Interred at Oakdale.
The remains of the late Mr. Stephen D. Wallace were interred yesterday afternoon in Oakdale Cemetery. The services were conducted at Grace M. E. Church, Rev. Mr. Hoge assisting the pastor, Rev. W. S. Creasy. The pall-bearers were Col. Roger Moore and Messrs. R. J. Jones, Henry Schulken, George Chadbourn, W. M. Poisson and Isaac Bates.

The Wind and the Rain.
It rained nearly all day yesterday and all night last night up to 7 o'clock this morning, the rainfall for the 24 hours was 1.80 inches, which is pretty heavy. The wind blew, too, at a lively rate last night. The highest velocity here was 30 miles, from the Southwest. At Southport the greatest velocity of the wind was 38 miles, from the Southeast, and the rainfall there was 1.50 inches. No damage was done.

Forty Degrees Colder.
The history of the weather yesterday and to-day is as follows: At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon the cautionary Northeast signal was raised here, at Morehead and at Charleston, in obedience to instructions from Washington City, which stated that there would be increasing Easterly winds, with rain. At 9:45 p. m. the order came to change to cautionary Southwest signals, saying that the winds would become Westerly and that there would be clearing weather on Monday. Five minutes later, or at 9:50 p. m., the cold wave signal was ordered hoisted and it was stated then that the temperature would fall 40 degrees by Tuesday morning. And to-day, at 9:40 a. m., the cautionary signal was ordered down here, at Morehead and at Charleston. The wind at that time had got around to the Northwest and at noon the weather had become clear.

The Glass Blowers.
Madame Nora's company of glass-blowers will open a short season in this city at Germania Hall, to-morrow afternoon. They will draw well, as an entertainment of this kind has never yet failed to do in Wilmington. They have been in Charlotte during the past two weeks and the News says:
Madame Nora's company of glass-blowers, which has been delighting the people of Charlotte for two weeks past, leaves Monday for Wilmington, and the News can cheerfully commend them to the citizens of that place. The show is an exceedingly interesting one, besides being instructive, and we do not know of any company more worthy of the patronage of the public. There is nothing shoddy about the show, and the members of the company are genteel, well behaved and pleasant people to meet. The show has been greatly appreciated in Charlotte, and it goes to Wilmington with Charlotte's endorsement.

"A Bright and Clean Entertainment."
Mr. Geo. H. Adams and the "He, She, Him, Her" troupe are here and will hold the boards at the Opera House to-night. It is one of the best things on the road, full of life, fun, and frolic. There is not an objectionable feature in it, nothing that the most refined ladies cannot witness with perfect propriety. It has played to large houses elsewhere and should be greeted with a large house here. The Richmond State says that it is "a very lively piece, full of innocent fun, pantomime tricks, pretty girls and dancing." The piece was presented in Petersburg last week and the Index-Appet of that city says of it:
"He, She, Him and Her" was presented at the Academy of Music last night and proved one of the most pleasant surprises of the season. George H. Adams, who fairly earned his reputation as a clown and pantomimist, was very amusing as Toby Petriwinkle, a country lad, displaying unusual cleverness as a character specialist. He was ably assisted by Miss Tomas Hanlon, who made a bright and musical Tootsie Brant, an unfortunate waif. Otto Schmelz, a humorous German, was admirably impersonated by Sam Bernard, who won great applause by his songs. "His funeral is to-morrow," and "Waiting." The play is an extravaganza with a hardly discernible plot. As described on the programme the action of the play is any where, the time any time, the argument any thing that you choose to make it, and the plot nothing. But Adams and his company manage to give an entirely pleasing performance, and in their specialties the members of the company are all worthy a word of praise. It was a bright and clean entertainment as full of smiles as an egg is of meat.

City Court.
There was a small crowd assembled at the City Court this morning and a docket that showed up four cases which were disposed of as follows:
Thomas Richardson, disorderly conduct, discharged.
Willis Drake, disorderly conduct, $10 or 20 days.
Jack Mulford, drunk and down, judgment suspended.
George Washington, disorderly conduct, case continued.
Mike Ward and Dennis Lion, two white tramps, were escorted to the city limits.

Col. W. P. Canaday, Sergeant-at-Arms of the United States Senate, was in the city to-day.

Salvation Oil is what you want. It kills pain and cures the worst case of rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, hoarseness and headache. Take no "just as good." Price twenty five cents a bottle.

