A True Tonic.
When you don't feel well and hardly know what ails you, give B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) a trial. It is a fine tonic. T. O. Callahan, Charlotte, N. C., writes: "B. B. B. is a fine tonic, and has done me great good." L. W. Thompson, Damascus, Ga., writes: "I believe B. B. B. is the best blood purifier made. It has greatly improved my general health." An old gentleman writes: "B. B. B. gives me new life and new strength. It is the only thing that will make an old man young, it is B. B. B."

P. A. Shepherd, Norfolk, Va., August 10th, 1888, writes: "I depend on B. B. B. for the preservation of my health. I have had it in my family now nearly two years, and in all that time have not had to have a doctor." Thos. Rank, Alabama, Ga., writes: "I suffered terribly from dyspepsia. The use of B. B. B. has made me feel like a new man. I would not take a thousand dollars for the good it has done me." W. M. Cheshire, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I had a long spell of typhoid fever, which at last seemed to settle in my right leg, which swelled up enormously. An ulcer also appeared which discharged a cupful of matter a day. I then gave B. B. B. a trial and it cured me." Jan 10 1m d&w

A New York man recently paid $25 for an almanac 275 years old.

High license has cut down the number of saloons in St. Paul from 722 to 361, exactly one half, in one year.

Calvin S. Brice, late Chairman of the Democratic Campaign Committee, is said to be working to succeed Payne in the Senate from Ohio.

The South sent to New York during 1888 2,522,000 feet of yellow pine, about the same quantity delivered the previous year and materially exceeding the cuts of '85 and '86.

An Indianapolis special to the Philadelphia Times states that ex-Governor Porter, of Indiana, will be appointed to a foreign mission, possibly to Berlin or Vienna, by President Harrison.

The New York World says that a syndicate of capitalists have bought the right to a new and novel system of harbor defence. The plan is to have pipes filled with petroleum submerged along the harbor. By means of a pressure pump the oil can be forced to the surface, where it can be ignited. In this way it will be possible to fortify a seaport with walls of fire, through which no ship could pass.

Bishop Potter, of New York, wants a number of his wealthy friends to subscribe the sum of $75,000, wherewith to purchase the little Greek town of Castria, which is built over the site of the Temple of Apollo, at Delphi, and $75,000 additional for the expenses of excavating. The Greek government has given permission for the work to be done. Bishop Potter and other leading learned men in the North and East think that it would be a great triumph for American scholarship to dig up the remains of the abode of the ancient oracle.

The proprietor of the Wolverhampton, England, Evening Express, a friend of Andrew Carnegie, prints that he has received a cable dispatch informing him that the office of Secretary of the Interior has been offered to the Pittsburg iron man, and many English newspapers are commenting on the appointment, taking for granted that it is genuine. The position is made to appear a great one, and the English interest in it is turned upon the fact that Carnegie, if what his friend says is true, will have control of the Inter-State Commerce law affecting the Canadian railroad system.

A special dispatch to the Philadelphia Leader from West Point says: "The race question has again caused trouble at West Point. A cadet captain, in assigning places in the mess hall, gave a colored student a place at the table of honor, to which his scholarship entitled him. This made trouble, some of the cadets thinking the distinction too great for a colored student, and he was changed to a lower table. This made still more trouble. The lieutenant at whose table the colored student was placed was so angry over the change that he referred to the captain's action in such terms that the captain considered himself insulted, and a bare fist fight followed, in which both the captain and lieutenant received severe punishment. The West Point color line is something apparently very hard to obliterate."

All kinds of School Books and School Supplies can be bought cheapest at Heinsberger's.
Portable fire-place grates. Just the thing for our climate. Are sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

The N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. still lead in the sale of the best and cheapest heating and cooking stoves.

There is plenty of wood in market now but it still commands good prices.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard, who lectured in Raleigh this week, has returned to the city.

Dr. K. J. Powers, of Willard, was in the city to day and paid us a very pleasant visit.

A very big freshet is looked for in both Cape Fears and in Black River, as a result of the recent rains.

We are all sick and tired of this bad weather and are glad that there is some prospect now of better.

A German will be given at the Orton House this evening, complimentary to visiting young ladies.

"It's only a question of time," and a short time, too, as to when your rheumatism will yield to Hood's Sarsaparilla. Try it.

If you want a picture framed go to Heinsberger's. He has a large assortment of Mouldings to select from.

Indications.
For North Carolina, threatening weather with rain and nearly stationary temperature.

