CONSTIPATION

It is called the "Father of Diseases," because there is no medium through which disease so often attacks the system as by the absorption of poisonous gases in the retention of decayed and effete matter in the stomach and bowels. It is caused by a Torpid Liver, not enough bile being secreted from the blood to produce Nature's own cathartic, and is generally accompanied with such results as

Loss of Appetite, Sick Headache, Bad Breath, etc.

The treatment of Constipation does not consist merely in unloading the bowels. The medicine must not only act as a purgative, but be a tonic as well, and not produce after its use greater costiveness. To secure a regular habit of body without changing the diet or disorganizing the system

"My attention, after suffering with Constipation for two or three years, was called to Simmons' Liver Regulator, and, having tried almost every other medicine, I first took a few doses, as per directions, after each meal. I found that it had done me no harm, and that it was a safe and reliable medicine. Since then I have not experienced any difficulty. I keep it in my house and would not be without it, but have no use for it at present."—Geo. W. Jones, Ass't Clerk Superior Court, Bibb Co., Ga.

Severe Cases of Blood Poison. Thousands suffer from blood poison, who would be cured if they gave B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) a trial. Send to the Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga., for book of wonderful cures, that convince the most skeptical. It is sent free.

A. O. Gibson, Meridian, Miss., writes: "For a number of years I suffered under agonies from blood poison. Several prominent physicians did me little if any good. I began to use B. B. B. with very little faith, but, to my utter surprise, it has made me a well and hearty person."

A. T. Hallerton, Macon, Ga., writes: "I contracted blood poison. I first tried physicians, and then went to Hot Springs. I returned some a ruined man physically. Nothing seemed to do me any good. My mother persuaded me to try B. B. B. To my utter astonishment, every ulcer quickly healed."

Benj. Morris, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I suffered from a severe case of blood poisoning which refused to be cured by all treatment. Physicians pronounced it a hopeless case. I had no appetite, I had pains in lips and joints and my kidneys were diseased. My throat was inflamed and my breast a mass of running sores. In this condition I commenced a use of B. B. B. It healed every ulcer and sore and cured me completely within two months." dec 10 m d&w

Standard Automatic Car Coupler. The annual meeting of the Standard Automatic Car Coupler Company was held yesterday afternoon at the office of the President, Mr. W. A. Riach, and the following directors were unanimously elected: J. L. Farmer, Florence, S. C.; T. W. Talbot, Atlanta, Ga.; W. A. Riach, J. H. Davis, R. J. Southall, John Bissett, Frank H. Stedman and H. M. Bowden.

After this there was a meeting of the board of directors, and Mr. W. A. Riach was elected President, T. W. Talbot, Vice President; R. J. Southall, Soliciting Agent, and H. M. Bowden, Secretary and Treasurer.

Dr. Battle's Lecture. Hon. Kemp P. Battle, President of the University of the State, lectured in Grace M. E. Church last night, to a large audience, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Dr. Battle chose for his theme "Judicial Proceedings of the New Testament," and the subject received careful and skillful treatment at his hands. The audience was made up of some of the most intelligent and cultivated residents of this city and Dr. Battle was heard with marked and interested attention.

A Pretty Winter Scene. A very pretty rural Winter scene, in miniature, is displayed to-day in Mr. Katz's show window and has attracted a great deal of attention. It represents a snow scene with huge rocks in the background, connected by a bridge which spans the chasm, and tiny figures of boys and girls in the foreground sporting in the newly fallen snow. It is the handiwork of Mrs. N. Klenman and was all made here at home, everything having been supplied here. The window will be illuminated until 10 o'clock to-night.

Bishop Haid will lecture to-night at St. Thomas' Church on Christianity and Progress. The lecture will commence at 8 o'clock. Seats free and all are invited.

Yes, I heard Patti, of course I did, but the public don't know what cures her cold when she wets her little slippers. It is Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Twenty five cents a bottle.

L'Arioso German Club. This club met last night and organized for the season of 1888-'89 by the election of the following officers, viz:

President—L. P. Davis. Vice President—R. D. Cronly. Secretary and Treasurer—W. A. Dick.

Governing Committee—Walker Taylor, R. L. Holmes, W. G. Polliam, R. S. French.

