A True Tonic.
When you don't feel well and hardly know what ails you, give B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) a trial. It is a fine tonic. T. O. Callahan, Charlotte, N. C., writes: "B. B. B. is a fine tonic, and has done me great good." L. W. Thompson, Damascus, Ga., writes: "I believe B. B. B. is the best blood purifier made. It has greatly improved my general health." An old gentleman writes: "B. B. B. gives me new life and new strength. It is there is anything that will make an old man young, it is B. B. B."

Whitelaw Reid is said to be worth $6,000,000 now in his own right.

And West Virginia has not yet elected a Senator. The people of that State still live in hopes that one may be chosen before the next Congress convenes.

Gov. Vance will hereafter sport a glass eye. It will be inserted as soon as the socket is sufficiently recovered from the recent operation to receive the artificial eye.

Really, we take very little interest in the selection of Mr. Harrison's Cabinet. The white people of the South have nothing to hope for, no matter who the new men may be.

The New York Historical Society has bought from the Richmond Whig Publishing Company the files of the Richmond Whig and the Richmond Enquirer from 1804 to 1888 inclusive, for about $2,500. The volumes cover the history of the war of 1812-14, the Mexican war and the war for the Union.

Over twenty men from Iowa, Nebraska and other Northwestern States arrived in Montgomery, Ala., a few days ago, having purchased farms in that State. They will make their homes in Alabama, having become disgusted with the blizzards of the Northwest. All are men of means, and they represent that they are the advance guard of hundreds of other men from that section who will purchase homes in the South.

Mrs. Amelie Rives-Chandler has offered a prize of $100 for the best American essay on child labor. The money has been placed in the hands of Prof. Richard T. Ely, of Baltimore, Secretary of the American Economic Association, and was received by Mrs. Chandler for some sonnets on the subject. The essay must not exceed 25,000 words, and must be in Prof. Ely's hands not later than December 2, 1889.

What to do with the Atlantic & North Carolina R. R. is one of the burning questions of the hour. There is a monster movement on foot to build a new road from Goldsboro to Charlotte, through Johnston, Harnett, Moore, Montgomery, Stanly and Cabarrus counties, into Mecklenburg, terminating at Charlotte, and to make the A. & N. C. the Eastern end and feeder of this line. With this end in view a large meeting of representative men from these counties was held in Raleigh on Tuesday night and it is likely that the Legislature will be asked for a charter and for a sanction of the scheme as it relates to the A. & N. C. R. R.

But there is another side to this question, as outlined rather faintly in a communication we find in the Raleigh News and Observer. The people of North Carolina are the owners, it may fairly be said, of the A. & N. C. R. R. and just at this time the people need the money which might be obtained from the stock held by the State. This stock amounts to $1,200,000. The road owes over $300,000 and there is a mortgage upon all of its property to pay this sum. The income is about sufficient to pay the interest on the bonded debt. The stock is worth now about 22 cents on the dollar but if the road were offered for sale competition might double this value. The correspondent says:

Treasurer Bain reports to the legislature that the tax must be increased in order to properly defray this expense of the State government, and the people of the State are less able to respond to the additional levy than ever before since the late war. It will take at least $150,000 per year for the next two years more than was collected the past year to defray the State's necessary expenses. Now, where is the money to come from? Under such a pressure as this Gov. Jarvis in 1880 called the legislature together, sold the Western North Carolina Railroad and the money was eventually paid into the Treasury to the relief of the overburdened tax payers. The Atlantic road is worthless to the State and its stock can be sold and the amount derived from the sale paid into the Treasury, and it will be unnecessary to increase the tax levy for the next two years. The debt of the road has gradually increased and it may be only a question of time when the State will have to come to its relief. This road has given the different State administrations very great trouble and has been of no pecuniary benefit whatever, and in my opinion the legislature should at once take this matter in hand, sell the road and relieve the taxpayers. I am told the State's stock will sell for more than 22 cents if sold in large blocks, as other roads are anxious to get control of it. This road is owned by the whole State and should not be run in the interest of the people along its line exclusively. If sold, there is every reasonable probability it will be of more benefit to the entire people, and also will be so managed by connecting lines as to be of better service to the people of the three or four counties through which it runs.

Salvation Oil is the greatest cure on earth for pain. The invaluable liniment routs and banishes all bodily pain instantly, and costs only 25 cents a bottle.

Heating Stoves are offered at reduced prices by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

The elm trees, the first harbingers of Spring, are already putting forth their buds.

There was a heavy frost this morning but what a "deliciously delightful" morning it was.

All kinds of School Books and School Supplies can be bought cheapest at Heinsberger's.

And so Frank Mayo is to play here two nights, instead of one. He takes Monday and Tuesday in his'n.

The most remarkable cures of scrofula on record have been accomplished by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Try it. Sold by all druggists.

The contest of R. M. Croom, of Pender county, for the seat in the House held by R. C. Johnson has been withdrawn.

Sash, Doors, Glass and Builders' Hardware. You will save money and buy the best goods from the N. Jacobi Hardware Co.

The "Boy Clipper" Plow is best suited for our soil, so say all farmers who have tried them. For sale by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Hoes, Traces, Hames and Farming Implements of all kinds are sold at "rock bottom" prices by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

If you want a picture framed go to Heinsberger's. He has a large assortment of Mouldings to select from.

There is economy in using an Oil Stove for heating small rooms and offices. For sale by the N. Jacobi Hardware Co.

