INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
MUNDS BROS.—Pharmacists
W. M. CUMMING—Mattresses
HEINSBERGER—Roller Skates
F. C. MILLER—Drugs and Chemicals
J. F. GARRELL—The State Convention

Only five days left in which to register.
Asparagus sold here to-day for 50 cents a bunch.

Thursday next is election day and you haven't register yet.

Gold, silver and copper bronzes are sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. †

All kinds of School Books and School Supplies can be bought cheapest at Heinsberger's †

Oil stoves of all kinds, for heating and cooking, guaranteed to give satisfaction. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. †

Farmers, see the latest improvement in back band hooks and rein snaps sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. †

Blind tenons for repairing broken slats in your blinds, can be used by the most inexperienced. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. †

Two great enemies—Hood's Sarsaparilla and impure blood. The latter is utterly defeated by the peculiar medicine.

If you want a picture framed go to Heinsberger's. He has a large assortment of Mouldings to select from.

Speculation is rife as to what route the Onslow road will take in leaving the city, where the depot will be, &c.

There were no glasses broken by the hailstones in the Wilmington Cotton Mills. We heard the report last evening and found it incorrect.

There will be an extra train on the Seacoast R. R. on Saturday. It will leave here at 9:30 a. m. and will leave the Hummocks on the return at 1 o'clock.

Queen street, towards its Western extremity, is in a wretched condition. Residents in that section complain of being totally neglected. They say that a policeman there is a rarity.

For North Carolina, fair weather, preceded by light rain on the coast, slightly colder in eastern portion and stationary temperature in western portion.

It is, we think, the largest ham we ever saw. It was brought here this morning by Mr. F. M. Foy, of Scott's Hill, and was on public exhibition. It was from a Jersey hog raised by Mr. Foy and weighed 35 pounds.

We have the largest assortment of cook stoves to be found in the State to select from and at factory prices. We guarantee every stove to bake and cook well and to give general satisfaction. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. †

Mr. John F. Garrell, in view of the assembling together here of the State Convention of the Y. M. C. A., has received from the mountains of West Virginia and Western North Carolina a car load of unusually fine mountain beef. It will be for sale at his stalls every day this week.

Worth Hearing.
Rev. J. D. Fulton, D. D., of Brooklyn, N. Y., and one of the most distinguished men of the sacred profession, will lecture at the Shiloh Baptist Church, corner of Eighth and Walnut streets, Friday night, (to-morrow) commencing at 8 o'clock.

City Court.
The following cases were disposed of by the Mayor to-day:
Obadiah Jenkins, disorderly conduct. Case removed to Justice John Cowan.

Robert Laney was charged with disorderly conduct and resisting an officer. In the first case he was fined $20, but judgment was suspended in the latter case.

Personal.
Mr. S. M. Sayford, of Boston, for years State Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Associations of Massachusetts, happens in our city to-night and will deliver his address, "An Association Trip around the World," before the State Convention of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Sayford leaves on the midnight train for Richmond.

The Purim Ball.

The tenth annual Purim Ball, under the auspices of North State Lodge No. 222, I. O. O. B., took place last night at Concordia Hall. It was largely attended and was thoroughly enjoyable. The proceeds of the entertainment were for the benefit of the District Orphan Asylum and a handsome sum was realized. The managers were Messrs. J. I. Macks, B. Solomon, Sol. C. Weill and Samuel Bear, Jr., and they are to be congratulated on the success which crowned their efforts.

The Republican slate.

The Republican primaries were held last night and resulted in the choice of A. J. Walker or W. H. Howe and Geo. W. Price or Elijah Lane in the First Ward and Thos. Lawson and George Bell in the Fifth Ward. The word "or" which we have used means that both of the parties named claim the distinguished honor of the nomination. They can fight it out among themselves; we are indifferent as to the result. In the Second, Third and Fourth Wards no nominations were made.

Hail Storm 50 Years Ago.

Within the memory of the oldest inhabitants the hail storm of Tuesday night was the most unprecedentedly severe, with one exception, that has ever been known in this section. Some 50 years ago, or thereabouts, there was a very severe one—so severe that cattle in the fields were seriously injured and human lives were lost. Three young men were in an open boat in the Sound somewhere between Middle Sound and Topsail and were caught in the storm. Two of them were killed by the stones and the third escaped only with serious injuries.

Snow at Burgaw Yesterday.

Our clever friend, Mr. J. T. Collins, of Burgaw, was in the city to-day and paid us a very welcome visit. From him we learn that the hail of Tuesday night did not touch Burgaw but that it was heard from further on. There was plenty of rain—too much, in fact—at Burgaw, however, on the night in question and yesterday there was snow there—not much of it, it is true, but still a distinct and well defined snow. Mr. Collins says that the truckers are retarded by the cold, wet weather. He hopes to ship the first radishes next week.

Two Distinguished Visitors.

Gen. Thos. L. Casey, Chief Engineer of the U. S. Army, was in the city on Tuesday last, in company with Col. W. P. Craighill, Engineer in charge of this district. Gen. Casey is on a tour of inspection of the entire South Atlantic and Gulf coasts. Accompanied by Capt. Bixby and Mr. Bacon the two distinguished visitors went down the river on Tuesday on the steam tug Woodbury, returning on the Easton. They made a close examination of all of the government works in the river and on the bar and we understand that Gen. Casey and Col. Craighill both expressed themselves as well satisfied with the result, commend the work of the office here in high terms. Both gentlemen left here on Tuesday night, Gen. Casey for Charleston and Col. Craighill on his return to his headquarters in Baltimore.

Last Night in Memorial Hall.

