

Tutt's Pills

stimulates the torpid liver, strengthens digestive organs, regulates the bowels, and are unequalled as an ANTI-BILIOUS MEDICINE.

In malarial districts their virtues are widely recognized, as they possess peculiar properties in freeing the system from that poison. Seleguarity sugar coated. Dose small. Price, 25cts.

Sold Everywhere.

Office, 44 Murray St., New York.

The Daily Review.

And That's Enough.

She isn't an angel,
She isn't a goddess,
She isn't a lily, a rose or a pear,
She's simply what's sweetest,
Completest and neatest,
A dear little,
Queer little,
Sweet little girl.

—Indianapolis Tribune.

I Found My Dream.

I found my dream in you, dear heart,
I found my dream in you;
I need not pray for other lands,
For lands where dreams come true.

For in this land so commonplace,
This land so tame to view—
Fulfilled is all my visioned hope,
I found my dream in you.

Salvation Oil, the celebrated American remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, burns, scalds, chilblains, &c., can be had of all druggists. It kills pain. Price twenty five cents a bottle.

A Chronic Offender.

"I hear," said Wiggins, "that Serrog isn't getting along well with his third wife."

"Serves him right!" growled old Bache. "Any man who continually repeats the same offence deserves punishment."

PROMPTNESS.

First a cold, then a cough, then consumption, then death. "I took Dr. Acker's English Remedy for Consumption the moment I began to cough and I believe it saved my life." — WALTER N. WALLACE, Wash-Munds Bros., druggists.

The Same Old Fox.

Stranger: "I hear that this is a great section for fox hunting."
Oak Tree Inn host: "Yes, squire; parties come down from the city every fall; come in grand style, too; been coming for years."
"Isn't there danger that you will run out of foxes?"
"Not a bit. We are still using the fox we began with."

Not Encouraging.

Dolly: "Aw, Willie, I must have made—aw—a tremendous hit with that little Brownish girl, she asked me for my photo the other day."
Willie: "Did you give it to her?"
Dolly: "Yaws, of course!"
Willie: "Well, that settles you at that house, my dear fel. She gives those photos to the servant girl, with 'out when this one calls' written on it." —Life.

Profited by the Example.

Augustus and Marie had been maintaining an awkward silence for some minutes. At last she remarked: "You are very quiet this evening."
"Yes I am," he admitted, frankly, "I don't suppose many of the young men who visited you are as dull in conversation as I am."
"Some of them talk more than you do. There's Jack Swingery, he always has ever so much to say."
"What does Jack talk about?"
"Why," she responded, carefully watching his face, "his favorite topic is love."
"That is a subject that I carefully avoid," said Augustus, who was not so much of a fool as he looked.
"For what reason? I'm sure it's not so dreadful."
"I don't know about that. I lost a dear friend once because he fooled with a pistol. He didn't know it was loaded."

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as button."

A Change in Luck.

Tramp: "You seem to have a dinner party goin' on inside."
Servant: "Yes."
Tramp: "A big affair?"
Servant: "No, only about twelve or thirteen."
Tramp: "Great Scott! Is that possible, thirteen! You tell the boss there is a gentleman out here that wants to see him on a matter of life and death."
While the servant is gone to execute this little commission the tramp thus communes with himself:
"Talk about luck. Why, I'm full of it. It never rains but it pours. This morning I had hot buckwheat cakes and sausage for breakfast, and here's a go for a dinner what is a dinner." (The "boss" appears.)
Tramp (doffing his hat with mneg gentility): "Sir, I have just learned through your servant that at your pleasant little dinner party to-day the number at the table is thirteen."
Boss: "No, it's only twelve."

Consumption Surely Cured.

TO THE EDITOR—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and post office address. Respectfully, T. A. SLOCUM, M.C., 181 Pearl St., New York.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Cot. W. K. Nelson, of Brooklyn, came home one evening feeling a peculiar tightness in the chest. Before retiring he tried to draw a long breath but found it impossible. He suffered four days from pneumonia and the doctors gave him up. Dr. Acker's English Remedy for Consumption saved him and he is well to day. Munds Bros., druggists.

A Scrap of Paper Saves Her Life

It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; she weighed less than seventy pounds. One piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle; it helped her, she bought another and grew better fast, continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds. For further particulars send stamp to W. H. Cole, Drug Dist. Fort Smith. Trial bottles of this wonderful Discovery free at Wm. H. Green & Co's Drug Store.
