The meeting was called to order by Dr. Thos. F. Wood and the services were inaugurated by singing must indeed be hard up if it needs No. 135, of the Fospel Hymn. The scriptures were then read by Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, Pastor of St. Paul's E. L. Church. This was followed by prayer by Rev. J. W. Prim. rose, of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, and the prayer by Gospel Hvmn No. 145.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard, of the Firs Baptist Church, then delievered the address of welcome. He eloquently and cordially bade the delegates welcome to Wilmington and then spoke of the origin of the Associa tion, giving a brief review of its growth and dwelt foreibly and quest for assistance and co-opera- feelingly on the great good it is action in the restoring of order in complishing all over the civilized world.

statement in the Reichstag that in Samoa Germany and England were Rev. Thomas Hume, D. D., Chair-'advancing hand in hand." The man of the State Executive Committee of the Y. M. C. A., was then introduced. He presented Mr. S. M. Sayford as the speaker of the evening.

> We cannot follow Mr. Sayford's address in full. It was a perfect gem and no synopsis could possibly give an idea of its interest, force and beauty: He took his hearers with him on an imaginary journey around the world, visiting all of the principal cities in this country where the Association has been established and then crossing the water carried them with him to the countries of the old world, to China, Japan, the Sandwich Islands, and even Africa and Asia, as well as Europe, describing the labors of the Asso ciation and the immense power for good it has exerted wherever it has gained a foothold. The address was one of the most beautiful things over. On this occasion the session ever heard in Wilmington and it was followed throughout with breathless interest by the immense con course.

At the conclusion of Mr. Sayford's address, the chairman annonnced the following as a Committee on Permanent Organization, who reported this morning:

E. S. Tennent, Wilmington; J. B. Whitaker, Durham; R. T. Wyche, Oak Ridge: J. R. Young, Henderson; Wm. Black, Maxton; Wm, Fife, Fayetteville; W. B. Henderson, Binghams; G. T. Adams, Trinity College: W. M. Curtis, Chapel Hill.

The congregation then sang the long metre doxology, after which Rev. Dr. Pritchard pronounced the benediction and the vast audience dispersed to their homes.
