

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XII. WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1888. NO. 278.

The grand total of the expenses of New York city for 1889 will amount to $33,034,309.

The author of "Listen to the Mocking Bird" doesn't have to listen any more. He made $100,000 by that one auditory effort.

Chief Justice Fuller is in great demand for Washington dinner parties, the invitations averaging two for each evening of the week.

The Durham Plant, the only red-headed newspaper in North Carolina, has absorbed the Reporter. At the same time the Plant advances its price of subscription to $5 a year and it is cheap enough at that.

The Legislature meets next week and will probably take twice as much time to get through with the public business as if it met every year. There is no economy and not much sense in the clause of the Constitution providing for biennial sessions.

A Hindoo god was offered for sale in London. Its throne was at Delhi, and to it female pilgrims flocked for more than a thousand years. It ceased to be an object of worship about the year 1193. The divinity is of gold, incrustated with precious stones, and is set round with priceless gems called "the nine charms."

Mrs. Harrison has been in weekly correspondence with Mrs. Cleveland since the election with reference to many household affairs, which a woman of Mrs. Harrison's domestic thoughtfulness and care would deem important to know. It is said by those who seem to speak from knowledge of past changes of White House occupants, that more friendly relationship with the outgoing and incoming families never existed.

The "rural press," that is, the papers published in the State outside of Raleigh, are not supposed to be eligible for the public printing. This inestimable privilege is confined to the "metropolitan" papers. Still, it is possible that those out side of the charmed circle may be entitled to an opinion in the matter and it is reasonable to suppose that they may have a reason for the faith that is in them. At all events, we have an opinion in the matter and that opinion is that the public printing should be given to the Raleigh News and Observer. We say this without any prejudice to Mr. Daniels and his excellent paper, but the News and Observer is a weekly and it is the interest of the Democratic party to uphold the News and Observer. It has borne the brunt of the fight for many years past and has never been found wanting. It is the recognized organ of the party at the Capitol. It is a good paper, not perhaps as good as it might be, but the public patronage would justify it in enlarging its scope and making many improvements which would ultimately redound to the benefit of the party in this State. The News and Observer needs the patronage, it is entitled to it and it should have it.

Severe Cases of Blood Poison. Thousands suffer from blood poison, who would be cured if they gave B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) a trial. Send to the Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga., for book of wonderful cures, that convince the most skeptical. It is sent free.

J. G. Gibson, Meridian, Miss., writes: "For a number of years I suffered untold agonies from blood poison. Several prominent physicians did the little if any good. I began to use B. B. B. with very little faith, but, to my utter surprise, it has made me a well and hearty person."

Z. T. Hallerton, Macon, Ga., writes: "I contracted blood poison. I first tried physicians, and then went to Hot Springs. I returned home a ruined man physically. Nothing seemed to do me any good. My mother persuaded me to try B. B. B. To my utter astonishment it cured me in a few days."

Benj. Morris, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I suffered years from syphilitic blood poison which seemed to be cured by all treatment. Physicians pronounced it a hopeless case. I had no appetite, I had pains in hips and joints and my kidneys were diseased. My throat was irritated and my breast a mass of running sores. In this condition I commenced a use of B. B. B. It healed every ulcer and sore and cured me completely within two months."

The last day of the year. Good-bye, old atyate!
This is the first rain we have had in three weeks.
The DAILY REVIEW will not be published again this year.
The Produce Exchange is closed and there are no market reports to-day.
Mr. A. F. Lucas left here to-day on a business trip up the Carolina Central.

All kinds of School Books and School Supplies can be bought cheapest at Heinsberger's.
Portable fire-place grates. Just the thing for our climate. Are sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.
If you want a picture framed go to Heinsberger's. He has a large assortment of Mouldings to select from.

Keep your blood pure and you will not have rheumatism. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood and tones the whole system.

Indications.
For North Carolina, rain and stationary temperature, followed Tuesday by colder weather.

