of contradiction, that if G.
F. Walker is made the standard-bearer of the party it will be a unit and certain victory will perch on our banner on the day of election.
We know whereof we speak and say that he is the only Democrat in the county that can break the party lines and run ahead of his ticket.
