THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL. XII WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1888. NO. 197.

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR
Cures TORPID LIVER
Known by these marked peculiarities:
A feeling of weariness and pains in the back, head, and limbs.
A bad breath, bad taste in the mouth, and a coated tongue.
Constipation, with occasional attacks of diarrhoea.
Headache, in the front of the head; dizziness, and yellowness of the skin.
Heartburn, loss of appetite, and flatulency of the stomach and bowels.
A feeling of spirits, and great melancholy, with lassitude and a disposition to do nothing.
A natural flow of bile from the liver is essential to good health. When this is obstructed it results in which, if neglected, soon leads to serious diseases. Simmons' Liver Regulator exerts a most beneficial influence over every kind of biliousness. It restores the liver to proper working order, regulates the secretion of bile and puts the digestive organs in such condition that they can do their best work. After taking this medicine no one will say, "I am bilious."

BILIOUSNESS,

Cool enough this morning for blankets and fires.
Window Glass, by the box or light. Save money by buying from Jacob's Hdw. Depot.

Fishermen will find the cheapest place for Gill Twine, Rope, etc., is at Jacob's Hdw. Depot.

Br. steamship Macedonia, from Havre for this port, passed Prawl Point on the 21st inst.

Dry, dusty, dirty and disagreeable weather to-day. A little rain now would be quite welcome.

A peculiarity of Hood's Sarsaparilla is that while it purifies the blood, it imparts new vigor to every function of the body.

If you want a picture framed go to Heinsberger's. He has a large assortment of Mouldings to select from.

Happiness supreme. This is the condition of all who have been wise and purchased Stoves at Jacob's Hdw. Depot.

Mr. Whitney telegraphed Captain Huggins at 3:36 o'clock this afternoon as follows: "Sick no better. Mary again taken."

Headquarters for Powder, Shot, Caps, Cartridges and Ammunition of all kinds is at Jacob's Hdw. Depot. Shells loaded at a moment's notice.

The Hewlett boys got 6,000 more fat mullets on Saturday. There were about one hundred shark holes in the seine. This Northeast wind, however, is bad for the fishermen.

Three and a half per cent interest on the certificates of indebtedness of the W. & W. R. R will be paid on October 1st. The transfer books will remain closed until that date.

A roll of papers was lost somewhere on Saturday night between Greenville Sound and Capt. Southerland's stables. The finder will be rewarded if he will leave them at this office.

Mr. Thos. C. Craft's kitchen on Eighth, between Princess and Chestnut, was robbed on Saturday night and entirely gutted of its contents. There was a famine in the land thereabouts yesterday morning.

A collection was taken up yesterday morning in St. John's Church and in the afternoon in the Sunday School, for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers and nearly $40 was received. This sum will be forwarded by Rev. Dr. Carmichael, the Rector, to the sufferers at McCleary.

Caught by the Crane.
Mr. W. S. Patrick, express messenger on the train due here at 11:30 this morning, was caught at Teachey's as the train passed there this morning by the mail crane, and thrown violently from the car. His ankle is badly sprained, which is fortunately his most serious injury.

Sale of Real Estate.
At the Court House to-day Messrs. S. VanAmringe & Co., by direction of Mr. Marsden Bellamy, Commissioner, sold at auction to Mrs. Rachel Neimeyer a lot of land near the corner of Fourth and Castle streets, 56x110 feet, for $505.

All In.
Mr. S. H. Fishplate, the King Clothier, has his Fall stock ready for inspection. He always purchases early so as to obtain the choice styles. Merchants buying their stocks this season of the year have to take the "oullings," or what is left, that other merchants would not have. Mr. Fishplate's stock is composed entirely of first class goods and tailor made equal to custom make. He employs no women at 25 cents a day and work them 10 hours each day to make pants and Cheap John goods to palm off on the public. His stores are well lighted day and night, which is very essential for buyers of clothing. We advise our readers to beware of a dark store and Cheap John goods.

A Green Old Age.

