THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XII. WILMINGTON, N. C. TUESDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1888. NO 228.

New York State is generally considered safe for Cleveland. To our thinking there is no doubt of it.

E. H. Goff, the purchaser of the New York Graphic, has organized a syndicate to get the paper out of its present difficulties.

They are betting lively in New York now. Two to one, $30,000, was pledged a day or two ago to $10,000, the Cleveland man holding, of course, the big end of the bet.

Mrs. Anelie Rives-Chandler is an enthusiastic Democrat and is anxious to see President Cleveland re-elected. Her views on political topics are naturally extremely novel.

Lady Randolph Churchill takes great interest in the Presidential contest, and she has written to a friend in New York that bets on the result are being freely exchanged among the American colony in London.

The richest widow in this country, if not in the world, is Mrs. Moses Taylor, whose fortune is estimated at $40,000,000. She lives in New York, Long Branch and several other places, as the mood strikes her.

There is a Democratic editor out in Salida, Col., who is willing to bet his paper, the News, and his entire office, job and news, that Cleveland will be elected. The whole cost him $13,000 cash one year ago and he is anxious to put it up against $10,000 in money or its equivalent.

A monument to the memory of the late Bishop George F. Pierce has just been erected at Sparta, Ga., by the Methodist Conference of that State. It is of simple white marble, twenty three feet high. The time for the unveiling has not yet been fixed.

Minister Sackville will be recalled, Lord Salisbury will pull down his West. The State Department at Washington City has intimated that it will be well for him to change the head of the British Embassy to this country and that right speedily.

Representative McMillin, of Tennessee, is just from a speaking tour of New York and Connecticut. He says that New York is certain for Cleveland and that New Jersey is as sure as New York, while Connecticut is as sure to us as she was four years ago. He thinks that the Republicans will come down to Harlem River with not more than 60,000 and that the Democratic majority in New York will be 35,000.

Mrs. James G. Blaine, Jr., is lying at death's door in the New York Hotel. One night last week the Republicans turned out to welcome Blaine and they made no attempt to suppress their noise as they passed the house where she lay so ill. On Saturday afternoon the Democratic hosts passed that spot in almost absolute silence, because of the poor sick woman lying helpless within. Orders were given before the parade started that this should be done but Mrs. Cleveland, in the kindness of her womanly heart, did not forget the sick stranger and sent a messenger to the Chief Marshal reminding him of Mrs. Blaine's illness and the necessity for quiet in passing that spot. Mrs. Blaine, it is said, has been cast out by her husband's family because she is a Roman Catholic and of Irish family.

The puzzle in New York city now is how to deposit the largely increased vote of that city. The polls open there by law at 6 o'clock and close at 4. The time cannot be extended unless by legislative action and it would seem now too late to get the Legislature together to do this. There are 286,547 registered voters and there are but 856 polling places. This is an average of 335. But some districts are more crowded than others and that is where the trouble comes in. There are 217 polling places in which are registered very nearly 100,000 votes. The average of these is 460, but there are some districts where it will be necessary to vote more than this and in one there are 1,017 registered votes. How these one thousand names are to be voted in ten hours is hard to understand. It means 40 seconds only to each voter and this to be kept up for 10 hours. The thing is impossible on the face of it. Ac-ording to the Herald 400 is as many as can vote in ten hours and this means an average of a minute and a half only. We don't see what is to be done about it. As it stands now there are serious fears that 15,000 of the registered voters will not be able to get to the polls.

It is amusing to see people with their face drawn as if they had swallowed a feather and it was tickling their lungs and they would be happy if they could only sneeze. Now, there is no need of "making faces." A bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will draw your face back into a smile.

Indications.

For North Carolina, fair and colder weather with frosts in the interior on Wednesday morning.

Attention is invited to the advertisement of Mr. E. Kuhlblank, of the Robert Portner Brewing Co., as it appears in this issue.

Mrs. Lumsden's grand millinery opening will take place to-morrow and Friday. The ladies are requested to keep this fact in mind. They will not be likely to forget it.

