Advice to old and young: In se lecting spectacles you should be cautious not to take more magnifying power than has been lost to the eye as in the same proportion that you pass that point of increase, will cause you further injury to the eye. Using glasses of stronger power than is necessary is the daily cause of premature old age to the sight. You can get the best at Heinsberger's.

EXPRESSION OF REGRET.

At an extra meeting of the Society of St. George and St. Andrew, of this city, on Tuesday evening, Mr. James Sprunt spoke as follows regarding the life and death of the late Mr. Wilkin Roddick:

Mr. President—We are assembled to-day to pay a becoming tribute to the memory of our departed friend, Wilkin Roddick, who was not only prominent in the community as an up-right, honorable citizen, but who had endeared imself to his fellow members of the Society is a true hearted loyal Scotchman, an ardent supporter of our good cause, zealous in its noble work, and ever ready to promote the happiness and welfare of those around him. Up to the time he was stricken with the disease which terminated his kindly useful life, he was an active, busy man, and he pursued his calling with such zeal and assiduity that he soon become prominent in businsss enterprise, and by his generous, happy disposition gained many friends, whose lives were cheered and animated by contact with his genial nature.

He was very patient under great and pro-tracted bodily suffering, because he had learned to trust in Him who does not willingly afflict the children of men. and when, after many months of painful wasting, he was called to face death, he gave up his life tranquilly, in the full assurance of a blessed immortality.

At an informal meeting of the Society, called last Saturday, the President, Mr. H. G. Smallbones, was requested to prepare a suitable floral design to accompany the remains to Boston, where they were interred yesterday by the surviving sons of the deceased near the grave of their mother; and, as an additional mark of respect, the flag of the British Vice Consulate was lowered to half mast during

It was moved that an expression of sincere condolence be sent to Messrs. John and Wilkin Roddick, sons of the deceased, with an assurance of hearty good will and triendship from the members of the St. George and St. Andrew ociety of Wilmington. The motion was feelingly seconded by Presdent Smallbones and warmly concurred in by the other members. It was further unani mously resolved that a copy of the foregoing. signed by every member of the Society, be pre-sented to each of the sons of the late Mr. Roddick as an expression of the esteem in which he was held, and of the sympathy felt with them by the members of the St. George and St. Andrew Society of Wilmington.