The Germania Cornet Band will accompany the Second Regiment to Raleigh to attend the inauguration of Gov. Fowle.

We have knives for your boys and scissors for your girls. What will please them more for presents? N. Jacobi Hardware Co.

Do you use loaded shells? You will find that they will save you time, trouble and expense. For sale by the N. Jacobi Hardware Co.

The markets could be improved upon. There has been no choice beef here in a week and it would seem that the turkeys were all gobbled up for Christmas.

Uncle Remus has wisely declared that "mules don't kick 'cordin to no rule," and "that colds have no systematic way of taking hold of a person." The only safe cure, when they do, is a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Capt. Washington Biggs, who is engaged with a train and a large force of hands in filling up the formidable Santee trestle, on the North Eastern R. R., was here on Saturday.

We will "receive" to-morrow. We will receive all of the new subscriptions and new advertisements and new money—and old money—that may be handed in. Yes, we will "receive" to-morrow.

One of the REVIEW staff had a fine turkey gobbler stolen from him on Saturday night. He was a fine bird, he was, and his owner had been carefully stuffing him for weeks past with a view to a big New Year's dinner.

Silver-plated knives, forks, spoons, and child's sets, carving knives and forks. Make your friends happy by making useful presents. A nice line of the above is offered by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Weather or no weather this sorry old year is to be danced out to-night and the tiny fledging dubbed '89 is to be welcomed on the last stroke of 12. This will take place at Germania Hall, where Germania Lodge No. 4, K. of P. will do the honors of the occasion. It will be a delightful affair; and there is no doubt of that.

A New Enterprise—The Farmer and the Hog Raiser Will Rejoice.

Mr. J. M. Forshee, of this city, will commence to-morrow the manufacture of a hog cholera remedy which has been tried in a great many cases and has never yet been known to fail, it having cured in every instance. He will furnish a free sample to any one who will apply for it and will agree to give it a fair trial and report results. In the interest of the farmer we ask that our exchanges mention this through their columns, as if it is what it is claimed to be it will certainly prove a blessing to the Southern farmers, many of whom, we hear, do not try to raise hogs now, for fear of the cholera, but keep their smoke houses in Cincinnati and Chicago. The new remedy will be known as "Forshee's Diamond G Hog Cholera Remedy."

To-Morrow's Eclipse.

We will not be in the line of the totality of the eclipse of the sun to-morrow but a part of it. It will begin about 4:30 p. m., the sun setting eclipsed. Astronomers all over the country are making arrangements for complete observations. The eclipse will be due to the passage of the moon between the earth and the sun, thus cutting off the sun's light temporarily in those parts of the earth where the shadows shall fall. The shadows will move in a straight path 100 miles wide through parts of California, Idaho, Nevada, Utah and other Western States and Territories. At all points lying within this path the sun will be completely obscured from view for two minutes. In nearly all other parts of the country the eclipse will only be partial, and will not be noticeable east of a line drawn through Ogdenburg, N. Y., and New York city. Hence our view of it here will be limited, as the sun will set soon after the eclipse has begun.

Mr. Jno. F. Garrell, we are sorry to learn, is quite sick and confined to the bed. We sincerely trust that it may not prove a serious sickness.

We are very sorry to learn of the serious illness of Mr. S. D. Wallace, Cashier of the Bank of New Hanover, who has been confined to the bed for some days past. We hope to hear to-morrow that he has improved.

Special Train To-Morrow.
The Seacoast Road will have a train to-morrow, leaving Wilmington at 10 a. m., and returning, leave the Sound at 1:30 p. m. This will be a good train to take to go to the Sound and spend a quiet day or forenoon.

