The Regatta on Thursday.

The sixth regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club this season will take place over the usual course at Wrightsville on Thursday. It may be the last of the season and there ought to be, and probably will be, a large attendance. The interest of the occasion will be greatly intensified by the expected "first appearance in these waters" of Mr. Norwood Giles' new boat, the "Nondescript," as some have called her. She has not yet been christened and she is to sail on that day. The following is a list of the boats which have entered:

Jewish Fasts and Feasts. To-day is the fast of Guedalvah n the Jewish calendar but it is observed only by the most orthodox of those of that ancient faith. On Saturday next, however, falls due Yom Kippur, or the Day of Atonement, and this will be observed by all who profess the Jewish religion throughout the whole world. This fast begins at sundown of Friday and lasts for twenty-four hours, during which all business is abandoned and neither food or drink is allowed to pass the lips. Five days after, beginning with Wednesday evenbeginning with Wednesday evening. September 19th, the Feast of W. B. Davis, and have a lien on said real estate to be partitioned. This is held in commemoration of the time when the children of Israel, after leaving the bondage of Egypt, were compelled to dwell in tents or booths in the wilderness of Arabia. This is also a period of rejeicing, and is known by the name of Succoth, or festival of booths. Many families that have the proper facilities erect booths in their yards or gardens, in token of remembrance of the creeds of their forefathers over three thou. sand years ago. On September 26, 27 and 28 the holidays of Hoshannah, Rabab, Sheminee, Aseret and Simhat Torah will be duly observed. Consequently, nearly the whole of September will be devoted by the Hebrews to the observance of religious services and holidays.

Proposed Battalion.

The Wilmington Light Infantry of the most delightful we have had of the most noted musical events in bership was discussed with much amimation. Adjutant-General Jones had been consulted in regard to the matter and a letter from him was read, warmly endorsing the proposition. No actual conclusion was reached last night, however. This matter of forming a battalion here has been with the REVIEW a pet scheme and we hope that it may be carried out.

A Puzzle but Not a Problem.

MR. EDITOR: - Your so-called mathematical problem in issue of 10th inst. may be a puzzle as you say but it is not a problem. You say multiply $5 by $5 and you get $25, and 500 cents by 500 cents and you get 250,000 cents or $2500. That is just where you are mistaken. You don't get anything. You can add them together but you can't multiply them. If you were to say $5 times $5 or 500 cents times 500 cents then you would see how ridiculous 116 Market Street it is. You might as well say multiply 5 cats by 5 cats or 500 cats by 500 cats, even with greater propriety for then you would get an increase though there is no rule to govern it). You cannot multiply money by money or an object by an object. How would it sound to say 5 houses times 5 houses? Now 5 times $5 or 500 cents is $25, and 500 times $5 or 500 cents is $2,500. Now if you want