Slush and mud abound everywhere to-day but a day or two of sunshine will put the streets in good order again.

We have knives for your boys and scissors for your girls. What will please them more for presents? N. Jacobi Hardware Co.

Do you use loaded shells? You will find that they will save you time, trouble and expense. For sale by the N. Jacobi Hardware Co.

We regret very much to learn of the extreme sickness of our gallant friend, Maj. Jno. W. Dunham, and can only hope that he may yet improve.

It is not an easy matter to write leaning back in a rocking chair, with one rheumatic leg propped up in front, and yet that is what we have been doing to-day.

Silver-plated knives, forks, spoons, and child's sets, carving knives and forks. Make your friends happy by making useful presents. A nice line of the above is offered by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

The Germania Corhet Band will give a masquerade ball at Germania Hall on Wednesday, February 6th. The committee are doing everything in their power to make it one of the grandest balls of the season.

Another Wedding at Southport.
Capt. J. W. Woodside, of Southport, was married on Wednesday night, at 8 o'clock, to Miss Mary Andrews, of Bladen county. We wish our gallant friend and his charming bride a long life of wedded happiness.

Evangelical Alliance.
The annual meeting of the Evangelical Alliance will be held in the First Baptist Church to-night, beginning at 8 o'clock. Dr. Pritchard, the retiring President, will review the work done by the Alliance during the year past, and forecast the work of the future. The officers of the current year will also be elected to-night. It is therefore a meeting of special interest.

Extra Train To-Morrow.

In addition to the regular schedule an extra train will be run over the Seacoast Railroad to-morrow, leaving Princess street depot at 9:30 a. m. and leaving the Hummocks at 12 m. to accommodate the school children and teachers. The teachers will be carried down free and the fare for the children will be reduced to 10 cents for the round trip. Fare for adults, other than teachers, 25 cents.

The Judge Slips Up.

Judge Russell has a very bad memory. In his letter to the New York Tribune, which is a left-handed apology to the negroes for calling them savages and likening them to South Sea Islanders, he forgets that he was once elected to Congress over a Democrat in this district, and that at a time, too, when the entire election machinery was in the hands of the white people. This was just ten years ago and Judge Russell has never yet charged that there was any fraud in that election. Were his assertions in the Tribune letter true he would never have gone to Congress, and he knows it.

The receipts of cotton at this port to day foot up 507 bales.

City Court.

Acting Mayor Fishblate disposed of the following cases this morning. Chas Smith, drunk and down, $3 or 5 days.

Henry Mace, larceny, bound over to the next term of Criminal Court in the sum of $50 justified bond. Lum Travers, indecent exposure of her person, discharged.

Unter Den Holly.

Bear in mind the entertainment at Luther Memorial Building to-night. It will be something pleasing and enjoyable. There will be refreshments and music and the Germania Band will help with some of their most delightful pieces. A warm supper and an art gallery will also be among the features of the occasion.

At Germania Hall.

The glass blowers continue to draw well, notwithstanding the unpleasant weather. The exhibition is something in every way well worth seeing. It is entertaining and at the same time instructive. They all display with nimble fingers and the display is a very handsome one. The engagement of the troupe here is for but two weeks and half of this is nearly gone.

It Needs Attention.

North Fourth street is a thoroughfare that is used more, perhaps, than any street outside of Front and Market, as parties visiting Brooklyn use said street; it is in a terribly muddy condition when it rains, and it strikes us if the cobble stones taken off Front street were used in paving North Fourth street it would give general satisfaction to every one.

Birthday Reception.

Mr. George R. French received his friends yesterday afternoon, at his residence. Many who would otherwise have been glad to call were deterred by the very inclement weather, but there were many others who were not to be deterred but who braved the elements for the purpose of grasping his hand on his 87th anniversary and cordially wishing him many more such auspicious days.

One of the "Savages."

A colored preacher in this city, who has received much of both moral and substantial assistance from the white people here, in the construction of a new church, comes out in print and urges Judge Russell for a place in the new Cabinet. He can have him, if he wants him, so far as we are concerned, for it is not our fight this time, but it seems to us that the negroes in Wilmington are possessed of a very forgiving spirit when they agree to support Judge Russell for any office whatever. We believe that there are some among them, however, who will never forget or forgive that gentleman's wholesale insult to their race.

Clarendon Council.

The following officers of Calendon Council No. 67, American Legion of Honor, were installed at the last regular meeting by D. D. G. C.—I. L. Greenewald: Commander—A. D. Wessell. Vice Commander—J. C.
