Pimples, Sores, Aches and Pains.
When a hundred bottles of sarsaparilla or other pretentious specifics fail to eradicate in-born scrofula or contagious blood poison, remember that B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) has gained many thousand victories, in as many seemingly incurable instances. send to the Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga., for Book of Wonders, and be convinced. It is the only TRUE BLOOD PURIFIER.

G. W. Messer, Howell's X Roads, Ga., writes, "I was afflicted nine years with sores. All the medicine I could take did me no good. I then tried B. B. B. and 8 bottles cured me sound."
Mrs. S. M. Wilson, Round Mountain, Texas, writes, "A lady friend of mine was troubled with bumps and pimples on her face and neck. She took three bottles of B. B. B., and her skin got soft and smooth, pimples disappeared and her health improved greatly."
Jas. L. Bosworth, Atlanta, Ga., writes, "Some years ago I contracted blood poison. I had no appetite, my digestion was ruined, rheumatism drew up my limbs so I could hardly walk, my throat was cauterized five times. Hot springs gave me no benefit, and my life was one of torture until I gave B. B. B. a trial, and, surprising as it may seem, the use of five bottles cured me." nov 10 ly eodw

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XII. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1888. NO 242.

Raleigh News and Observer: We have returns from 82 counties in the State. These give a majority for Fowler of 17,761. The remaining 14 counties gave York a majority of 4,079. Giving the Republicans a majority of 4,500 in these counties Judge Fowler's majority would be 13,261, and this is about what it will be finally.

They are talking about regulating the Pullman car service out in Kansas. A special to the Herald from Kansas City says:

The railroad men connected with the lines traversing the State of Kansas are considerably worked up over a bill that has been drawn up and is ready to present to the Legislature to regulate the operation and correct the abuses of the Pullman car service. The bill regulates the price of berths at $2 per night and $3 per twenty-four hours. The upper when vacant must be closed to aid ventilation, and the maximum wages of a porter is fixed at $2.10 a day. It is made a misdemeanor for the porter to accept any gratuity or remuneration from the passengers for services rendered. The measure also deals with through and local tariffs of the service, and wherever any discrepancies have appeared a remedy has been proposed.

Senator Vance is credited with saying that it was the "confounded Civil Service humbug that fixed us." Seems to us that we have heard something like this before. It isn't worth while to quarrel over the empty milk can but we beg leave to differ. Cleveland went in on a Civil Service Reform plank and as an honorable man, which he has always proved himself to be, he could not go back on his own promises. It was the Civil Service plank that elected him and it was Tariff Reform that defeated him, aided by treachery and factional fighting in New York. Mr. Cleveland was abused like a pickpocket by Democratic newspapers for not violating his own word and one of these same papers, published in North Carolina, was carried around by Mr. Doekery in his coat pocket and read on the stand to sustain his own vile attacks on the President. This is a fact which can be easily proven.

The closing of another refinery in Boston by the Sugar Trust indicates that it is the policy of the Trust to supply the Eastern market from its plant in the vicinity of New York city. The Whiskey Trust or Alcohol Trust of the West has undertaken in the same way to concentrate its producing plant in Peoria and has closed many distilleries in other cities. It appears that although the two sugar refineries in Philadelphia that have not entered the trust are compelled to pay more than the trust for raw material, they undersell the trust by one-eighth of a cent. The trust will undoubtedly renew its efforts to bring these refineries into the ring. If it should succeed it would have no formidable opponent except Claus Spreckels, and his new refinery cannot be in operation before next summer.

The certainty that Mr. Phelps will cease to be the American minister next year is sincerely regretted by the English. They regret him for his high personal qualities and abilities, and because Mrs. Phelps goes with him. It may not do Mr. Phelps any good at home to quote what the Times says of him, but after all the Times is the Times, and compliments of this sort are not lightly paid in the leading columns of the leading journal of Great Britain. "We feel," said this paper on Thursday morning, "sincerely sorry Mr. Cleveland's defeat should necessarily involve the retirement from this country of the present minister for the United States. Mr. Phelps has performed his duties at the American legation with marked ability and adroitness, and, without failing to maintain the claims of his own country, has won the esteem of Englishmen by his geniality, his fair-mindedness and his intelligent interest in English affairs. He has made many friends here, and no enemy."

"Time is money." If you have a bad cold, don't mope around and ham do your work. Get a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup; take a dose at night and get up the next morning—cured.