City Court.
There was a large crowd assembled at the City Court this morning and the following cases were disposed of:

Simon Brown, affray, bound over to the next term of Criminal Court in the sum of $50.
Jno Gilmore, disorderly conduct, discharged.
Robt Morriss, disorderly conduct, $10 and costs or 20 days.
Obadiah Jenkins, disorderly conduct, $20 or 30 days.
Ed Artis, disorderly conduct, $10 or 20 days in a close cell.
Robert Wade, disorderly conduct, $5 or will be released on condition that his mother gives him a good thrashing.

Fatal Results of a Quarrel.

John Weston, a sailor hailing from Glasgow, Scotland, died at the hospital yesterday, it is thought from injuries received in a difficulty on Saturday, the 22d inst, with Charles D. Wessell, the proprietor of a grocery and liquor store at the corner of Mulberry and North Water streets. It is said that Weston took up a small lamp to throw at Wessell and that the latter struck Weston on the head with a hatchet, inflicting injuries which have resulted in his death. Weston was removed to the hospital and the affair was somehow kept so quiet that the newspapers did not get hold of it. Weston, it is said, made an ante-mortem statement incriminating Wessell, who was arrested and placed in jail to await the action of the Coroner's jury. This jury had not reported up to the hour of our going to press and now presumably await the result of a post mortem examination by physicians, which has been progress to-day.

Thatcher, Primrose & West.

As we have previously stated, Thatcher, Primrose & West will hold the boards at the Opera House on Wednesday night. Everybody knows—or ought to know—that this show is first-class in every respect. Their reputation is national. There is no feature of the entertainment that can be objected to by the most fastidious. The Philadelphia Mercury says:

One of the most popular features of Thatcher, Primrose & West's Minstrels at the Grand Opera House will be the reappearance of the famous and inimitable entertainer, George Thatcher. Mr. Thatcher's first minstrel home was at the Arch Street Theatre, where he himself was an immense favorite and the minstrel company that bore his name a long-lasting attraction. In the amusement year in Philadelphia there is no one whose return is more heartily welcome than George Thatcher, who, with Primrose and West, has the greatest minstrel company that has ever been organized in America. It will prove a highly popular and varied attraction at the Grand Opera this week. The company numbers over sixty performers, and everything is new this season. The company carries new scenery, new costumes and a budget of new jokes. A novel feature of this season is the Shakespearean "first part," in which all the members of the company are richly and correctly attired to represent leading characters of Shakespearean drama.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses.
Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

Laid to Rest.

The remains of the lamented Capt. George Sloan were laid away to rest yesterday afternoon in Oakdale Cemetery. The funeral took place from the First Baptist Church, Rev. Dr. Pritchard officiating. The pall bearers were Messrs. Geo. W. Williams, Jno. D. Woody, Owen Fennell, Wm. Larkins, J. W. Monroe, Josiah Merritt, H. M. Bishop and Jas. H. Taylor.

While Walking on the Track.

A colored man by the name of John Smith, about 21 years of age, who is employed on one of Mr. Gause's lighters, was walking on the freight track near the ice factory this forenoon, when he was struck by an engine and knocked off. His head hit the corner of a cross-tie as he fell and a pretty severe contusion is the result. He was sent to the Hospital where he is now under treatment.

The Seacoast R. R.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Wilmington Seacoast R. R., held last Saturday, Mr. Wm. Latimer, President of the Road, tendered his resignation, which at his earnest request was accepted. Col. Ed. S. Latimer was thereupon appointed to the vacancy.

Mr. Latimer has made an excellent official and his retirement will be learned of with regret. He stated, in tendering his resignation, that the road had passed through the most critical period of its existence; that he had remained at the helm as long as he saw doubts and difficulties ahead but now that it had surmounted all of these and was in such an excellent condition, financially and materially, and on a solid paying basis, with no longer any doubts of its success, he thought that in justice to himself he should retire from the presidency and devote more time to his own private affairs.

The Seacoast road is indeed in good trim. It has been managed carefully, wisely and judiciously and a big business is undoubtedly before it next Summer. It is as pretty a piece of railroad as there is in the country and we learn that the January coupons on its bonds have all ready been ordered paid.
