THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL. XII WILMINGTON, N. C. TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1888. NO 198.

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR
TORPID LIVER
Known by these marked peculiarities:
1. A feeling of weariness and pains in the limbs.
2. Bad breath, bad taste in the mouth, and furred tongue.
3. Constipation, with occasional attacks of diarrhoea.
4. Headache, in the front of the head; nausea, dizziness, and yellowness of skin.
5. Heartburn, loss of appetite.
6. Weakness of the stomach and bowels.
7. Depression of spirits, and great melancholy, with lassitude and a disposition to leave everything for to-morrow.
A natural flow of Bile from the Liver is essential to good health. When this is obstructed it results in which, if neglected, soon leads to serious diseases. Simmons' Liver Regulator exerts a most beneficial influence over every kind of biliousness. It restores the Liver to proper working order, regulates the secretion of bile and puts the digestive organs in such condition that they can do their best work. After taking this medicine no one will say, "I am bilious."
BILIOUSNESS,
"I have been subject to severe spells of Congestion of the Liver, and have been in the habit of taking from 15 to 20 grains of calomel which generally laid me up for three or four days. Lately I have been taking Simmons' Liver Regulator, which gave me relief without any interruption to business."

The Democrats in New York are already claiming 40,000 to 50,000 majority in that State. Before the close of October they will not be satisfied with less than 60,000.

The beauty of the present tariff is shown nowhere more plainly in the fact that you can buy a pack of playing cards free of tax but that you pay a tariff when you buy a Bible.

The Republicans are setting up a big claim to New Jersey and Connecticut. The fact is that New Jersey has always been safely Democratic and to emphasize this fact tariff reform is making converts there every day.

It is simply bewildering to read of the converts to tariff reform, so rapidly do they come in, and from every section of the country. It makes a fellow's head swim. If this thing keeps on it will be a jubilee walk over for Cleveland and Thurman in November.

General Tracey, M. C. from the Albany district, is one of the most conservative men in New York. He has just returned to Washington from a visit to his home. He says that Cleveland's majority in New York will not be less than 15,000 or probably 20,000. He says also that the workingmen are understanding the tariff better day by day, that the Irish contingent who voted for Blaine in 1884 will nearly all return to the Democratic fold and that in the whole range of his acquaintance he does not know of one who voted for Cleveland in 1884 who will vote against him in 1888.

The New York Times of September 20 says: "If affairs keep up as they have been going lately Wall street will really become celebrated for something else than dullness. Over a half million shares of stock were traded in on the Stock Exchange, with 200,000 shares on the Consolidated Exchange. This is equal to almost a whole week's business, as weeks have lately been averaging. Such handsome figures are these of 550,000 plus 200,000 for one day's business that it is indeed a pity that the public isn't 'in'—a pity from the brokers' point of view—for however big transactions are, commissions do not mount high so long as 'room traders' do three-quarters of the business, with big speculators who own 'seats' in the Stock Exchange doing the other quarter—doing it at a fifth the cost that the public has to pay."

And how are the bondholders protected? In this way: Since April 17th $64,499,163 has been paid out by the Treasury Department in the purchase at a premium of uncalled bonds of the par value of $53,266,800. This protected the bondholders to the tune of $11,232,363. Last Saturday Secretary Fairchild paid as high as 130 for registered four per cents of 1907, and the total premiums paid on this class of bonds have now reached $9,914,418. For the four and a half per cent he paid as high as 109, and the total premiums paid have reached $1,117,212 on a par value of $17,865,950. This was deemed necessary to get some of the heavy surplus out of the Treasury vaults and into circulation and just here a singular fact suggests itself. It is only through the pockets of rich men that this surplus can see the light. They are paid a bonus of eleven millions to put fifty-three millions into circulation. This is all right, of course, but the Blair bill, which proposes to get the money out of doors by paying for the education of the poor man's children, is "robbery."

There are 401 votes in the Electoral College and 301 are a majority. Cleveland got 219 in 1884. They came from Alabama, 10; Arkansas, 7; Connecticut, 6; Delaware, 3; Florida, 4; Georgia, 13; Indiana, 15; Kentucky, 13; Louisiana, 8; Maryland, 8; Mississippi, 9; Missouri, 16; New Jersey, 9; New York, 36; North Carolina, 11; South Carolina, 9; Tennessee, 12; Texas, 13; Virginia, 12 and West Virginia 6. The "Solid South," all of the above States except New York, Connecticut, New Jersey and Indiana, gave then and will give in November 153 votes. With New York, which is as surely to be counted on as is the "Solid South," Cleveland will have 189 votes, which is just 12 less than the majority required to elect him. For these twelve votes he can look in various directions. Connecticut and New Jersey combined would give 15, or 2 more than enough; California and Connecticut would give 14; Illinois alone would give 22; Indiana alone 15; or Michigan alone 13. It will hardly be necessary, though, to go so far afield for votes. If Indiana fails us, which we do not at all apprehend, then we can look with a pretty good degree of certainty to New Jersey and Connecticut. But we think that we will have these States and Indiana also. There are 38 States and of these Cleveland will carry not less than 22 nor more than 26. "Burn this."

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses. Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Harvest Moon and Hunter's Moon.