Steamship Pioneer, Capt. Ingram, from New York, arrived at her dock here last night at 7 o'clock and sailed again this afternoon at 3 o'clock, with a full cargo. This is the quickest yet.

English services will be held at 8 o'clock this (Tuesday) evening and also tomorrow (Wednesday) evening, in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, to observe the Festival of the Reformation.

Since when did New River oysters fatten on "recent rains?"—Daily Mess.

Since the rains, of course. You don't suppose they get fat in the clouds and come down with the rain, do you?

A Bird Concert.

A canary bird belonging to a lady resident near the Eastern end of Chestnut street has struck up a great intinsey with a wild mocking bird which frequents that neighborhood. Nearly every pretty day the cage containing the canary is hung out of doors and then the mocking bird is seen to alight on it and the two sing together for hours, keeping up a regular concert.

Lebende Bilder.

The "Lebende Bilder" or Tableau Vivants, as announced in our advertising columns to come off November 8th at Luther Memorial Building, will be a most magnificent affair. Don't fail to attend.

The Revival at Fifth Street.

The revival services at Fifth Street M. E. Church increase in interest at each service. So far there has been quite a number of conversions. The church is packed at every service. Rev. Solomon Flatner, a converted Jew, will assist in the services to-night. He will give an account of his conversion from Judaism to Christianity. Twenty-three persons have given their names as candidates for church membership.

Services in the Lutheran Church.

English services will be held in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church at 8 o'clock this evening and also to-morrow (Wednesday) at 8 p. m., to observe the 371st anniversary of the Reformation. In the services to-morrow night Luther's great battle hymn of the Reformation, "A mighty fortress is our God," will be sung. Mr. Horace M. Emerson will assist the choir, and instrumental music will also be rendered by several gentlemen. Strangers cordially welcomed.

City Court.

Mayor Fowler disposed of the following cases this morning:

George Pitlow, disorderly conduct, nol pros.

Owen Costin, perjury. Case continued. Defendant held in the sum of a $100 justified bond.

Emanuel Wilson, horse running at large, $5 and costs.

Marion Harley, unlicensed dog, case dismissed.

Christian Association.

The officers elected at the meeting of the Christian Association of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, on the 28th inst., are the following: President—H. L. Vollers.

Vice President—J. D. H. Klander. Recording Secretary—J. H. Rehder.

Corresponding Secretary—H. J. Dingelhof.

Treasurer—G. W. Bornemann. Librarian—F. A. Bissinger. Assistant Librarian—George F. Seitter.

A Painful Injury.

As Chief Oldenbuttel was driving to the fire last night, when near the corner of Front and Castle streets he accidentally ran into and knocked down Capt. S. Christensen, Superintendent of the Seaman's Home. The result is that Capt. C. suffered a very severe sprain in the right foot. Dr. Bellamy was called in and gave the necessary attendance. The accident is greatly to be deplored. It was, of course, a pure accident and Capt. Christensen is not disposed to think that Mr. Oldenbuttel was to blame.

Preached Four Hours.

It is said that the longest sermon ever preached in this city was delivered some years ago in the Second Baptist Church, by a blind preacher whose name our informant has forgotten. The services began at half past 7 and the sermon was begun a little after 8. For four solid hours the preacher held forth until finally human nature—in the congregation—gave way and first one and then the other arose softly and left the sacred edifice. It was not until the church had been almost entirely depleted that the preacher became aware of the fact that his congregation had deserted him and then he suddenly closed his long sermon.

Illegal Registration.

Owen Costin, colored, was arrested to-day charged with illegal registration in the Third Ward. Costin was convicted in Bladen some years ago of stealing turpentine and was sent to the Penitentiary, where he served his term. He was before the Mayor, who did not conclude the investigation of the case to-day but the defendant was held for a further investigation of the facts. There will be some developments in this case not down on the cards as yet. Costin says that he was advised by several colored men here to register and that these same men knew that he was disfranchised. Mayor Fowler will push the matter and will see that all get their full share of the law and that none is slighted.