Our neighbor, the Morning Star, was 21 years old bright and early yesterday morning. It is old enough to vote now. It is in its prime, although it is the oldest daily in the State. May it live long and continue to prosper and do as much for the next generation as it has done for this.

The Fire Last Night.

The alarm of fire sent in from box 31, was caused by the destruction of a small dwelling house on Eighth street, between Campbell and the W. W. & R. R. track. It was owned and occupied by a colored man by the name of J. Wayne and it was insured for $100. We could not learn the origin of the fire.

Personal.

Mr. A. J. Grady, of Castle Hayne, was in the city to-day.

Col. Jno. J. Hedrick is in New York, purchasing new Fall and Winter goods.

Mr. Jno. T. Lefrand, who has been very sick for several weeks, is again abroad and at business.

Mr. John Taylor, of Taylor's Bazaar, left for the North Saturday night, for the purchase of his Fall and Winter stock.

Capt. Tomlinson, of the Cape Fear, has been off duty for a week past, taking his holiday at the Sound and indulging in fishing and sailing.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Chadbourne, Jr., returned to the city on Saturday night from an extended visit to friends in the Northern and New England States.

Capt. Betts Potter returned here yesterday from Jacksonville, en route for his home at Southport. He was on the steamer Kate Spencer and she is now tied up. He was quarantined at Atlanta for 30 days.

Death of Rev. Mr. Moran.

We regret to learn that Rev. R. S. Moran, D.D., for four years pastor of Front Street M. E. Church, and one of the most eloquent divines ever connected with the North Carolina Conference, died in New York last Saturday night. We have no particulars as to his last hours but we hear that he has bequeathed $3,000 to Grace M. E. Church in this city.

Off for Charlotte.

The "Little Tycoons" left for Charlotte this morning on the Carolina Central Railroad. They will arrive there about 3 o'clock and will have time for dinner and a rehearsal before appearing at the Opera House in that city to-night. They occupy a large first class coach to themselves and as well as we could judge there were between forty and fifty on the train. There is every reason to believe that they will have a big house in Charlotte to-night.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.

Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Will Not Go to Asheville.

The Wilmington Amateur Opera Company received a telegram on Saturday afternoon inviting them to visit Asheville and present the Little Tycoon in that city. The matter was taken freely into consideration and the company reluctantly decided to decline the invitation and go wired the Asheville people this morning. Many of them would have been glad to go but the distance is too great and the absence would necessarily have been too prolonged at the opening of the busy season of the year, which is now upon us.

City Court.

Mayor Fowler disposed of the following cases this morning:
Henry Johnson, disorderly conduct, $10 or 20 days.
August Hammon, disorderly conduct, discharged.
Mary Tate and Ed. Edwards, disorderly conduct, case continued.
William Fisher, cows running at large, $5.
Sarah Love and W. G. Davis, disorderly conduct, Love discharged, Davis was fined $10 or 20 days.
Frank Foy, disorderly conduct, case continued.
J. A. Lowery, failing to pay tax license, judgment suspended.

This morning, about 6 o'clock, a one-story frame dwelling on Castle, between Front and Surry streets, and occupied by a colored woman by the name of Mary High, was discovered to be on fire but the flames were suppressed before an alarm was turned in.

Some time between 12 o'clock and daylight some one set fire to the horse stable of a colored woman by the name of Adeline Taylor, living on the corner of Second and Wooster streets. It was discovered in time to be put out without sending in an alarm.

Republican Ticket in Pender.

The following is the full Pender county Republican ticket, as nominated at Long Creek on Thursday. One name was left out of all reports previously published and two were incorrectly reported:

For the House—R. M. Crook.
For Sheriff—E. M. Johnston.
For Register of Deeds—A. E. Taylor.
For Coroner—Richard Eagles.
For Surveyor—C. M. Taylor.

This is the same old ticket of two years ago, with the exception of the coroner. The Democrats will meet Monday at Burgaw and if harmony and wise counsels prevail they will nominate a ticket that will knock the spots out of the above.

Lippincott's Magazine.