In the olden time the harvest moon was thought to be a direct interposition of Divine Providence, but the reason of this phenomenon is easily explained astronomically. The reason is this: The moon's orbit about the earth nearly coincides (the inclination is only about 5 deg.) with the ecliptic, i. e., the apparent annual course of the sun through the heavens. At the time of the autumnal equinox the path of the full moon is only slightly inclined to the horizon, so that although the daily motion of our satellite is about 13 deg., it only requires a little more than a quarter of an hour to rise on the next night. In other words, the earth has only to rotate about 44 deg. more after making one complete revolution upon its axis in order to bring the moon to the horizon. Next month will occur the hunters' moon, which will be similar to the harvest moon, but in a less marked degree. It owes its origin to similar causes.

Scribner's for October.

Scribner's Magazine for October is notable for the varied interest of its contents and the eminence of its contributors in their special fields of work, among them being Lester Wallace, the Hon. Hugh McCulloch, Robert Louis Stevenson, Professor Arthur T. Hadley, and H. H. Boyesen. The illustrations present an equal variety of subject and treatment. The table of contents is as follows:

The Avenue of Sphinxes—Karnak, frontispiece, from a drawing by J. D. Woodward; The Temples of Egypt, by Edward L. Wilson, with illustrations; Memories of the Last Fifty Years, first paper, by Lester Wallace, with portraits; Problems in American Politics, by Hugh McCulloch; Sea in October, by Elizabeth Fairchild; Behind the Scenes of an Opera House, by Gustav Kobbe, with illustrations; First Harvests—Chapters XXXII.—XXXVI., by F. J. Stimson, (to be concluded in November); The Railroad in its Business Relations, by Arthur T. Hadley, with portraits; Romance, by Frank Tooker; Charity, by H. H. Boyesen, illustrations by Charles H. Stephens; Two Grecian Myths, by O. P. Cranch; Contributions to the History of Fife: Random Memories, by Robert Louis Stevenson.

The Bladen county Republicans will open the campaign October 18th. They will begin that day at Hollow and close on November 3d at Elizabeth.

It having been ascertained that the smoke stack of the steamer Bessie is too small, she is now laid up at her wharf taking on a new one and a larger one.

Judge Bannerman, of Pender county, was in the city to-day.

Prof. M. C. S. Noble returned to the city last night with his family.

Mr. W. R. French has been appointed Foreman of the new public building to be erected in this city.

Mr. John R. Hanby, son of Mr. Jos. H. Hanby, has gone to Lillesville to study telegraphy with Mr. A. J. Allen, the operator there.

Maj. Hearne. Maj. Wm. A. Hearne has become Editor of the Messenger and announces this fact in this morning's issue of that paper. He is an old newspaper man and is a forceful and aggressive writer, one who is well posted on political history, both State and national. We cordially welcome him to our "city by the sea."

About the Crops. It is generally understood that the damage to the crops is not so great as has been recently feared, although in some few sections the loss exceeds the original estimates. In this immediate section they have been hurt very little, and in some near-by localities they are better than they have been in years.

This Senatorial District.

The Republican Senatorial Convention for New Hanover and Pender counties will be held at the Court House in this city on Tuesday next, October 2d. Mr. C. P. Locke is the Senator for this district in the last Legislature and it is said that Pender will claim the nomination this time, but we think that Mr. Locke will get it again, if he wants it.

Little Tycoons in Charlotte.

The Wilmington Amateurs are expected to return to the city to-night. They played last night in Charlotte to a house at which standing room was at a premium and were the recipients of many kindnesses and attentions at the hands of the courteous Charlotteans. The net receipts of the entertainment were about $200.

Lookout For It!

Our long delayed equinoctial storm may reach us to-night and it may not. There is a storm central near the South Carolina Coast and East of Charleston and the telegram from headquarters in Washington City, ordering the cautionary signal up here, which was raised at 12:05 p. m., says that increasing Northeast winds are indicated for North Carolina to-night. Thus far, however, the indications are only for a moderate storm, which means that the wind may blow anywhere from 25 to 45 miles an hour.

All In.

Mr. S. H. Fishplate, the King Clothier, has his Fall stock ready for inspection. He always purchases early so as to obtain the choice styles. Merchants buying their stocks this season of the year have to take the "cullings," or what is left, that other merchants would not have. Mr. Fishplate's stock is composed entirely of first class goods and tailor made—equal to custom make. He employs no women at 25 cents a day and work them 10 hours each day to make pants and Cheap John goods to palm off on the public. His stores are well lighted day and night, which is very essential for buyers of clothing. We advise our readers to beware of a dark store and Cheap John goods.

One of the moderate storm signals was raised this afternoon. It consists of a red peaked flag above a yellow flag with a white square in the center and it signifies that the wind will be from the Northeast.

Appearances here this morning were somewhat indicative of an equinoctial storm but appearances were deceitful in this instance, as in many others. The wind got around to the Northeast and then to the North, and many stoves and fireplaces had fires in them for the first time this season.

Another Good One.

We told recently of a little five year old tot from the country on a visit to this city, and the street cars. The same child was on a visit to relatives in the interior. A few mornings since her mother dressed her and she started down stairs to play with her little cousins. The mother called after her: "Daughter, you haven't said your prayers." "Oh, mamma," she returned, "I forgot. Please ask Dod to 'seuse me. I'se in a big hurry now."
