The Daily Review.

A Public School Idyl.

Run it in, cram it in—
 Children's heads are hollow!
 Slam it in, jam it in—
 Still there's more to follow:
 Hygiene and history,
 Astronomic mystery,
 Algebra, history,
 Latin, etymology,
 Botany, geometry,
 Greek and trigonometry—
 Run it in, cram it in,
 Children's heads are hollow!

Rap it in, tap it in—
 What are teachers paid for?
 Bang it in, slap it in—
 What were children made for?
 Ancient archology,
 Aryan Philology,
 Prosody, zoology,
 Physics, climatology,
 Calculus and mathematics,
 Rhetoric and hydrostatics—
 Hoax it in, coax it in,
 Children's heads are hollow!

Rub it in, club it in—
 All there is in learning;
 Push it in, crush it in,
 Quench their childish yearning
 For the field and grassy nook,
 Meadow green and rippling brook:
 Drive such wicked thoughts afar!
 Teach the children that they are
 But machines to cram it in,
 Bang it in, slam it in—
 That their heads are hollow!

Scold it in, mold it in,
 All that they can swallow;
 Fold it in, hold it in,
 Still there's more to follow!
 Faces pinched and sad and pale
 Tell the same undying tale—
 Tell the moments robbed of sleep,
 Meals untasted, studies deep,
 Those who've paid the furnace
 through
 With aching brow will tell you
 How the teacher crammed it in,
 Rammed it in, jammed it in,
 Crunched it in, punched it in,

Consumption Surely Cured.

To the EDITOR—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and post office address. Respectfully, T. A. SLOCUM, M.C., 181 Pearl st., New York.

An Unfortunate Recognition.

The minister's wife sat on the front porch mending the clothes of one of her numerous progeny. A neighbor passing stopped in for a social chat. A large work basket full of buttons, sat on the floor of the porch. After various remarks of a gossipy nature the visitor said: "You seem to be well supplied with buttons, Mrs. Goodman."
 "Yes; very well indeed."
 "My gracious! If three ain't two of the same buttons my husband had on his last winter's suit. I'd know 'em anywhere."
 "Indeed!" said the minister's wife, calmly. "I am surprised to hear it, as all these buttons were found in the contribution box. So I thought I might as well put them to some use, so I—what! must you go? Well, be sure to call again."—West Point Alliance.

A Famous Actor's Joke.

One day the elder Sothorn, who was a famous practical joker as well as an actor, went with Mrs. Wood into an ironmonger's shop and asked for Macaulay's "History of England."
 "We do not sell books, sir," said the assistant. "This is an ironmonger's shop."
 "Well, I'm not particular," said Sothorn, pretending to be deaf; "I don't care whether it is bound in calf or Russia."
 "But this is not a bookseller's," shouted the assistant.
 "All right," said Sothorn, "wrap it up neatly. I want to have it sent down to the hotel. It's for a present I wish to make to a relative."
 "We don't keep it," shouted the assistant, getting red in the face.
 "Do it up as if it were for your own mother. I don't want anything better than that," said Sothorn. "I would like to write my name on the fly leaf."
 "Sir," bawled the assistant at the top of his voice, "can't you see that we do not keep books?"
 "Very well," said Sothorn, quite undisturbed, "I will wait for it."
 The clerk appealed to his master and said he thought the customer must be off his head.
 "What is it, sir? What do you desire?" he said to Sothorn.
 "I want to buy a file," said the actor. "A plain file four or five inches long."
 "Certainly," said the master, casting a withering glance at his assistant.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Salt, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of Rheumatism of 10 years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Bellville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only half a dollar a bottle at Robert L. Bellamy's wholesale and retail drug store.
