Who says North Carolina will not give Cleveland 40,000 majority? We are almost inclined to make it 50,-

Flour is still on the advance. It jumped up to $7.75 at wholesale in New York on Saturday and is looking steadily towards $10 in a very short time.

The New York Evening Post publishes a letter from Carl Schurz, now in Europe, wherein he says that he will feel it his duty to yote for Cleveland and Thurman if he gets home in time for the election.

W. G. Pearson, the colored chairman of the Republican committee in Durham county, has stepped down and out, and in doing so he intimates that he may vote the Democratic ticket. And yet Durham is called a close county.

Mr. Thos. B. Barry, of Michigan, a member of the General Executive Board of the Knights of Labor, has resigned that position. In doing so he take advantage of the opportunity to make some very severe animadversions on Mr. Powderly.

Another $10,000 bet was recorded in New York on Friday. Chairman Quay is said to have devoted $100, 000 of the big campaign fund contributed by the monopolists, trusts and combines to stakes on Harrison, so as to boost the failing cause. Every dollar of it will be taken just as soon as it is offered. One-fifth has already been pledged.

A silver quarter turned up in Brooklyn the other day that beat the experts. Some said it was counterfeit and others that it was genuine. It passed through the hands of several banking cashiers and clerks and opinions differed decidedly as to its genuineness. It was finally sent to the Treasury Department at Washington City and after the usual dignified delay came back with a judgment pronouncing it a genuine coin.

The President and the next Vice-President were to have spent Sunday quietly at the former's suburban residence of Oak View, near Washington. One can imagine these two glorious representatives of fine Democratic principles seated oppoconverse, and Grover's smiling response to a remark from the old Roman: "No, Judge, I have no fears whatever as to the result. I am as confident of the success of our now sitting opposite to me and that the sun is shining outside."

Forbearance and self control ing. smooth the road of life, and open many ways which would otherwise remain closed.

Thanks to Bro Hackney, of the Durham Recorder, for an invitation to attend the Durham Exposition, to be held on the Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week.

Let us congratulate our brethren of the Durham Plant on its Satur day's issue of that paper. It is an Exposition issue and it is about the handsomest specimen of the typo graphic art ever issued in North Carolina.

Messrs. Jul. S. Kusel, the Manager, and Mr. Frank Kilday, the leading actor in the "Streets of New York," paid us a very pleasant visit to-day, which we will be glad to have them repeat at any time.

Mr. James H. Chadbourn, Gen eral Manager of the Seacoast R. R.; has invited the "Streets of New York" Company to a ride down to the Hummocks to-morrow afternoon, and they have accepted the invitation.

The members of the Grau Opera Opera Company went down to the Hammocks yesterday afternoon and they do say that they were raven ously hungry and thirsty when they got there and that they didn't leave a bite or a drop-especialy the drop -when they left there.

Stuck on the Bar.

The British steamer Gaboon, for this city, loaded with salt, went ashore on Cape Fear bar at 10:30 o'clock this morning. The vessel for some cause, would not answer to her helm. Part of her cargo will he thrown overboard to lighten her and the steamer will probably float on high water to-night.

Butt's New Panorama.

Mr. Arthur L. Butt's new panorama will be exhibited at the Opera House in this city on Wednesday site each other in quiet, after-dinner night. The Doors Thrown Open.

Messrs. Huske and Draper threw open to the public to-day the doors of their new fashionable dry goods emporium and all of the forenoon up to a late dinner hour the store was thronged with ladies and the sales were large. These gentlemen are located in the handsome and commodious store at No. 111 Market street, so long occupied by Mr. Julius Samson, who has lately re tired from the business.

It has been handsomely fitted up for them and they have opened there a beautiful line of staple and fancy dry goods. They have both had an extended experience in the business and Mr. Draper we have always heard spoken of as one of the hest judges of dry goods in the country. Messrs. Jeff Beery and Aubrey Fishermen will find the cheapest the business, are with the new firm,

The Scoundrel!

A sneak thief slipped into the bed room of Mrs. J. W. Owens, who keeps a boarding house on Dock street, about 5 o'clock Friday evening and stole about $65 which Mrs. Owens had placed in a small tin box and put under her pillow. Mrs. Owens suspects some one must have seen her put it there.

City Court.

There was quite a large crowd gathered at the City Court this morning and the following cases were disposed of as follows:

Norman Lindsey, disorderly conduct, $5 or 10 days.

James Hill and Moses Hill, disorderly conduct Moses was discharged and James was fined $20 or 30 days. Eliza Brown and Hauch Davis, disorderly conduct, judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

Obadiah Jenkins, disorderly, transferred to Justice Walker Meares.

Said to be a Good Thing.

"The Streets of New York" has never been presented here but a gentleman who has seen it in a Northern city tells us that it is a very fine piece. The company who are to present it here to-night is said to be a very good one. Mr. J. S. Kusel, a manager of experience, is in charge and Mr. Frank Kilday will personate the principal character. They brought with them a Come and see me. carload of scenery and will present some fine views of New York at night. The fire scene is said to be an exceptionaly good thing. The company will play here to-night and to-morrow night.

Run Over and Killed.

A white man, a stranger, who was evidently about 35 or 38 years of age, was run over and killed last night, about 8 o'clock, at the Union Depot yard. He was a passenger on the 7:40 train and it seems had wan dered out into the yard, two or three hundred yards East of the depot, while waiting for the Southern train to start. The shifting engine for the W. C. & A. R. R., No. 110, was engaged in making up a train and while backing up the yard ran over the unfortunate man. Both legs were cut off below the knee and there was a severe fracture, on the side of his head. The remains were man was a stranger here and ing him is by the name on $10 in money,-$9 in paper and $1 in siiver-a watch and chain, a bunch of keys &c. He was well dressed. Coroner Miller held an inquest over the remains to-day and the verdict rendered by the jury is that "the deceased, W. F. Mullen, came to his death by being run over on the W. & W. R. R., by engine No. 110, in charge of Engineer W. F. Brandt." It is strange that the deceased should have been out on the yard, in a strange town, at night with an engine moving about on the different tracks, and there is probably a mystery here which may hever be cleared up. One part of it, however, is known. It is a little word of two syllables and seven letters, and they spell "whiskey."

drinking freely. He was from New York bound for Charleston, at least the ticket he held so stated. Mr. Frank Kilday, the star of the "Streets Walsh, who are also experienced in of New York" Company, met him in the smoker on the train and he tells us thas the man drank frequently on the way down the W. & W.
