He will remain in New York two weeks in order to attend all the most important auctions and buy our goods cheap. Large quan-titles of goods will be coming in from March 15th to March 30th. We expect to have the largest, cheapest and best assorted stock ever carried in this house.

Any one wishing to purchase Rugs, Window Shades, Floor Oll Cloth and Matting, will please hold their orders until the 15th of March, when we can show them the cheapest stock ever sold.

You who wish to purchase a New Hat or any kind of Millinery Goods must remember that our New York Milliner will be here to commence work on the 15th of March. She is a good Trimmer and has had several years' experience in the business and will be able to satisfy any order in Style, Quality and Price

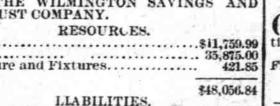

Some merchants say that the Racket sells shoddy and inferior goods, because the goods were bought at auction. We say it i not so. What is the cause of auctions? An why should auction goods be inferior. There are various causes for auctions, Many mer-chants overstock themselves by buying too many goods, and when their creditors are go-ing to prose they for the sell control of the sell.