The receipts of cotton at this port to day foot up 2,566 bales.

The steamer A. Adrian was out this afternoon for engine practise.

British steamship Dartmore, Watson, cleared to-day for Liverpool with 4,600 bales of cotton, valued at $215,000, shipped by Messrs. Alex Sprunt & Son.

U. S. District Court.

This Court convened in the Federal Court Room in this city to-day. His Honor Judge Seymour presiding, and District Attorney Busbee and Marshal Richardson in attendance. The following were drawn as a grand jury: J. J. Johnson, Jr., Foreman; D. W. McRae, D. T. McMillin, J. M. Pearce, Henry Hargrove, Arah Carter, Steyer Keyes, J. P. Council, Jr., I. N. Carr, David Pratt, Arch McQueen, Robinson James, Harry C. Wright, J. M. Mashburn, Fray Fisher, A. D. McGowan, A. S. Wishart, Melton Campbell.

The Fire Last Night.

The alarm of fire about dark last night was caused by the destruction of a two story frame dwelling occupied by Mrs. Jane Fryar, on South Front, near Dawson street, nearly opposite the cotton factory. The fire was first discovered on the roof near the kitchen chimney, and is supposed to have been caused by a defective flue. It spread rapidly and in a few minutes enveloped the whole of the upper part of the building. The fire department was promptly on hand but the pressure on the main was so low that the water could be thrown only a short distance. Mrs. Fryar saved most of her furniture on the lower floor, but the furniture in the upper rooms was burned with the house.

Her loss will probably amount to $100. The house belonged to Mr. E. G. Barker and was insured for $600 in the Hamburg Bremen, represented here by Messrs. Smith & Boatwright.

American History.

The November Magazine of American History is of special interest and excellence. The delightful chapter of Texas history is concluded in this number. The half smiling portrait of General Houston forms the frontispiece of the number. "Boston in 1741 and Governor Shirley" is illustrated with a map and portrait. The third article is a clear and comprehensive account of "The Treaty of Ghent," by Hon. Thomas Wilson, and containing no little fresh information on the subject, together with a picture of the house in Paris where the famous treaty was considered. A spirited and timely paper follows, entitled "A New France in New England," by Dr. Prosper Bender, which will be widely read and discussed. The unpublished diary of Colonel Stone is continued, "A Trip from New York to Niagara in 1829," and it increases in animated interest as he describes the western towns in their infancy, and primitive modes of travel at that period. Then comes "Unconscious Heresies," by the Hon. William L. Scruggs; "The Autobiography of General Joseph B. Varnum," recently discovered; and "The Poet's Awakening," a brief poem by Edmund Smith Middleton. Among the shorter papers is a contribution from Gen. Marcus J. Wright on the "Revolutionary Troops"; "Doctor Franklin's Morals of Chess"; and "President Lincoln's Leg Cases." The Original Documents contain a quaint and curious dressmaker's bill of the last century, there are some ably written Book Notices, and the diversified departments are all filled with pleasant reading. It is a splendid number, in every respect, of an admirably conducted periodical, and the only one of the kind on this continent, which every one should possess. Price $5 a year. Published at 743 Broadway, New York City.

DIED.

MOORE—October 28th, 1888, of erysipelas, Mrs. FANNY MOORE, wife of Andrew Moore and daughter of the late J. J. Bridgen, aged 42 years. She was a consistent member of the Baptist church, an affectionate wife and is, we trust, enjoying that rest prepared for the people of God.

To all Concerned.

A RUMOR HAVING GAINED CIRCULATION in the city to the effect that all of the butchers in Wilmington had agreed to vote the Republican ticket, I take this method of saying to my friends and the public generally that it is utterly false, so far as I am concerned. I am a Democrat and expect to vote the straight Democratic ticket next Tuesday and no other. I keep some of the best BEEF, PORK and MUTTON on my stall at No. 2, Fourth Street Market, and respectfully solicit a call and an inspection of my Meats. Goods delivered free in any part of the city.