The ground moss and the trailing arbutus are not yet in bloom, although every fair day parties of young folks go out into the woods looking for "the first of the season."

Wilmington, for its size, is the best localized city in the United States. That is, the papers here give longer and fuller and more exact reports of the local happenings.

We have heard it whispered here that there may be another electric plant established in Wilmington this Spring. We are not authorized to talk but we think there is something in the rumor.

Wilmington ought to have at least 50,000 visitors here next Summer. Conservative estimates say that there were not more than half of this number here last summer, but there will be many more attractions and facilities next season than there last Summer.

It is a fact that the grass has been green in Wilmington all Winter. This shows what an open Winter it has been. But February is at hand now and March is in the dim perspective. Our most disagreeable weather generally comes in February and March.

Cora Van Tassel is still in the State. She plays in Winston tomorrow night and Saturday night. She loves North Carolina and North Carolina loves her. She has always been a great favorite in Wilmington and is sure of good houses here at any time.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 463 bales.

Good oak wood was selling from the flats to-day for 75 cents per load of an alleged quarter of a cord.

For North Carolina, fair Thursday, rain Friday and warmer.

The rumor of another ice factory here has been revived. Augusta is to build a second one, with $50,000 to start on.

There is something of a struggle going on to see who shall be the next Clerk of New Hanover Criminal Court, to fill the place made vacant by the death of the lamented Maj. John W. Dunham.

How about "Patience"? It is rumored that the piece, which was so thoroughly rehearsed and promised for presentation the first week in February, will not be brought out then. We hope that the rumor is not true.

We regret to hear that Mr. Henry M. Bishop, an old and esteemed resident of this city, formerly a resident of this city, but for some years past residing on Masonboro Sound, was stricken with paralysis yesterday. His condition is reported as critical.

We invite attention to the advertisement elsewhere of Madam Pete, the Gypsy, clairvoyant and palmist. Those who want to read the future should consult her. She claims to be able to read the past, the present and the future. She is located at the corner of Market and Front streets (No. 3 South Front, up stairs) with office hours from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m.

Some of the trees set out on Fifth street last Spring are dead and others will die unless they have early and careful attention. When these trees grow it will be demonstrated that there is one row too many of them. One row, in the middle of the street, would have been amply sufficient. Two much shade keeps off the refreshing breeze, as well as the life-giving sun.

Mr. R. H. McKoy was in Raleigh on Tuesday.

Mr. H. A. Bagg, Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, returned to the city last night from a visit to relatives in New York State.

Mr. M. H. Clyde, one of the proprietors of the Clyde Steamship Lines, and Mr. Theo. G. Eger, the general General Traffic Manager of the Southern lines, are in the city. They are on an annual inspecting tour of the business and offices of the line.

There is a sensational story to the effect that an attempt has been made to revive the old Henry Berry Lowrey band of outlaws in the Scuffletown section of Robeson county, but we take no stock in it. The Croats, under the wise and beneficent policy of the Democratic Legislature, are said now to be a peaceful and industrious people, with their own schools and churches and deeply interested in the moral and religious welfare of their race. They are exclusive, but neither vicious nor depraved. They have made great strides in education and in the peaceful arts of agriculture, since the days when Henry Berry Lowrey's gang of "Swamp Angels" terrorized the country, and are in many essentials a different people to-day than they were at that time. Nor were they at that time all in accord with the outlaws. They were dominated by them, as were the people of all that section. They are stronger to-day in their love of liberty and law and we believe that they would themselves promptly organize to put down any gang of bandits that might be formed among the more desperate and depraved of their own people.

The ladies of St. John's Church will probably present the oratorio of "Ruth" at the Opera House at an early day. The positive date, however, has not yet been determined upon.

Cautionary Signals Ordered Up. The Signal Officer in this city received the following special bulletin from Washington at 1 o'clock to-day: "Cautionary Southwest signals are ordered at Morehead City. Storm central over Lake Huron, moving Eastward. Light rain and warmer, followed Friday by much colder, clearing, high Southwest winds, veering to Northwest."

Mayor Fowler disposed of the following cases this morning:

Julia Ford, resisting a police officer, $25 or 30 days in a close cell. Jessie Cumber, drunk and down, $10 or 20 days. Joseph West, disorderly conduct, $10 or 20 days. Edward Gibson, disorderly conduct, $10 or 20 days. Three white tramps were discharged.

The following cases were disposed of to-day: Henderson Davis vs. City of Wilmington. All issues found in favor of plaintiff and judgment for damages for $1,500. Motion for a new trial. Motion overruled. Appeal craved and granted; bond fixed at $2,000. L. D. Kennedy and wife vs. Lewis Hollingsworth. Continued. L. D. Kennedy and wife vs. Isabella Sampson. Continued. Parsley & Wiggins vs. A. David. Continued. Fannie Ferguson vs. Richard Ferguson. Judgment of divorce.

The contest for the baby prize at the Glass Blowers' waxed warm. It will be decided to-morrow night. The boy baby, Johnny Owens, is still ahead, up to and including last night he had received 205 votes. He gained 86 yesterday and last night, Lizzie Gilbert Kirkham is next on the list. She received 78 more votes last night and she now has 188. In all, there are 63 contestants for the prizes. The main feature of the entertainment to night will be the presentation of a handsome present to the most popular young lady, to be voted for and awarded to night.