Superior Court.
The January term of the Superior Court for New Hanover county, His Honor, Judge Shipp, presiding, with Mr. Oliver H. Allen, the Solicitor, present, convened at the Court House in this city this morning. The following cases were disposed of to-day:

Brown & Roddick vs. B. A. Anderson. Judgment.

J. T. Murry vs. Andrew Murry, administrator. Judgment.

Wm. Larkins, executive, vs. W. H. Howe and wife, et al. Decree signed.

Wright Johnson vs. Charity Johnson. Judgment granting a divorce.

Death of Mr. George H. Kelley.

On Friday last it was our painful duty to announce the death of an old and valued citizen, Mr. Stephen D. Wallace, and to-day we are again called upon to mourn the departure of another of our aged and respected fellow-citizens, Mr. George H. Kelley, who passed to his rest yesterday afternoon about 4 p. m., in the 69th year of his age. Mr. Kelley was born in Duplin county but his family removed to Wilmington many years ago when he was very young and this city has been his home continuously from that time. For nearly sixty years he has been going in and out among us, known of all men and known as an honest, upright gentleman, respected and esteemed by the entire community. He was a man of great self-reliance, of strong convictions and tenacity of purpose, a truthful man, who practised no concealments but always expressed precisely what he thought and acted through life from principle and never from policy. For many years he was one of the most active, earnest members of the Front Street, now Grace Methodist Episcopal Church in this city, was one of its stewards, in fact a pillar of that church, which he loved devotedly and in whose service the best years of his life were passed. It is sad to chronicle the departure of so many of our old citizens within so short a period, three having gone hence in little more than a week, for their places in the community and in the hearts of our people can never again be filled.

Mr. Kelley leaves a wife and eight children, five sons and three daughters. Four of his sons reside in Birmingham, Ala., and occupy prominent positions in that city, the oldest, Mr. Geo. C. Kelley, being one of the wealthiest citizens of the place.

The Governor's Staff.
Gov. Fowle has appointed Col. Jas. D. Glenn, of Greensboro, as Adjutant General, in the place of Gen. Johnstone Jones. Col. Glenn is now Colonel of the Third Regiment, and has good military training and experience, and will make an admirable officer. He is, we think, an old Confed. Gen. Jones has filled the office faithfully and well. He was appointed by Gov. Vance in 1876 and has served ever since. Following is a full list of Gov. Fowle's staff as we find it in the News and Observer:
Brigadier General Jas. D. Glenn, Adjutant General.
Col. Francis H. Cameron, Inspector General.
Col. Fred A. Olds, Quartermaster General.
Col. Hubert Haywood, Surgeon General.
Col. John I. Cantwell, Commissary General.
Col. Eugene Morehead, Paymaster General.
Col. William G. Lewis, Engineer in Chief.
Col. John S. Cunningham, Aide de Camp.
Col. Thos. W. Strange, Aide de Camp.
Col. Alston Grimes, Aide de Camp.
Col. W. H. Williams, Aide de Camp.
Maj. Jas. G. Martin, Assistant Adjutant General.
Capt. F. R. Curtis, Assistant Adjutant General.
Capt. A. L. Smith, Assistant Inspector General.
Capt. Benjamin Cameron, Assistant Inspector General.
Capt. J. M. Baker, Assistant Surgeon General.
Capt. W. D. Hilliard, Assistant Surgeon General.
Capt. Leo. D. Heardt, Assistant Paymaster General.
First Lieut. T. B. Young, Assistant Adjutant General.

Rock Crystal Spectacles and Eyeglasses
Advice to old and young: In selecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

At a called meeting of the Hibernian Benevolent Society, held January 18th, the undersigned, committee submitted the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:
WHEREAS, It has pleased an all-wise Providence to summon from our midst our late Brother, JAMES CORBETT, be it
Resolved, That in his death this Society has lost one of its most useful members and this community a good citizen. He filled the office of Secretary of this Society for many years, and exhibited great zeal in the discharge of his duty, and took a warm interest in everything pertaining to his native land.
Resolved, That we tender to the family of our deceased brother and associate our heartfelt sympathies, and commend them for consolation to that Divine power which, though inscrutable in its dispensation, yet doeth all things well.
Resolved, That a blank page on the minute book of the Association be inscribed with his age and date of death, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, and that they be published in the city papers.
TIMOTHY DONLON,
JOHN DYER,
JOHN W. REILLY,
Committee.
