All honest, conscientious physicians who have used B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) a trial, admit its superiority over all other blood medicines. Dr. W. J. Adair, Rockport, Ga., writes: "I have used B. B. B. as one of the best blood medicines." Dr. A. H. Rose, Nashville, Tenn., writes: "All reports of B. B. B. are favorable, and its efficacy is truly wonderful." Dr. J. W. Rhodes, Crawfordsville, Ga., writes: "I confess B. B. B. is the best and quickest remedy for rheumatism I have ever tried." Dr. S. J. Farmer, Crawfordsville, Ga., writes: "I cheerfully recommend B. B. B. as a fine and reliable remedy for all the ailments of the blood, and for all other remedies effected no perceptible good." Dr. C. H. Montgomery, Jacksonville, Ala., writes: "My mother insisted on my getting B. B. B. for her rheumatism, as her case stubbornly resisted the usual remedies. She experienced immediate relief, and her improvement has been truly wonderful." A prominent physician who wishes his name not given, says: "A patient of mine whose case of tertiary syphilis was surely killing him, and which no treatment seemed to check, was entirely cured with about twelve bottles of B. B. B. He was finally made up of skin and bones and terrible rashes."

See Wonders exist in thousands of forms, but are surpassed by the marvels of invention. Those who are living at home should at once send their names to Hall & Co., Portland, Maine, and all ages, call in from $5 to $25 per day and upwards wherever they live. You are started free. Capital not required. Some have made over $50 in a single day at this work. All success. nov 22 6nd w

There is to be no woman suffrage for Maine. The bill for this was defeated in the House on Thursday by a vote of 90 to 40.

Michigan's new Senator, McMillan, who has recently had a talk with Mr. Harrison, says: Mr. Harrison intends to abide strictly by the civil service laws. Where there is a good officer he will retain his place until the expiration of his term regardless of his politics. Mr. Harrison is not the man to dodge around the civil service law to please the politicians.

Gov. Fitz Lee has returned from his visit to New York, and has been interviewed by the resident Herald correspondent at Richmond. We clip the following result of the interview:

"The more I see of the North the more I am convinced that the Southern people are the best friends the negro have," said the Governor. "I heard and saw enough the other day to convince any one that the Northern people care little for the negro race. The very people who are disposed to grow sentimental about the blacks, and who are really fanatical on the subject, have nothing whatever to do with them. The carriage drivers and footmen are white, the hotel waiters are white and the servants generally are white. I saw very few negroes in New York. The people there do not want them."

"Now, the papers that distort my utterances on the race question make it appear that I am hostile to the negro race, whereas I am particularly friendly, and the negroes themselves admit that I have done more for them in my official capacity than any other Governor ever did. But for some wise purpose God made the races distinct—the negro race inferior to the white race—and the races must ever remain distinct. The white race ought to and will ever dominate."

"Do the Northern people regard the race question as a serious issue?" "Why, yes. When in New York the other day I met prominent Republicans as well as Democrats, and I heard a Republican say that it would never do to put a negro in office. 'No matter how much I may differ with you in politics,' he said, 'we can agree on this point. This must always be a white man's government.'"

"Did you hear any plan for the solution of the race trouble advanced?"

"Oh, yes. I heard a member of Congress say that he was in favor of the government appropriating enough money to colonize the negroes, so as to keep them distinct from the whites. I heard many schemes suggested. One was to send them back to Africa; another was for the government to buy all the lands in three or four Southern States and colonize the negroes there. Another was for the government to buy Cuba and send the negroes there. I tell you the Northern people are very much interested in this matter and discuss it quite boldly. I gave only two or three minutes in my speech to the race topic, and what I said was well received, although one or two papers distorted what I said and tried to make a great sensation of my views."

We have a better plan than any of these to suggest. Let those who are particularly interested in the subject come here to Wilmington and see the relations between the two races, and see how harmoniously we all get along together and then perhaps they will conclude to let the problem work out its own solution. Sooner or later this must be the inevitable conclusion.

It was a pleasant day to day, although it became cloudy towards noon, and a large number took advantage of "school children's day" on the Seacoast Railroad to visit Wrightsville and the Hummocks.

