The Illinois Democrats will "git thar." They claim that the State will go Democratic by 7,000 majority.

Raleigh has organized a "Mechanics' and Business Men's Democratic Association." A hint for Wilmington.

President Cleveland will visit New York on Saturday and will review a big Democratic parade. It is said that there will be 75,000 men in line.

Instead of a 15,000 majority in Brooklyn the Democrats are now talking of 20,000. They have nominated a splendid county ticket.

It is a positive fact, which we commend to the attention of some of our friends of little faith, that a bet of $100 to $90 was made in New York on Monday night that Cleveland would carry Illinois.

Quay's colonization tactics are being exposed in the newspapers. He intends, it is said, to throw a large number of illegal voters into the Southern tier of counties in New York. But it won't work. The Democratic Committee have made arrangements to meet this move. The supervisors of election will all be Democrats and the penitentiary will throw wide its doors to welcome those detected in this crime.

If the interest which is taken in the campaign in the Central and Western parts of the State is any indication of the result then North Carolina will go overwhelmingly Democratic. The Democratic speakers have large and enthusiastic crowds, while very few turn out to hear Dockery and his crew and there seems a woful lack of life in that few.

Mary Abbott, of Stockton, Cal., pretty and only 16 years old, wants to be a cowboy—or is it cowboyyes? She was captured at Trowbridge on Saturday night after an exciting chase. She is the victim of dime novels, and says she wishes to be a cowboy. Her father says Mary declared her intention to become a cowboy while en route to California. Two or three times she had arisen at night, saddled a pony and with provisions, a camping outfit and a pistol, started for the mountains. She has, however, each time been brought back by neighbors.

On Saturday Mary started out again, first going to her father's barn armed with two pistols. She remained there several hours, and when discovered fired a shot, scattering her pursuers. A clergyman ventured into the barn, hoping to quiet the girl, but she thrust a pistol into his face and he retired. Mary soon ran out of the barn and made for the river. The crowd started after her.

At length a constable fired two shots over her head, which startled her, and she sprang into some bushes. This stopped her progress and she was captured.

There are some Democrats who seem to think that Connecticut will go for Harrison. These, however, are not located in that State. Read the following special from New Haven to the New York Star:

The Democrats of this city are greatly elated over the amazing increase shown here in the applications of new voters "to be made" as compared with four years ago. The total this year in New Haven is more than forty-seven hundred, or about two thousand more than in October, 1884. Of these the Democrats claim fully two-thirds, and the great increase in the Democratic wards goes far to confirm their claim. Thus in the Seventh Ward out of 514 applications the Democrats allow the Republicans only 55. In the Fourth Ward there are 614 applications, of whom the Democrats claim 450. In the Third Ward, also a Democratic stronghold, the Democrats concede to their opponents only thirty-five applications out of 490. They claim also a decided majority of new voters in the other wards of the city, even those that are Republican, and fix $3,500 as the lowest majority the city will give President Cleveland. Republicans, while disputing some of these figures, concede the general Democratic increase in the new voting districts.

Reports from all over the State show much the same amazing increase of new voters, with a pretty general Democratic drift. Political observers here are at a loss to account for the outside belief that the State is likely to go for Harrison, as the indications for Cleveland seem much more favorable than they were four years ago.

Janauscheck.
The largest audience of the season last night greeted Madame Janauscheck and her really admirable company on their appearance at the Opera House. Those who expected a splendid representation were not disappointed. Madame Janauscheck as Lady Macbeth was superb; it is said to be one of her best personations. She was well sustained by Mr. Chaplin as Macbeth and Mr. Stuart as Macduff, and the entire caste, which was all very good.

To-night, the last of the short season, Meg Merrilies will be presented, with Mr. Chaplin as Dandy Dinmont, Mr. Stuart as Henry Bertram, Mr. Crawford as Guy Mannering and Mr. Power as Dominic Sampson, while Miss Barron will personate Julia Mannering; Miss Burroughs, Lucy Bertram; Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. McCandish, and Miss Cortez, Flora. The play will be given in its entirety, as the troupe will not leave Wilmington to-night, but will remain over here and take the train for Charlotte to-morrow morning.

