On motion of Mr. Riddleberger, Senate bill directing a survey of the National road from the Aqueduct Bridge to Mount Vernon, and appropriating $10,000 therefor, to be expended under direction of the War Department, was passed.

The Senate resumed consideration of the tariff bill. The date for the bill to go into effect was changed from the 1st of February, 1889, to the 1st of July, 1889.

There being no further amendments offered the vote was taken, on agreeing to the substitute, and then on the passage of the bill. Both votes were identical, yeas 32, nays 30.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. The House went into Committee of the Whole (Mr. McMillin of Tennessee, in the chair), on the River and Harbor Appropriation bill.

Mr. Macadoo, of New Jersey, moved to strike out an appropriation of $125,000 for the improvement of Ahuapee harbor, Wis., and ridiculed the item as being for the improvement of the harbor which formed part of a farm owned by an individual.

Mr. Macadoo's motions was lost, and pending further action the countermitee rose and the House at five o'clock adjourned.