The entertainment given last night in the Luther Memorial Building, for the benefit of the Organ Fund of St. Paul's Church, was in every way a delightful success. It was a pretty, pleasant musical mangle. The quintette rendered by Miss Minna Schwarz and Messrs B. French, W. P. Toomer, A. S. Holden and John T. Grant was most beautifully rendered and was unstintedly applauded. Mr. Otten's rendition, as foreshadowed by us, was a surprise to his friends, not so much in its production, for all knew that he would do well whatever he undertook, but in the title, which was "Matrimony." Mrs. H. L. Volters, Miss Lizzie Ulrich, Miss Kate Stotter and Miss Elise Bissinger all sang and all contributed greatly to the success of the entertainment. A piano duet by Miss Schwarz and Mr. E. P. Boatwright was very fine as was also the beautiful cornet duet by Mr. J. H. Rehder and Master Carl Rehder and Mr. M. Rathjen's bass horn solo.

The Humble Peanut.

Some of these days we will all find out that the humble peanut, grown at our very doors, is a great remedial agent. We know of an instance in this city where it cured a little girl of whooping cough and now Bishop Lyman claims that it will cure insomnia and dyspepsia. The Bishop's testimony is very valuable. He writes as follows to the Raleigh News and Observer:

I think I have made a very valuable discovery, and I am anxious that others should also enjoy the benefit of it. For nearly two years I have been suffering greatly from sleeplessness at night, and frequently have not been able to sleep more than one or two hours during the night. I have tried a great number of proposed remedies, some of which have helped me a little, but not for any length of time. A little more than a fortnight ago, while staying at the house of a friend, in the country, my good hostess brought into the parlor, quite late in the evening, a bountiful supply of freshly roasted peanuts. As I am very fond of them, when they are not too much cooked, I ate quite freely of them, and soon after retired to bed. I found the next morning that I had enjoyed the best sleep I had experienced for over a month. I attributed this at once to the peanuts and determined to try them again the following evening. I did so, and also drank a glass of fresh, sweet milk after I had finished the peanuts. That night I slept still better, and now, for a fortnight, I have partaken of the peanuts and the milk every night, and have not only slept remarkably well, but have also fully recovered from a slight attack of indigestion which had troubled me before. I now find that peanuts, carefully roasted and not over done, so as to be at all burnt, are surely a remedy for sleeplessness, and also for that form of indigestion which is one of the producing causes of sleeplessness.

There is a popular impression that peanuts are indigestible, but I have never found them so, unless they were too much roasted, or had been roasted many days before. When too much cooked, or when stale, they certainly are indigestible, but when carefully roasted and fresh, they promote digestion. They should be eaten shortly before going to bed, and not more than a half pint should be taken. They should be roasted before they are shelled, and shelled only as they are eaten. A half pint of shelled nuts would be too many.

B' Nai B'Rith.

A special meeting of District Grand Lodge No. 5, Independent Order of B' Nai B'Rith, will be held on the 26th and 27th of this month in Savannah. After transacting the regular business, the convention will adjourn to Atlanta, where it will be reconvened on the 28th inst., for the purpose of receiving the orphan asylum recently erected by the order in that city. Usually the meetings of the order are biennial, and properly there should be no meeting until next year. Owing, however, to the opening of the asylum a special meeting will be held this month.

North State Lodge, No. 222, will be represented at this meeting by Messrs. J. I. Macks, L. Brunhild and Isaac Bear.

The B' Nai B'Rith is the largest Jewish benevolent and charitable order in the world. The organization extends over the United States and Europe. District No. 5 is composed of the District of Columbia and the States of Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia. The convention will be composed of about ninety delegates from all parts of the district. As already stated, the special feature of the convention will be its acceptance of the orphan asylum. The building of this asylum was decided upon a number of years ago, the number of orphans entrusted to the care of the district having increased so rapidly that it was found to be necessary. After competition between the various cities in the district, Atlanta was selected as the place for the asylum, the citizens of that city having subscribed the largest amount in proportion to the Jewish population. The asylum will cost about $50,000, the ground having been purchased and the building erected and furnished by voluntary subscriptions throughout the district. The members of the order have by a per capita tax and in various other ways raised about $50,000, the interest on which is to be used as a permanent endowment fund.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

The State Convention.
I BEG TO ANNOUNCE TO THE CITIZENS of Wilmington that I have made special preparations looking to the entertainment of the delegates to the State Convention of the Y. M. C. A. I have just received ANOTHER CARLOAD of that splendid from the mountains of West Virginia and Western North Carolina, and will have it on my stalls every day this week. I challenge Richmond, Baltimore and New York to show better meat and I challenge the world to sell it as low as I sell it. This is no idle boast; I mean business. Call and see this Beef and price it. Orders left in advance promptly filled and goods delivered in any part of the city.

Blue Grass Beef,

Criminal Court.

Business was slack in the Criminal Court to day. Nothing was done up to 3 o'clock, for which hour several cases were docketed. The Court had caught up with the grand jury in the dispatch of business and were waiting on them.

This afternoon, Richard Ferguson submitted to a charge of swindling; Judgment suspended on condition that he leave the State.

Reynolds Lamb, assault and battery. Jury out.

State Convention of the Y. M. C. A.

The opening session of the State Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held in the First Baptist Church to night at 8 o'clock.

The programme has been slightly changed. Mr. S. M. Sayford, of Boston, for several years State Secretary of Massachusetts, by accident happens to be in our city to-night. At the request of Dr. Thos. Hume, of Chapel Hill, he has consented to deliver his address, "An Association Trip around the World." The address of Dr. Hume, on "The Value of a Young Man to Church and State," will therefore be postponed until to-morrow evening. Let all our people be present to night to hear a speaker of such wide experience and ability.