Attention is invited to the attractive advertisement of the Ladies' Emporium, as it appears in this issue. Mrs. Wiggins left last night for New York, as we stated she would, but will return in about ten days and will then tell the ladies all about it through the columns of the REVIEW.

Death of Mrs. Low.
Capt. A. L. DeRosset received a telegram yesterday afternoon announcing the sad news of the death of Mrs. Jas. H. Low, Mrs. DeRosset's mother. It occurred at Cartersville, Ga., and no particulars have yet been received. Mrs. DeRosset was with her at the time. Mrs. Low was for several years, during and after the war, a resident of this city, where she was greatly esteemed by a large circle of friends.

The Injured Woman.
Millie Collins, the colored woman who was shot yesterday at the railroad camp near the city, was sent to the City Hospital. A warrant was issued by Justice Henry Hall (colored) for the arrest of Capt. Flagg and given to a colored deputy to serve. The service was made and Flagg started to the city, but on the way concluded not to come and therefore sprang from his horse and disappeared in the woods. The injured woman is suffering considerably to day but no fears are entertained of her recovery.

The receipts of cotton at this port to day foot up 151 bales.

Prof. Bellezza's Reunion Soiree.

The soiree given by Prof. Bellezza last night, complimentary to all of his former classes, was well attended, notwithstanding the short notice. It was only during the day that the idea occurred to the Professor and he proceeded at once to put it in execution. He could not tender the invitations in person, for the want of time, but the REVIEW made the announcement when it appeared in the afternoon and everybody read it. The consequence was a very pleasant party, largely attended and a happy reunion. All went merrily as the marriage bells.

Railroad Promotions.

The Durham Plant learns that Mr. R. R. Bridgers has been appointed Superintendent of the North Carolina Division of the Richmond & Danville R. R., with headquarters at Durham. We heard this here some days ago but neglected to mention it at the time. Mr. Bridgers is the son of the late Hon. R. R. Bridgers and brother to Mr. P. L. Bridgers of this city. He is a rising railroad man, having had many years of practical experience in the business. He has for some time past been Road Master of the Virginia Midland, a position in which he has been succeeded by Mr. Emmet Dunn, a young gentleman of much promise and experience, who has for some years past held a position in Capt. B. R. Dunn's office, A. C. Line, in this city.

A Good Entertainment.

Food things are ever welcome, and our amusement goers are awaiting the coming on next Tuesday evening of the famous Fowler & Warrington company, with their reconstructed version of that brightest and liveliest of modern comedies, "Skipped by the Light of the Moon," which is everywhere meeting with the greatest success and attracting crowded audiences who laugh themselves into hysterics at the amusing absurdities of this ne plus ultra of funny plays, which is thus spoken of by the Muscatine (Ia.) Daily Journal:

"The comedy of 'Skipped by the Light of the Moon,' was enjoyed by a large audience last evening, and it will be laughing over the wit and drolleries of the piece for weeks to come. The comedy, though an extravaganza, has the merit of possessing a good plot pervaded by genuine humor, and in the hands of Fowler & Warrington's excellent company it was one of the most delightful entertainments ever given in this city."

Napoleon III and His Times.

As may be seen by advertisement Prof. Tripp's course of historic delineations is to be given in Luther Memorial Building on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings next, at 8 o'clock.

The opening lecture Monday evening will be Napoleon III, from his birth to the Imperial throne, preceded by a brief account of the thrilling Paris revolutions of February and June, 1848, as witnessed by our prominent citizens have already secured season tickets, and the lectures promise to be a gratifying success.

Ex-Gov. Watts, of Alabama, said of this lecture in 1879: "There was no fustian as to matter or manner. It was a series of grand pictures by a master artist. I heard the lecture with intense interest throughout its delivery, and was thrilled with its beauty and magnificence."

This has been a big week in the matrimonial line. The Register of Deeds has issued in all nine marriage licenses, three to white and six to colored couples.

The pilots report from soundings made by them during the month of February 13 feet and 6 inches on Bald Head Bar and 11 feet on Western Bar. The soundings were taken at mean low tide and as the rise of tide at the mouth of the river is 4 1/2 feet, this gives 18 feet to sea on high water.
