THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XII. WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY DECEMBER 10, 1888. NO 262.

CONSTIPATION
The "Father of Diseases," because there is no medium through which disease so often attacks the system as by the absorption of poisonous gases in the retention of decayed and offensive matter from the stomach and bowels. It is caused by a torpid liver, not enough bile being secreted from the blood to produce nature's own cathartic, and is generally accompanied with such results as Loss of Appetite, Sick Headache, Bad Breath, etc.

The treatment of Constipation does not consist merely in unloading the bowels. The medicine must not only act as a purgative, but be a tonic as well, and not produce after its use greater costiveness. To secure a regular habit of body without changing the diet or disorganizing the system

There is some talk of making two States out of California and five out of Texas but it will probably all end in talk.
A decree for the sale of the Richmond & Alleghany R. R. has been prepared and filed in the Circuit Court of Richmond. The case will be heard next Saturday.

The Georgia Legislature has done the right thing. It has declared in favor of text books by Southern authors for the Georgia public schools. North Carolina might follow suit.
The New York Herald of yesterday has a special from Birmingham, Ala., which says that a mob stormed the jail there at midnight of Saturday in an attempt to lynch Hawes, the wife and child murderer, and that the officers fired into the mob, killing nine and wounding many.

The Cashier of the German Bank of Baltimore, August Weber, Esq., says:—Having used Salvation Oil for some time I find it a sure cure for headache, sprains, neuralgia, &c., and take great pleasure in recommending it.

Just two weeks to Christmas now. The receipts of cotton at this port to day foot up 1,919 bales.
Indications.
For North Carolina, rain and stationary temperature.
Christmas comes this year on the dark of the moon and the fireworks will show off brilliantly then.
Portable fire-place grates. Just the thing for our climate. Are sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. +

Keep your blood pure and you will not have rheumatism. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood and tones the whole system.
The N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. still lead in the sale of the best and cheapest heating and cooking stoves.
If you want a picture framed go to Heinsberger's. He has a large assortment of Mouldings to select from.
"Into all lives some rain must fall." Into all lives hereabouts a heap of rain has fallen to-day, and is still falling.

Since 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon the rainfall in this section has amounted to 1.49 inches. This is up to 3 o'clock this afternoon.
We have knives for your boys and scissors for your girls. What will please them more for presents? N. Jacobi Hardware Co. +
Do you use loaded shells? You will find that they will save you time, trouble and expense. For sale by the N. Jacobi Hardware Co. +
It is hoped that the city authorities will see their way to establishing the proposed market in the Gibben Lodge building. The residents of that part of the city are sadly in need of market facilities.
Silver-plated knives, forks, spoons, and child's sets, carving knives and forks. Make your friends happy by making useful presents. A nice line of the above is offered by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. +

This has been a bad day for the merchants. Very few ladies have ventured out to make purchases for Christmas and there have been absolutely no country people in town at all. But the rain cannot last as soon as it clears off and the sun gets out again.
Dr. Huske at St. John's.
Rev. J. C. Huske, D. D., Rector Emeritus of St. John's Church, Fayetteville, who has been in the city for some days past in attendance on the meeting of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, preached a very fine sermon yesterday morning at St. John's Church. The Bishop was present and there was a large congregation.

The Bethel prayer and experience meeting will be held this, Saturday, evening at 8 o'clock.
All kinds of School Books and School Supplies can be bought cheapest at Heinsberger's
The L'Allegro Club will open the festive season by a hop at Concordia Hall on next Friday evening.
On such a day as this the necessity for a Belgian block pavement on Market street is fully appreciated.
"Pea coal" it is called and Mr. J. A. Springer sells it. It is small but makes a fine fire in stoves having a strong draught and sells for $4 a ton.

The lady band of the Royal Marionettes did not give the concert this noon, as they expected to do, because of the inclement weather, but it will be given to-morrow, at 12 o'clock, and every day this week, from the balcony of the Commercial Hotel, provided it does not rain.
There is said to be a prospect of a serious split between Republican Senators from the East and those from the West. The former want to maintain the high tariff and the latter insist on a reduction. This is according to the New York Herald dispatch from Washington City. So tariff reform is not dead, after all.

Peek's Bad Boy.
There was a good audience present at both the matinee on Saturday afternoon and the regular performance on Saturday night of the "Peek's Bad Boy" Company. The show is a good one, although perhaps not quite as good as when last presented here. It was good enough, however, to keep the audience in roars of laughter all the time.

Look Out for the Storm!
The cautionary Northeast signal was raised here to-day at 10:45 o'clock. The order was for both Wilmington and Morehead. There is a storm advancing East-Northeast from the Georgia coast, and if it continues in this direction we will probably get some of it. Up to this writing there has been no evidence of it, whatever, besides the rain.

Bishop Haid's Lectures.
Rt. Rev. Bishop Haid preached to a large congregation yesterday morning in St. Thomas' Church and at night delivered the first of the series of lectures he will give in this city. Notwithstanding the inclement weather there was a large congregation, who listened to the distinguished prelate's eloquent discourse. The services were very interesting and the music was exceptionally good.

The Germania Band Concert.
The grand concert to be given by the Germania Cornet Band at Luther Memorial Hall to-morrow night will be a musical event of great interest. The programme is an excellent one and it will be carried out to the letter. The members of the Band will be assisted by some excellent musical talent, outside of their organization. Messrs. Jno. H. Rehder, Paul M. Knobloch and J. G. L. Gieschen are on the committee of arrangements.

