> > Death of Mr. W. J. Yates.

We regret very much to learn of the sudden death in Charlotte this morning, at 3 o'clock, of Mr. W. J Yates, one of the editors and proprietors of the Charlotte Democrat. Mr. Yates was one of the oldest edi tors in the State. Indeed, we believe that he had been in the harness longer than any other. He was a staunch, true, honorable man and the city of Charlotte has lost one of its most upright and valued citizens

A Gust from the Gulf.

There is a storm on the Gulf Coast, central near Mobile. At 11 o'clock this morning the cautionary northeast signal was ordered raised here. At that time the storm was said that we may expect increasing thrown with men like Tennyson, northeast winds here during the day and night. The cautionary signals were also ordered up at Morehead and Charleston.

Good Farming.

Mr. J. T. Collins, of Burgaw, made this year on one acre of land 41 bush els of corn, and on ten acres he made 240 bushels of corn, 50 bushels of sweet potatoes, 50 bushels of peas, 3,000 pounds of fodder and 2,000 pounds of hay. City Court. Mayor Fowler disposed of the following cases this morning:

Levi Nixon, perjury, bound over to the next term of the Criminal Court in the sum of a $200 justified bond.

John Watson, disorderly conduct, case transferred to Justice L. H. Bowden.

The Fire This Morning.

The alarm of fire turned in this morning, at 2:30 o'clock, from Box 31, was caused by the burning of a one-story frame dwelling on Taylor street, between Sixth and Seventh owned and occupied by Fred. Mc-Koy, colored. The building wasentirely consumed but part of the furniture was saved. There was insurance with Messrs. Smith & Boatwright in the Virginia Fire and Marine Insurance Co. for $200 on the furniture and $300 on the building.

Speaking in Pender.

A. B. Aycock, candidate for Elector, and Edwin W. Kerr, candidate for the Senate, will address the people on the issues of the campaign at Mr. C. C. Woodcock's store, in Pender county, on Thursday, November 1st, and the good ladies of Columbia and the adjoining townships are rebasket full to the brim and give them a good old-fashioned farmers'

Young Men's Democratic Club.

There was a large and enthusiastic meeting of the club last night at their hall on Front and Orange streets. It was the regular monthly meeting and after the transaction of routine business the matter of the club visiting Southport was brought up. It was unanimously decided to send a delegation of seventy five men, who will leave here at 4.30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, on the steamer Bessie, in full regalia-white hat and bandana. Members of the delegation were advised to assemble at the club hall promptly at 4 o'clock, and the members of Germania Cornet Band, who will accompany them, are requested to meet at the same place at the same

The matter of attending a political demonstration at Wrightsville was also laid before the club, but action upon this was deferred until after the visit to Southport.

Lippincott's Magazine.

Lippincott's for November opens with the long-expected novel by Miss Grace King. "Earthlings," the novel which she contributes to Lippincott's, is her first complete book the first work in which she puts forth her whole strength. It is delcate and beautiful; the story has a tender, dreamy pathos. John Habberton develops still further the character of the delighful little child who is the real heroine of his "At Last: Six Days in the Life of an Ex-Teacher." J. E. Blondin gives a very interesting sketch of his "Experfences as a Rope-Walker." An article of particular interest is "Morality in Fiction." Another article that will be eagerly perused is the "Extracts from the Diary of John R. Thompson." Thompson, a wellknown Southern literateur, was sent to London to edit the Index on bemoving to the northeast and it is half of the Confederacy, and he was Carlyle, Gladstone, Dickens, Thackeray, and many others, of whom he gives entertaining reminiscences and anecdotes. "Corporate Suretyship" is interesting and valuable. There are poems by Frank Dempster Sher man, Charles Washington Coleman, MRS. Jr., and Wilson K. Welsh. The departments are as interesting as ever.
