Hog Cholera Remedy.
The New York Herald has telegraphed its reporter here to furnish it with some facts relative to Mr. J. M. Forshee's investigation regarding hog cholera and his cure for the same. The report also goes to the Cincinnati Price Current to day. The Price Current is the leading paper in this country in stock and farming matters. As we have heretofore mentioned, Mr. Forshee will send the remedy free to any one who will send for it and report results after using it.

INDICATIONS.

For North Carolina, fair and colder weather.
The Register of Deeds issued marriage licenses this week to two couples, one white and one colored.
The schooner Mabel Darling is here with a cargo of very fine fruit, oranges, bananas, grape fruit, &c., which is being sold off in lots to suit by Messrs. Cronly & Morris, auctioneers.

Those members of the Wilmington Light Infantry and the Germania Cornet Band who remained over at Raleigh to attend the inaugural ball returned the city last night. Of course they all had a tip top time.
Mayor Fowler, we are glad to say, is steadily improving and we hope to see him on the streets again soon. He expects to go to the State Sanitary Convention, to be held in Raleigh February 6th.

Good Time at Masonboro.
Some of the young folks had a good time last night at Mr. Jesse Williams' residence, on Masonboro Sound, at a party given by that gentleman to a number of his friends. It was a very pleasant affair and all feasted and danced to their hearts' content. The dancing was kept up until 4 o'clock this morning.

The Glass Blowers.
The glass blowers will be here next week and they will hold forth in Germania Hall, which has been engaged for the purpose. They come well recommended and we have no doubt that there will be a large attendance here at every opening. They have a beautiful glass steam engine—every part made of glass alone—which will be in full operation. The season will commence on Tuesday and the doors will be open each day from 2:30 to 5 and from 7:30 to 9:30. The admission is only 15 cents and every visitor will receive a present.

Hog Cholera and Typhoid.
Mr. Forshee informs us that during his hog cholera investigation for the Agricultural Bureau at Washington City he found at one place, about ten miles square, where the hog cholera was raging, that a great many people were down sick with a fever called typhoid, but which was in all probability caused by eating meat improperly, or rather not sufficiently, cooked, taken from animals already affected with the cholera and which were killed to keep them from taking the disease, it probably not having developed enough to make the hog sick.

Confederate Veterans.
Col. E. D. Hall presided at the meeting of Ex-Confederate soldiers and pensioners held at the City Hall last night. The members appointed as delegates to the convention of State pensioners, which will be held in Raleigh on the 22d inst, signified their intention of attending.
Col. Hall was requested to accompany the delegation to Raleigh and participate in the convention, and was also requested to make the necessary arrangements for transportation and report to the delegates by 12 noon to-day. The meeting then adjourned.

Cotton Seed Lard.
Referring to cotton seed lard the Cincinnati Lancel says: "It seems to us that sanitarians and health authorities are diligently stopping the cracks and crevices and leaving wide open the flood gates of disease. The sale of lard made as disclosed (that was in the Congressional investigation) should be prohibited by heavy penalty, and the man or men who make lard from hogs, dead of disease, or diseased, should be put to death, as surely as the murderer who takes life by swifter (but no surer) means."
"A vegetable substitute for lard has been found, and it exists in abundance, right in our midst; and if the South had any enterprise she could make it a source of immense revenue. We refer to cotton seed oil, a pure vegetable oil, as pure, and equally as good, as the oil of the olive or the palm, and much cheaper; in fact the time will come when cotton will be raised more for the oil than the lint. Few know it, but the oil has already taken the place of the olive oil in the sardine business to a very large extent, the bulk of export oil going to Italy and Constantinople."

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

It will cost you 75 cents to buy a pair of dressed fowls for your dinner to-morrow.
Struggle toughens the mind, until by and by we do not mind the struggle. You need not toughen the body by a struggle with a cough when you have Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.
Services at St. Paul's Episcopal Church tomorrow at 11 a. m. and 4:30 p. m. There will be no night service. Sunday school 3:15.
Sehr Ellen A. Swift, Blake, cleared to-day for Liverpool with 78,591 feet lumber, valued at $1,246.99, shipped by Mr. E. Kidder's Son.
Mr. Chas. F. Browne advertises in this issue Early Rose seed potatoes, apples, onions and oranges, on consignment, which must be sold at once.

Nor. barque San Juan, Bache, cleared to-day for Liverpool with 2,931 barrels of rosin, valued at $2,910.17, shipped by Messrs. Williams & Murchison.
The Lutheran Church.
To-morrow, in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, corner Sixth and Market streets, Rev. F. W. E. Peschau pastor, English services will be held at 11 a. m. and German services at 7:30 p. m.

Selling Christ.
At the Central Baptist Church, corner of Seventh and Red Cross streets, there will be a sermon at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. to-morrow, the theme of which will be "Selling Christ." Sunday school at 3 p. m.
The Show Next Monday Night.
The sale of reserved seats to the "He, She, Him, Her and Hit" entertainment at the Opera House on Monday night began this morning at Heinsberger's. There has not been a great rush as yet, although many choice seats have been sold. We may probably be mistaken in our estimate but we candidly think that it will prove one of the most enjoyable shows that has ever visited our city. There are others who share this opinion and who look forward to its appearance here with many pleasant anticipations.

Attacked in Charlotte.
We noticed in the Charlotte News of Thursday's date a brief report of a difficulty which occurred at the Buford House in that city between Mr. Geo. W. Gates, now of this city, but recently of Salisbury, and a man by the name of J. S. Parker, and yesterday's News gives further facts in the shape of a hearing of the case in the mayor's court. Parker had counsel but Mr. Gates had none. The result of the trial was that Parker was fined $40 and costs and Mr. Gates was discharged.
The trouble originated in a difficulty which occurred some 18 months ago on the Western N. C. R. R. between Parker and Conductor Murphy, in which the former got worsted. Mr. Gates helped to separate the combatants but Parker seems to have fancied otherwise and to have harbored feelings of revenge ever since. On Thursday, while Mr. Gates was talking to a friend at the Buford House, leaning on the counter in a lounging attitude, Parker approached him from behind and suddenly stepping in front of Mr. Gates he used a foul epithet and struck him full in the face a powerful blow. So sudden and rapid was the attack that Mr. Gates, who did not know until that moment that Parker was in the room, had not time to rise from his position against the counter before the blow was struck. Parker then got in another blow and Mr. Gates got one good lick at him, making thereby a considerable dent in the gold head of the cane he carried. At this juncture friends interfered and there was no chance to renew the combat. Parker has appealed from the judgment of the mayor's court and if he persists in his appeal the case will be carried to the Criminal Court.
Strange to say, in the course of an eventful life, this is the first time Mr. Gates has ever been involved in a serious difficulty with any one since his boyhood days. He is a quiet, inoffensive gentleman, who makes many friends, but no enemies, but one who will not brook an insult or an injury. In this affair he was taken greatly at a disadvantage. His opponent is a young, vigorous, athletic man, probably not half Mr. Gates' age and the attack was made so stealthily and so quickly that it was almost like striking a man when he is helpless.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THE RACKET STORE,
117 South Front Street.
Many thanks to the good people of Wilmington for their patronage in the past and we feel sure that the future will bring forth greater success than the past. What makes success? Is it large profits? We say it is quick sales and small profits. Is it not better to turn your money over once each month at 10 per cent, than to turn it over once in twelve months at 50 per cent?
By th- Gulf Stream Yesterday
We received a large and well assorted stock of Dry Goods, Notions, Hats, Rugs, Stationery, &c., at much less money than we have ever been able to buy for before. These goods are here and to be sold for much less money than we have ever sold them.
