Death of Mrs. Toms.

We regret very much to learn of Methodist E. Church South, first the death of a most excellent lady, Mrs. Josephine H. Toms, wife of Capt. M. C. Toms, of Hendersonville, and daughter of Mr. Geo. R. French, of this city. She died last night, at the Yarborough House, in Raleigh. The remains will arrive here this evening and will be taken to her father's residence, corner Fourth and Dock streets. The fuagents have been telegraphed to go cherry stains in small cans, ready neral services will be held at 3 o'clock to-morrow, at the First Baptist Church, and the interment will be at Oakdale.

Five of a Feather.

It was developed last night, for the first time, that the safe at Mr. J. W. Taylor's livery stable, corner Front and Mulberry streets, was robbed last Sunday, the amount taken being $118. Suspicion fell on some colored boys employed about the stable and the case was placed in the hands of officers Turlington, Brinkley and Howell and last night these officers arrested Sam Fuller, Leon Davis, Arthur Davis, Wm. Larkins and John Larkins. They con fessed the robbery without hesitatation, and $45.59 of the stolen mon ey was found in their possession. Fuller had $42.00 in his pockets, Gause $2.50. Leon Davis $1.00, Nath an Davis nine cents, and John Lar kins nothing. The boys had been investing their ill-gotten "wealth' in chances at the "ring throwing" game recently opened by some strangers on South Front street, and The alarm of fire last night at 10 it was their heavy expenditures door of the safe was found unlock ed, it is said.

One of the thieves said that some of the stolen money was buried under a house in Brooklyn and voluntarily piloted the police officers to the place; but no money was found, although there were indications that something had been buried there and subsequently removed.

The Yellow Fever in 1862.

We have heard speculations as son, a prominent citizen of Bladen 10 the number of victims of the dreadful yellow fever epidemic in mention should be made of or atten- sister of the late George S. Gilles this city in 1862, but no one seems to know just how many, victims there were. The estimates vary as to the number of deaths, ranging all of the way from 500 to 1,000. We think that the former is nearer the mark than the latter. Yesterday we came across a stray copy of the Wilmingsuggest that the first thing to be ton Journal, dated October 14th, 1870, at the time when it was published by Messrs. Engelbard & Price, and in it we find the following, written by the present Editor of this paper, who was at that time local

Editor of the Journal: A SAD RETROSPECTION .- To day, October 14th, is the anniversary of perhaps, the saddest day in the his tory of our city, for, on this day just eight years ago, the terrible yellow fever scourge reached the climax of its ravages, both in point of the As Mr. T.