Board of Aldermen.
A called meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held yesterday afternoon to consider a proposed amendment to the Market Ordinance. All the members of the Board were present and Mayor Fowler presided. Alderman Ricard, Chairman of the Committee on Markets, stated the necessity for amending the ordinance concerning markets, and read the following, which had been prepared by the City Attorney:

That section six of said ordinance be amended so as to read as follows: It shall not be lawful for any person to sell or expose or offer for sale, any fresh meats, beef, pork, mutton, goat or venison in any quantity less than quarters at any other place within the corporate limits of the city of Wilmington than the stalls of the public market houses of said city; nor shall it be lawful to sell or expose or offer for sale until after 10 o'clock a. m., any fresh meats, beef, pork, mutton, goat or venison, by quarters, or any fish, crabs, terrapins, turtles, oysters or other shell fish, or any vegetables at any place within the limits of the city, except at the markets on Front and Water streets (between Dock and Orange streets) and on Fourth and Campbell streets, and such other places as are or may be established by the Board of Aldermen as public markets; nor shall it be lawful for any huckster to expose any of the above named articles for sale from any cart or other vehicle, standing on any street, alley or vacant lot, except such articles as are of his own production; nor shall it be lawful for any person bringing into said city for sale, in carts, wagons or other vehicles, any fresh meats, beef, pork, mutton, game, fish, oysters, clams, garden truck, or farm products, to sell or expose or offer the same for sale, in any other cart, wagon, or vehicle, than that in which the said articles are so brought to market. Any person violating any of the foregoing provisions shall forfeit and pay for each offense fifty dollars.

This ordinance shall be in force from and after the 24th day of October, 1888, and all ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict with this ordinance are hereby repealed. Alderman Ricard explained the purport of the proposed amendment, which was to prohibit the sale, absolutely, of any cut meats outside the city market houses until after ten o'clock in the morning. After debate, Alderman King moved that the ordinance as read be adopted. The motion was seconded by Alderman Fishblade. Alderman Dudley offered an amendment, to strike out 10 o'clock and insert 8.30 a. m. Alderman Fishblade moved to table the amendment, and the motion being put to a vote, was carried. Alderman Dudley claimed that this disposed of the whole matter, but the chair ruled otherwise.

Alderman Sampson offered as an amendment to make the time 9 o'clock, and this was adopted.

After further debate the question was called and the ordinance as amended by Alderman Sampson was adopted.

At the suggestion of the Mayor it was ordered that a special meeting of the Board be held on the first Thursday in November at 7.30 p. m., to avoid the necessity of a session of the Board on the first Monday—the day preceding the general election.

Stedman in the West.
Maj. Stedman spoke in Raleigh last night. He has been West and has been doing a good work there. He was in Winston Saturday night and spoke to a big crowd. We copy the report of the occasion from the Raleigh News and Observer:

Never in the history of this place has a man received such an ovation as that accorded Hon. Charles M. Stedman Saturday night. Brown's Opera House was filled with people who went there expecting to hear an unusually good speech, but few of them anticipated the magnificent oration that enthused to the marrow of his backbone every Democrat within the sound of the gallant Stedman's voice.

It was the most fitting and altogether the best political speech to which I ever listened, and I have heard some of the best speakers in America talk.

Before Governor Stedman had spoken five minutes the audience began to warm up. In ten minutes they were at fever heat. In thirty minutes, when Stedman appealed to the white men of the State to stand by the white man's party, they had arrived at blood heat. From there on there were rapid explosions of cheers, yells and whoops such as were never heard in the city of Winston before.

They would applaud, and as the applause died away, it would again and again be taken up, lasting as it did, on ten or twelve occasions, for nearly five consecutive minutes. The Democrats of Forsyth may have been slow to wake up, but let me tell you we are thoroughly aroused here now.

When Maj. Stedman concluded his speech, which was of one and one-half hours' duration, the people went wild with enthusiastic applause. They refused to leave the hall until they could shake hands with "the finest orator in North Carolina."

One man sang out: "We want to buy you and keep you here!" Another exclaimed: "You are the only man I ever saw whom I wanted to hug!"

I tell you it is the unanimous opinion of the Democracy of this section that the princely Stedman is "altogether lovely and the fairest among ten thousand."

And we have already nailed this ticket to our masthead:
To be unanimously nominated in 1892—
For Governor:
CHARLES M. STEDMAN,
Of New Hanover.
Gov. Vance will be here Wednesday and we will have a big torchlight procession.

Notice boys! You can get a Bracket Saw Frame with Saw complete, at Jacob's Hardware Depot, for 15 cents.