The October number of Lippincott's is a special E. P. Roe number, the first half of which is taken up with articles in one way or another commemorative of the dead novelist. John Habberton starts a new serial, "At Last: Six Days in the Life of an Ex-Teacher." "With Gauge & Swallow," Judge Tourgee's series of short stories, is continued with a clever narrative called "How I became the Widow's Attorney." Howard Seely has a dramatic episode of life in Paris, entitled "Two Casts of a Die." "Brown Bread and Baked Beans," a Good-Humored Study of Boston, is an excellent bit of descriptive and humorous writing. Fanny Davenport contributes "Some Childish Memories," in which Booth and Barrett figure, as well as her father and mother. There are five poems. The answers to the One Hundred Questions are continued, and the departments all keep up their interest.

Poor Jacksonville!

Capt. James B. Huggins received to-day a long letter from his brother-in-law Mr. E. G. Whitney, of Jacksonville, from which we are permitted to make some extracts. It gives a graphic picture of the fearful condition of things now in that poor afflicted city. The letter is dated last Thursday, the 30th., Mr. Whitney says:

The situation here as I write is fearful indeed, with no prospect for the better. Yesterday 150 cases were reported, with 20 deaths, and to-day 134 cases and 14 deaths. It is an acknowledged fact that all of the cases are not reported, by far. The doctors are working all day and all night and only rest when nature gives away and then they fall from exhaustion. Could you but see them, how attentive they are and how hard they are battling with this destroyer, you would be forced to say "God bless them." The undertakers are overrun and the hearses seen always on the trot. You succumb to the plague and in an hour you are on your journey to your final resting place. You see a man hearty and hopeful this morning and to-morrow he is gone forever. You can't attend to business. Your mind refuses to become concentrated, except upon the one absorbing plague. God alone knows what is to become of us until the welcome frost appears. Business, what little there is, is being reduced to a strict cash basis, simply because the fact is realized here in all of its intensity that life is uncertain and one never knows what the morrow may bring forth. Provisions are crawling up. Parties are losing their positions, yet they must eat, with no money and no prospects for obtaining employment. Nothing faces them but the prospect of starvation or death at the hands of the destroyer. The funds that are arriving here every day are being devoted to every channel by means of which wants can be supplied to the people but it is unreasonable to expect these funds to supply all. I happen to know those through whose hands this money is passing and are sure there will be none of it found sticking to their palms. One of these men, Mr. P. McQuaid, is one of nature's noble men, sure. His time and means have been devoted to this suffering people from the very first of this, and he is still at it, working as if every sick one in the city was his child, or if his very existence depended on his individual exertions.

The Fall term of the Cape Fear Academy opened to-day, one week earlier than usual, and with a large roll of students. Capt. Catlett tells us that the prospects of his school this season are better than ever before.

Renting of Market Stalls.

The stalls in the three markets in the city were rented at public auction this morning, Mr. A. G. McGirt being the auctioneer. There was but little interest in the Fourth street market and Fifth Ward market, where they rented for about the same prices as realized last year. The main interest centered on Front street market, where the bidding was lively and spirited for the choicest stalls. In this market stall No. 1 was rented to J. R. Melton for $48 per month; No. 2 to Hays & Jones for $52; No. 3 to I. B. Rhodes for $33; No. 4 to King & Sykes for $16; No. 5 to I. B. Rhodes for $11; No. 6 to G. F. Tilley for $6; No. 7 to I. J. & E. G. King for $5.50; No. 8 to C. S. Garrell for $5; No. 9 to S. Merrick for $2; No. 11 to T. P. Sikes for $2; No. 13 to T. A. Watson for $2. Stalls 1 and 2 on South side to J. F. Garrell for $15. Huckster stalls on that side rented for 80 cents per month. Store No. 1 to J. H. Hardin for $15, and No. 3 to C. D. Jacobs for $15. The restaurants brought $100 per year and the fish market $11.50 per month for the Northern half, to W. E. Davis, and the Southern half, $11, to W. R. Morrison.