Leader—E. P. Boatwright. The club will probably give their first german during the Christmas holidays.

Two Car Loads. Dropping in at Front street market to-day we were at once attracted by the unusually handsome display made by Mr. Jno. F. Garrell. He has received two car loads of fine beef this week, one from Western North Carolina and the other from Southwestern Virginia. They are both so good that it is hard to choose between them. There is hardly any better beef offered anywhere in the United States to-day. There is this difference, however. The best of it sells here for 15 cents, whereas the same beef would sell in Baltimore or New York for 22 to 28 cents per pound. Some of these heaves weigh 1,500 pounds each.

The Marionettes. The Opera House was fairly packed last night with the immense audience which gathered there to attend the second appearance in this city of the Royal Marionettes. Everybody was delighted, for it is good show, well put on the stage and is certainly worth the admission charged.

The leading prizes were a dinner set, to T. Webb; coin silver watch, R. E. L. Cook; chamber set, 12 pieces, Nellie Chesnut, colored; bronze studio lamp, W. L. Weldon, colored; dessert set, Miss Mamie Davis; plush dressing case, F. Lafare.

To-night the leading presents will be a coin silver watch, a dinner set, 56 pieces; chamber set, 12 pieces; a barrel of best flour; dessert set, 24 pieces; large plush shaving set; besides 150 other elegant presents.

The Concert Last Night. The Concert given last night by the Germania Concert Band, in the Luther Memorial Building, was an event which will long be remembered in musical circles here. There was a very large audience and every seat, including chairs placed in the aisles, was filled early in the evening.

The Band displayed a remarkable degree of efficiency and improve ment. The overture was very fine, an excellent selection and beautifully rendered. The zither solo, by Prof. Fredericks, was a spirited performance and held the closest attention of the large audience. This gentleman is, without doubt, the finest performer on this instrument we have ever heard. The piano solo by Miss Eliza Adria was an exquisite performance and called forth rapturous applause. Another gem was Miss Minnie Scharzw' vocal solo, sung by her in German, with a clear, distinct enunciation. She has an exquisite voice, pure, clear and full and well cultivated. The cornet solo by Prof. Schloss, with the band accompaniment, was well rendered and shows the wonderful progress made by them of late.

One of the best things in the programme was the vocal quartette by Misses Minnie Scharzw and Fanny Knobloch and Messrs. Jno. H. Kuck and Paul M. Knobloch, which was rendered with spirit and feeling. There are many other items of the entertainment which we would be glad to notice, but that space forbids. It was all good, and all thoroughly delightful to the audience. It is the first attempt at a public concert made by the Band and it has been an eminently successful one. But the hall was too small and we hope to hear that it will be repeated in the Opera House at an early date.

The Last of Earth.

The obsequies of the lamented Hon. Robert Rufus Bridgers were observed this morning, the funeral services taking place at St. James Church and the interment at Oakdale. It was a sad and impressive occasion and was attended by thousands. We have never yet known a larger outpouring of the people at the funeral of any one in this city. The church was thronged to its utmost capacity. The members of the two Exchanges attended in a body as did the officers and employes of the two roads in this city and at Florence. These formed in two ranks at the offices of the companies, corner Front and Red Cross street, and marched down Front street to Market and up Market to the church. They were in two ranks and when the right of the line was halted on the crossing on the East side of Third street, the left had not turned into Market street. They were in two ranks, marching with an interval of about three feet, and there were therefore about 600 men in the line.

The services at the church were conducted by the Rector, Rev. Robert Strange, assisted by Rev. Dr. Huske, of Fayetteville, the Bishop, who was present, repeating the prayer. The music was exceedingly impressive. A long line of carriages, containing the family and relatives and connections, and an immense concourse on foot followed the remains to their last resting place beneath the quiet shades at Oakdale.

The following gentlemen were the active pall-bearers, viz: Messrs. P. Glavin, M. Griffin, John Fitzgerald, R. A. Southerland, J. T. Garvey, D. M. Morecock, J. G. Kornegay and Thad. Dale.