Santa Claus in the Flesh.
Two of Col. Cantwell's pretty, bright little children were at the Produce Exchange on Saturday afternoon and Capt. Rankin was talking to them about Santa Claus. While this was in progress Mr. E. Lilly, the veteran of the Exchange, opened the door and walked in when one of them, looking up into his benevolent countenance, adorned with its long grey beard, remarked: "Oh, dere's Santa Kaus now," and at once ran towards him. It was really a pretty compliment to Mr. Lilly and one which that genial gentleman seemed to appreciate.

City Court.
Mayor Fowler disposed of the following cases this morning:
James Suggs, larceny, case dismissed at the cost of the prosecutor.
Geo. Stone, larceny, bound over to the next term of the Criminal Court in the sum of a $100 justified bond.
Jennie Williams, disorderly conduct, $20 or 30 days.
Duke Kelly, forcible trespass, case continued.
Moses Pearce, disorderly conduct, $20 or 30 days.
Isaac Dixon, disorderly conduct, judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

Messrs. Howell & Cumming, always liberally inclined, propose to assist the Woman's Exchange in a substantial manner. They will give the ladies 10 per cent. on all orders for goods in their line received through the exchange. See notice of this fact in ad. in this issue.
The Georgia turpentine hands who belong in this State are already returning home for the Christmas holidays. Quite a number of them arrived here to day. They have considerable money and do a good deal of trading. Those here to-day dropped considerable of it with some of our merchants.

The Charlotte News.
We welcome with a great deal of pleasure the appearance of the Charlotte News, a new paper just published in Charlotte, of which our clever friend, Wade H. Harris, is the editor and publisher. It makes a beautiful appearance. It is bright and newsy and evidently already very popular with the merchants of Charlotte for more than half of it is filled with live advertising matter. May it live long and prosper in the land and be a lasting benefit both to its publisher and its people.

Interesting Services.
The services at Brooklyn Baptist Church yesterday morning were expressly for the children and quite interesting, instructive and impressive. The sermon was divided into four sections each of which was followed by an appropriate hymn. At the conclusion of the third section Mrs. H. H. Foster and her eight-year old daughter, Norma, sang a pretty and appropriate song entitled "Tottie's Prayer" in which the prayer was sung by little Norma with fine effect. Mrs. Foster sang the theme and both were well sustained by the organist, Miss Ida M. Strauss. The piece as rendered was deeply affecting, the prayer especially causing the tears to flow in the eyes of quite a number of the large congregation present.

For the Review.
AT ST. PAUL'S YESTERDAY.
Just o'er was St. Paul's Sunday school, And she, a teacher young and sweet, Was standing in the vestibule— For it was raining on the street. Her escort stood beside her there, One saw he was her lover too, And not to blame—for one more fair Could scarce be found the city through. He'd sent for an umbrella wide, And while they waited till it came Industriously the lover sighed— Fanning Cupid's tantalizing flame Sometimes her ruby lips would pout, Her lovely eyes would glance around To see if we were finding out "How matters stood" by look or sound. At last, the silken canopy Arrived, and they prepared to go; He waiting on her tenderly— Her cheeks with roses all aglow. The silent poet viewed the twain, And wished them every happiness; Should they together take life's rain, May heaven a happy union bless.

The Marionettes.
Bell's original Royal Marionettes, together with A. H. Ellis' Cyclone of Novelties and grand gift carnival, will begin a one week's engagement, commencing at the Opera House to-night. This company carry their own brass band and orchestra, making this one of the strongest organizations of the kind traveling. They give a free concert entertainment every day, besides giving free stereopticon exhibition in front of hall every night. The Charleston News and Courier says of this company:

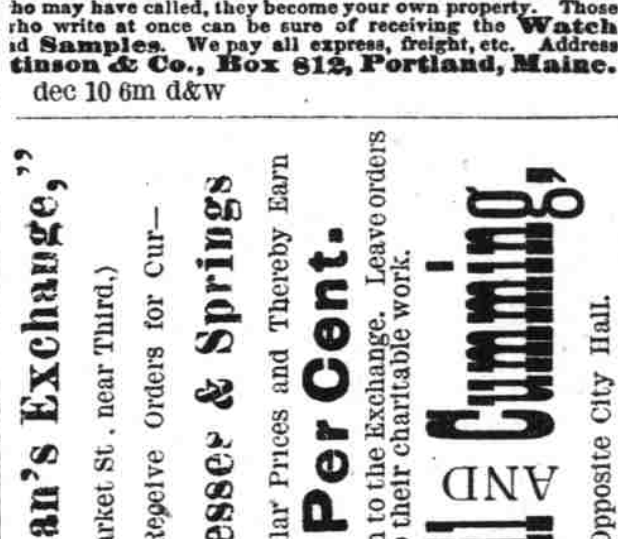

On Thursday night the Royal Marionettes made their initial bow to an audience at the Academy of Music, and a more astonished and delighted audience was never within its walls. The entertainment from first to last was excellent. The magician, musical people, comedians, and dancers were all of the first water, while the minstrel performance of the Marionettes must be seen to be appreciated. All who were present voted the show a great success. The presents given away by the company were not the ordinary and cheap kind usually given away at similar entertainments but were really valuable and useful.
The company was here last season when they left such a good impression, as it is the only company of the kind on the road. The admission is 15, 25 and 35, with no extra charge for reserved seats.

A SAD STORY.

COMMON SENSE!
This uncommon kind of sense is more often displayed in these latter days. One of the evidences is that some are wearing what are known as "Common Sense" Shoes. These shoes are wide at the toe and low heels and those who have tried them will wear no other. They can be found in all qualities and in the different widths at