Finest line and largest assortment of scissors, pocket and table cutlery ever shown in this city, at Jacob's Hdw Depot.

Just two weeks to-day to Thanksgiving.

Dr. W. T. Ennett, of Burgaw, is in the city to-day.

The receipts of cotton at this port to day foot up 1,869 bales.

New River oysters sold from buckets this morning at 80 cents per gallon.

Ital. barque Pana, Caeace, for this port, arrived at Bristol on the 13th.

British steamship Macedonia, Taylor, for this port, arrived at Liverpool on the 13th inst.

The sun is again abroad in the land and some hopes are entertained that it may clear off to-night.

Buy the Jacobi Axe. Best made. Every one warranted at Jacob's Hdw. Depot.

The rainfall last night washed the streets and sidewalks badly in many places, especially in the suburbs.

Do you suffer with catarrh? You can be cured if you take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier. Sold by all druggists.

The storm signal which floated here yesterday and last night was ordered down at 10 o'clock this morning.

Indications.
For North Carolina, light rains on Thursday and fair Friday, and slightly cooler.

Mayor Fowler and Mr. Ed. Daniel returned to the city last night from a brief visit to the Exposition at Richmond.

Spirits advanced slightly in this market to-day and crude turpentine has gone up to $1.35 per barrel and $2.25 for yellow dip.

It rained in torrents last evening, all of the way from Weldon to Wilmington and the low places are all covered with water.

The Bessie towed the Liberdade to Southport this afternoon and wind and weather permitting Capt. Slocumb will set sail to-morrow.

The heavy rains last night washed out the brick work of an embankment near Fourth street bridge and the market house there.

Ger. barque Toni, Bradhering, cleared to day for Bristol, England, with 200 casks of spirits and 3,697 barrels rosin, valued at $8,532, shipped by Messrs. E. G. Barker & Co.

The DAILY REVIEW is the best advertising medium in the city of Wilmington. At least, so say our patrons, to whom we refer for particulars.

The cautionary Northeast signals were flying at 8 o'clock this morning, while at the same time the wind was blowing briskly from the South west.

A nice line of breech and muzzle loading guns, pistols and rifles can be seen at Jacob's Hdw Depot. If you want the best goods at the lowest prices, Jacob's is the place you are looking for.

It is said that the grand jury at the next term of the Criminal Court will probably consider J. B. Eaves' bulldozing circular in the light of an attempt to intimidate voters. In this State an attempt to intimidate a voter is a misdemeanor.

It is reported that the Onslow Railroad Company have sold their franchise to the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company, and that the latter will build the road hence up the coast. This is about the only way, we suppose, that we will ever get that railroad to Onslow.

Give us a Rest.
Our brother of the Star says that "it is time for the Democrats to begin the work of organization for the municipal election which takes place next March? For Heaven's sake, man, give us a rest. The simple word "election" has a sickening sound from which we have not yet fully recovered.

An old house on the East side of North Second street, between Market and Princess, is being taken down to-day, it having been condemned by the city authorities. It is the property of Mr. John H. Strauss and we hope to see a handsome new brick structure soon occupying that site.

City Court.
Mayor Fowler disposed of the following cases this morning:
Abram Jones, disorderly conduct, $2.50 or 5 days.
George Carrie, disorderly conduct, $5 or 10 days.
A. B. Cowan, disorderly conduct, $2.50 or 5 days.

Mr. Arnold's Lecture.
The storm of last night prevented the opening of the course of lectures by Rev. Mr. Arnold as had been announced. On Wednesday evening next, at St. James' Sunday School room, the first lecture on Christian Evidences will be delivered. These lectures will not be in the nature of sermons but in them will be considered the great arguments for the divine character of the Christian religion in a popular way. The first lecture will be an examination of the great novel of to-day, Robert Elsmere.

A Postscript for the Letter.
The Republicans here will probably celebrate. It will be done handsomely, we suppose. The colored contingent are expected to parade around on foot and carry the torches and the heavy transparencies while the white bosses will ride around in carriages or on horses. That is the usual style. And apropos of this let us tell a little anecdote here, which we have on good authority. A white Republican in this city, who voted for Harrison and Morton, was asked by a Democrat if his party proposed to celebrate their victory. He replied: "I hope not. There are too many damned dirty niggers here who would have to take part in it." This should be tacked in as a postscript to Judge Russell's celebrated dissertation on "savages."