The honorary pall bearers were Dr. W. George Thomas, Hon. George Davis, Mr. Donald McRae, Mr. D. G. Worth, Mr. H. Walters, Capt. Jno. F. Divine, Capt. James Knight, Dr. A. J. DeRosset, Mr. Isaac Bates, Hon. Charles M. Stedman, Hon. O. P. Meares, Col. F. W. Kerchner, Col. Jno. B. Palmer, Maj. Fred E. Scott and Dr. E. Burke Haywood.

The Two Exchanges.

A joint meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and Produce Exchange was held at the rooms of the latter body yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock to take action in regard to the death of Hon. R. R. Bridgers.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. H. C. McQueen, President of the Produce Exchange, who stated the purpose for which it was called and requested Mr. F. W. Kerchner, President of the Chamber of Commerce to preside.

Mr. Kerchner, on taking the chair, said that a committee, consisting of Dr. A. J. DeRosset, Mr. D. G. Worth and Mr. J. H. Chaddourn, had been requested to prepare suitable resolutions, and Dr. DeRosset, in behalf of the committee, submitted the following:

We, the members of the Chamber of Commerce and of the Produce Exchange of this city, called together in joint meeting to mourn the death of one of our most honored and distinguished members, desire to place on record this testimonial to the memory of the Hon. Robert R. Bridgers, long associated with us, and always among the foremost in every effort to promote the welfare and advancement of our city and State. The universal shock and grief of our entire community at the announcement of his sudden death at Columbia, S. C., on the evening of Dec. 10th, testify to the high estimation in which he was held by our people of every class and pursuit in this community. Prominent and successful in early life in the legal profession and in commercial and financial affairs in other parts of our State he was during the four years of our civil war an earnest and influential member of the Confederate Congress, and in 1865 became a citizen of Wilmington at the head of that great corporation—the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Co. Under his able and admirable administration, it has become the chief link in the chain of one of the most important and powerful of the great lines of travel and commerce in our land, developing new and great industries in all the States of the South Atlantic Coast, and fostering and promoting the welfare of thousands of our people. At the same time he has given his influence and material aid to many of the great manufacturing and other enterprises which have done so much to promote the prosperity and progress of our city and vicinity.

Gentle and courteous in character; active, persevering and able in the prosecution of every work in which he was engaged, he has endeared himself to all with whom he has been associated, and has achieved a reputation which extends through the length and breadth of our whole country.

Mr. Don MacRae seconded the resolution submitted by Dr. DeRosset and spoke in feeling terms of his appreciation of the deceased.

On motion, it was ordered that the proceedings of the meeting be spread upon the minutes of both bodies, that a copy be transmitted to the family of the deceased, and that the rooms of the Exchange be draped in mourning for thirty days. A resolution was also adopted that the members of both bodies attend the funeral in a body.

National Festival.

The ladies of Grace M. E. Church will give an entertainment at the City Hall this and to-morrow evenings, which they wish everybody to attend. The thirteen original States will be represented by ladies in appropriate costume, and national airs will be sung. There will be a "Wigwam," a "Yankee pantry" and a "Southern dining room," supplied with everything obtainable that is good to eat. Let everybody cast dull care to the winds and go and have a few hours of genuine, harmless pleasure.

Personal.

Dr. E. Burke Haywood, of Raleigh; Col. John B. Palmer, President of the Petersburg R. R. and First Vice President of the Atlantic Coast Line; Mr. H. Walters, General Manager of the Atlantic Coast Line; Maj. Fred R. Scott, President of the Richmond & Petersburg R. R., and Mr. John C. James, Freight and Passenger Agent of the Richmond & Petersburg R. R., arrived here last night on the train from the North to attend the funeral to-day.

Our clever friend, Mr. O. O. Volters, of Laurinburg, is in the city to-day and paid us a very pleasant visit.

Dr. W. T. Ennett and Messrs. W. B. Hocut and Daniel Shaw, of Pendler county, were in the city to-day.

City Court.

There was a large crowd assembled at the City Court this morning and there was an interesting docket which was disposed of as follows:

Nick Carr, assault and battery, discharged.

Jno. Watson, disorderly conduct, 30 days in the county jail.

York Elkins, horse running at large, $5 and costs.

James Walker, hogs running at large, judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

Duncan Hall, disorderly conduct, $20 or 30 days.

Ben Jones, hogs running at large, judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

James Hall, disorderly conduct, discharged.
