Death of Mr. Geo. C. Jones

We regret to learn of the death of Mr. George C. Jones, one of the most prominent and useful citizens of Wayne county. He died this morning at his residence, Jones' Mill, near Goldsboro.

Mr. Jones was the only brother of our esteemed fellow-citizen, Mr. R. Jones, Chairmen of the Board of Audit and Finance, of this city, and was, we think, a native of Wilming ton. He left here in 1837. He was 74 years of age and leaves three sons and one daughter. The interment will take place at Goldsboro to mor-

Audit and Finance.

The Board of Audit and Finance met in adjourned session yesterday afternoon.

A communication from the Board of Aldermen, announcing action taken on sundry matters at the last meeting of that Board, was read.

The resolution that the Mayor be empowered to exchange the horses of the Wilmington Hook & Ladder Co., for another pair and that the sum of $300 be appropriated for that purpose was concurred the amount not to exceed $300.

Mr. Calder suggested that if the new truck purchased tor the company is unsuited for use here, it would be best to exchange it at once for one that is adapted to the work required.

The action of the Board of Alder men in empowering the Committee on Markets to rent Giblem Lodge for a Third Ward market house was discussed. Mr. Calder suggested that consideration be deferred until would favor the project if it could til the cost of establishing the proposed market is ascertained.

Bills were audited and approved as follows: Current expenses, $5. 537.10; refunded poll tax (error in listing) $2.76.

The Minstrels Last Night.

There was a good audience at the Opera House last night, although some of them took a long time to get there, and a good performance. It is pronounced one of the best minstrel shows we have ever had here. The music was good, the singing was good and the lokes were not all too stale to be enjoyable. The show wound up by a very enjoyable farce which was received influence of liquor. His body has with continued rounds of applause by the audience.