The Richmond Exposition.
The Editor of this paper returned to the city last night from a short visit to Richmond. Of course we took in the exhibition while there. It is a wonderful display, the finest we ever saw, and is well worth traveling a thousand miles to see. North Carolina is represented there in the handsome exhibit made by the Richmond & Danville Railroad. Her mineral resources are shown to great advantage and two large glass cases, which contain specimens of all kinds of precious stones found within her borders, attract a large amount of attention. It is the same display made at the North Carolina Exhibition at Raleigh in 1884 but many valuable articles have been added since then. The Exposition closes in a few days and those who want to see it should go at once. The railroad fare is very low.

Wide Awake for November.
There is some delightful literature about the Indians in the November Wide Awake. The appeal to the children to build the dining room of the Ramona Industrial School at Santa Fe is repeated. Then there is a most touching true story entitled "The Little Captive Chief." The incident happened in Oregon about thirty years ago. "An Evening at Carlisle" describes an entertainment given by the Indian girls. In "Children of the White House," a fine chapter is given concerning "The Household of John Quincy Adams." Another beautiful article is entitled "Some Children of Modern Painters" and gives reproductions of many exquisite childhood pictures by half a dozen eminent English and French painters. "The Wild Horseman, Count Chandor," is an account of the famous daring Hungarian Count and his horses. A charming story is called "A New Birthday." "Caught in a Snow-storm" will interest everybody. The two serials, "Plucky Smalls" and "Double Roses," are concluded, to make way for a new "Peppers" serial and one of New England life. There are many other good things. Wide Awake is $2.40 a year; 30 cents a number. Sample back-number 5 cents, or the four Lothrop magazines for 15 cents. D. Lothrop Company, Boston, Mass.

Heavy Failures in Durham.

It was reported here to-day that a number of failures, eight in all, had been announced in Durham. These are the Bank of Durham, Edwin Parrish, J. S. Lockhart, James Whitted, Muse & Shaw, Robbins & Horne, and two others whose names we could not ascertain. It is said that the total liabilities are upwards of $1,000,000. Just what caused this wholesale suspension of business we tried in vain to ascertain.

Young Men's Christian Association.
Notwithstanding the storm and rain last night, there was quite a good attendance at the meeting of the Y. M. C. A. There will be an other meeting to night and to-morrow night at 8 o'clock Rev. Robt. Strange will deliver a lecture before the Association and visitors on the subject of "Purity," to men only. To avoid a crowd too great to be accommodated it has been decided to admit by tickets, and all who wish to attend will procure a ticket without charge. They can be found in the Y. M. C. A. rooms and at the stores of Mr. C. W. Yates, Mr. Louis H. Meares, Mr. J. D. Nutt and at the offices of the "Commercial Hotel" and "The Orton" and will be furnished upon application, free of charge. Mr. Strange will lecture in the rooms of the Association, over the Bank of New Hanover, just South of the Orton.

The Storm.
The storm which set in furiously at a little after sunset last night was not so severe as was anticipated. It had rained nearly all the afternoon, gradually increasing in force until about 7 o'clock last evening, when it came down in torrents. With the downpour of rain there was a strong breeze, amounting almost to a gale of wind, from the Northeast, making the early part of the night inclement and decidedly disagreeable to those who were compelled to be out of doors. As the wind increased in violence the rain gradually subsided, and after having blown the downpour out of countenance the gale seemed to become satisfied and settled down into almost a calm. The amount of rainfall was 2.39 inches and the greatest violence of wind was at the rate of 30 miles per hour. The storm was quite extensive throughout this section, although we have heard of no damage to shipping either here or at Southport.

All kinds of School Books and School Supplies can be bought cheapest at Heinsberger's.

Wings and Stings.
This is the airy, stinging title of another brightly amusing book by Palmer Cox. It is one of the queen people series, and similar to its companion, "Paws and Claws," of which we told you recently. This is one of the funniest and brightest books for youngsters we have ever seen. The illustrations are splendid and will make the boys and girls roar with laughter. The Boston Budget says: "As a holiday book nothing could be more appropriate, since nothing could confer greater pleasure upon the little ones." The National Republican says: "Every page is a picture and all the text music, a fountain of fun, never ceasing. It will make young eyes blaze." It will certainly be wonderfully popular. It is published by Messrs. Hubbard Bros., of Philadelphia, Chicago, and Kansas City, to whom persons desiring a copy or an agency should apply. It d&w.

If you want a picture framed go to Heinsberger's. He has a large assortment of Mouldings to select from.
