STATE NEWS.

Harrell, who moved from Newton last summer to Winston to work on the Wilkesboro railroad as bridge and trestle builder, proved too much last Saturday evening for a gang of negro highwaymen. It was pay day and Mr. Harrell was approaching his home with a considerable amount of money on his person. What took place is thus described by a dispatch Saturday night from Winston to the daily papers: Mr Harrell, an employee on the Wilkesboro road, was coming to Winston this evening when he was approached by a body of negroes and a demand made for his money or his life. His answer was, 'You can't get it,' when he immediately drew his pistol and fired upon the leader, the ball penetrating his head, and killing him in stantly. The other negroes then being thrown from a runaway horse. - It is announced that there will be a meeting of the Sheriffs of the several counties of the State, in Raleigh, on the 30th inst., for the purpose of taking such steps as they may deem necessary, respecting the amendment by the Legislature of the act now in force fixing the fees of Sheriffs. The Sheriff of every county in the State is requested to answer to the roll call at the Sheriff's office of Wake county, in Raleigh, at 12 o'clock m., at the time above art, one of the most prominent citizens of Harnett county, died at his home near Averasboro, about 4 p. m. last Friday, we regret to learn. Mr. Stewart was a man of large means and great benevolence. He was one House, perhaps, more than once in each case. When he ran last they say he got every vote in his town-ship, Democratic, Radical, negro and all. He was very much respec-ted and beloved. — Tracklaying completed to its junction with the a point three miles below Bethel. Cars will begin running through from that point to Halifax this week.
