The Daily Review.

TUESDAY, FEB. 19, 1889.
IN CONGRESS YESTERDAY.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Mr. Vest moved to reconsider the vote by which the conference report on the direct tax bill was agreed to on Saturday last, and said that his object was to give his reasons for opposing the direct tax bill.

Finally the matter went over, and a message was sent to the House requesting the return of the bill.

The credentials of Mr. Colquitt for his new senatorial term were presented by Mr. Brown, read and placed on file.

Mr. Cullom, from the Committee on Territories, reported back the House bill to organize the territory of Oklahoma, and it was placed on the calendar.

Mr. Allison, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported back the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill, with amendments, and gave notice that he would call it up to-morrow.

The Senate then passed the House bill to provide for taking the eleventh and subsequent censuses. Among the amendments agreed to by the Senate were the following:

requiring the population schedule to include an inquiry as to the number of negroes, mulattoes, quadroons and octoroons; allowing to enumerators a compensation of five cents each for each surviving soldier or soldier's widow returned and enquiring enumerators to give names, organizations and length of service of surviving soldiers, sailors and marines, or their widows.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. Hatchet, of Missouri, called attention to the fact that in July last Mr. Conger, of Iowa, from the Committee on Agriculture, had presented a substitute bill regulating the sale of compound lard, and that it had been placed upon the House calendar. This he maintained had been an improper reference, and he held that the bill should be referred to the Committee of the Whole, and securing a place on the calendar of that committee as of the date of its presentation. Mr. Hatchet made a motion to that effect which prevailed.

Mr. Dunn, of Arkansas, from the Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries, called up the bill to provide for the better protection of the fur seals and salmon fisheries of Alaska. After some debate the bill was recommitted with instructions to the Committee on Merchant and Marine Fisheries to report back with an amendment, reducing from twenty to ten years the term of lease of the seal fisheries, and authorizing any one to bring suit against the lessees to recover ten dollars for every seal taken in the excess of the number fixed by law.

Mr. Crisp then called up the California election case, of Sullivan against Felton, against which Mr. McKenna, of California, raised the question of consideration. On a rising vote the Republicans outvoted the Democrats—78 to 74—and the yeas and nays were ordered. Then the body of Republicans refrained from voting; and left the House without a quorum, the vote upon taking up the election case standing yeas 130, nays 12.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Col. W. K. Nelson, of Brooklyn, came home one evening feeling a peculiar tightness in the chest. Before retiring he tried to draw a long breath but found it impossible. He suffered four days from pneumonia and the doctors gave him up. Dr. Acker's English Remedy for Consumption saved him and he is well to day. Munds Bros., druggists.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

(Star Report Condensed.)

RALEIGH, Feb. 18.—In the House the Judiciary Committee reported favorably a resolution to allow the city of Raleigh to issue bonds and to refund her debt.

Committee on Fish and Fisheries reported favorably a bill to protect the fish and oyster interests of the State; to prohibit non-residents fishing in certain waters in certain sections.

Among the bills presented were the following: To incorporate the Fayetteville Savings Bank; for the completion of the Carolina, Knoxville and Western Railroad; to protect owners of eating houses and hotels; to amend the Constitution of the State relative to taxation; to incorporate the North Carolina Jersey Cattle Club; to prevent gambling at agricultural fairs; to aid the penitentiary to be self-sustaining; to incorporate the county boards of education; to reduce the homestead.

A resolution was adopted in regard to the message of the Governor in relation to the deficit in penitentiary funds—instructing the committee on penal institutions to inquire into the matter and make report.

The special order, bill authorizing a special tax in Raleigh township for support of public schools, passed second reading.

The following bill passed third reading: to prevent disease among hogs.

In the Senate the entire session was consumed in the consideration of the bill to establish a State training school, which provides for abolishing the normal schools of the State, taking the $5,000 used for this purpose and appropriating it to the training school.

LOCAL NEWS.

It seemed to us that the wind was higher yesterday than we have known it at any previous date during the entire winter. And yet it was only 36 miles an hour.

"Looking for the Resurrection."

The remains of the late Robert Primrose were interred this morning in Oakdale Cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Hoge, at St. Andrew's Church, and they were very sad and impressive. The attendance was very large and the great esteem in which the deceased young gentleman was held was evidenced by the fact that every officer and office employe of the Atlantic Coast Line who was in the city attended the obsequies. The funeral procession was a very long one. The pall bearers were Messrs. G. L. Morton, A. P. Hallett, W. C. Yarborough, Josh W. Meares, W. M. Cumming, Wm. Walker.

The Anniversary Celebration.

To-morrow being the Thirty third Anniversary of the Howard Relief Fire Engine Company No. 1 they will celebrate it with a grand parade, a feast and a ball at night. The latter is to take place in their hall on Fourth street. The line will be formed at the Engine House at 10 o'clock sharp, in the following order: Germania Cornet Band; Honorary Members; the Company in full uniforms; the Mayor and members of the Board of Aldermen; Chief of Police; Chief of the Fire Department, and Assistant Chief; Chief Engineer of the Atlantic Company; the guests all in carriages.

The line of March will be up Fourth street to Walnut, down Walnut to Third, on Third to Mulberry, down Mulberry to Front, on Front to Nun, up Nun to Third, on Third, to Dock, up Dock to Fourth and thence to the engine house, where they will disband to meet again at night for the dance.

Had His Clothes Stolen.

Mr. F. F. Goddard, an employe of the Atlantic Coast Line, returned on his train to the city this morning, and upon going to his boarding house and entering his room found that some one had broken open his trunk during his absence and stolen every article of clothing it contained. Upon investigation a pair of old trousers were found in a closet in the room which the thief had evidently taken off to replace with a pair belonging to Mr. Goddard. The trousers were identified as the property of another boarder, whose name we did not learn. Another pair of the stolen trousers were found in a second-hand clothing store, where he had exchanged them for a longer pair, stating that they were too short for him. At last accounts the officers were in hot pursuit of him, and he may be in "durance vile" ere the ink dries on this paper.
