The Women Praise B. B. B.
 The suffering of women certainly awakens the sympathy of every true philanthropist.
 Their best friend, however, is B. B. B. (Botanical Blood Balm). Send to Blood Balm Co.
 Atlanta, Ga., for proofs.
 H. L. Cassidy, Kennesaw, Ga., writes:— "Three bottles of B. B. B. cured my wife of scrofula." Mrs. R. M. Laws, Zalaba, Fla., writes: "I have never used anything to equal B. B. B." Mrs. C. H. Gay, Rocky Mount, N. C., writes:
 "Not a day for 15 years was I free from headaches. B. B. B. entirely relieved me. I feel like another person."
 James W. Lancaster, Hawkinsville, Ga., writes: "My wife was in bad health for eight years. Five doctors and many patent medicines had done her no good. Six bottles of B.
 B. B. cured her." Miss S. Tomlinson, Atlanta, Ga., says: "For years I suffered with rheumatism, caused by kidney trouble and indigestion. I also was feeble and nervous. B. B. B. relieved me at once, although several other medicines had failed."
 Rev. J. M. Richardson, Clarkston, Ark., writes: "My wife suffered twelve years with rheumatism and female complaint. A lady member of my church had been cured by B. B. B.
 She persuaded my wife to try it, who now says there is nothing like B. B. B., as it quickly gave her relief."

 up some of the cross-ties of the street railway, put down more than 20 years ago, and they appear to be as sound as ever.

Week of Prayer.
 Rev. Peyton H. Hoge, Vice President of the American Sabbath Union for North Carolina, has issued the following notice:

By appointment of numerous Sabbath Associations on both sides of the sea, the week beginning April 7th (including also April 14th), is set apart as the "World's Week of Prayer for the Sabbath." It is hoped that it will be observed by prayer and conference on the relations of the Christian Sabbath or Lord's day to the Church, to the nation and to the individual, in Sabbath schools, preachers' meetings, prayer meetings, pulpits, and also by articles in the press. Further information may be obtained by addressing, (with stamp), Rev. J. H. Knowles, General Secretary, 23 Park Row, or Rev.
 Wilber F. Crafts, Field Secretary, 74 East 90th Street, New York.

Presbyterian Church Manual.
 Rev. P. H. Hoge has placed before us a copy of a neatly arranged "Manual of the First Presbyterian Church of Wilmington, N. C." for the year 1889. It is a pamphlet of forty-six pages, containing a history of the Church, its organization, reports for the year ending December 1st, 1888, a directory, etc. The number of names in the directory is 344.
 The treasurer's report shows receipts from all sources $8,076.99. The societies connected with the Church are the Ladies' Aid Society for the care of the church poor and to aid in all branches of church work, the Ladies' Foreign Missionary Society, the Edgar Woods Society, the Young Ladies' Missionary Society, and the Young Gleasers' Missionary Society. The Front Street Mission is also supported by the Church. A condensed statement shows that contributions for these and other objects amount to $11,012.99.

Many of the events narrated are in our recollection. We well remember the disastrous fire which destroyed the church on Front street on the 13th day of April, 1859.
 The fire originated in Morgau's cooper shop, at the N. W. corner of Front and Orange streets, and the stiff Southwest breeze carried some of the flakes over and lodged them against the wooden steeple, high up beyond the reach of the defective fire apparatus of those days, and all that could be done was to stand by helplessly and see the sacred edifice destroyed by the flames.

Indications.
 For North Carolina, fair weather, followed by rains and stationary temperature

The monthly meeting of the Ladies' Christian Union Association will be held in the First Baptist Church to-morrow (Thursday) evening at 4 o'clock.

Formerly physicians confounded rheumatism with gout; but they are now known to be distinct diseases.
 Rheumatism attacks every age, going only adults. But whether you may have to cope with the one or the other, Salvation Oil will be found equally efficacious. It kills pain.
 Price twenty five cents a bottle.

As Others See Us.
 Shelby New Era: Wilmington, already noted for her generous hospitality, fairly outdid herself last week during the convention of the Young Men's Christian Association.
 The gates of the city were thrown wide open and the delegates were greeted with such cordiality that they could not help but be charmed with the beautiful "City by the Sea" and her open-hearted inhabitants.
 The hearty grasp of hand and the genuine welcome will never be forgotten by those who were fortunate enough to have been present.

A Beautiful Testimonial.
 At the meeting of Hanover Council, No. 25, of the United States Benevolent Fraternity, held last night, Mr. N. Jacobi was presented with an elegant gold-headed ebony cane, on behalf of the lodge, as a testimonial of the esteem in which he is held by the members. It bears this inscription: "Companion N. Jacobi, from Hanover Council No. 25, U. S.
 B. F., March 19, 1889." The presentation was made by Dr. Mendelsohn, on behalf of the lodge, in a very happy manner and the recipient as happily responded.

Generally, some indication of such a thing is sure to leak out, but in this instance Mr. Jacobi had heard nothing whatever and was taken completely by surprise. He has been the Financial Secretary of the lodge ever since it was instituted here eight years ago, and resigned, against the protests of his fellow members, on March 1st. He had worked faithfully and zealously for the order during all those years and is deeply touched at this manifestation of the esteem and regard in which he is held by his brethren in the lodge.

A Fatal Accident.
 This morning, about 9 o'clock, while workmen were engaged in unrigging the barque Albatross, now lying at Skinner's shipyard, one man was killed and another injured by the falling of the mainyard to the deck. Mr. M. C. Dudley and his partner, Mr. John Knoppel, both of the men being sailors, arrived here from Mobile on Sunday morning and went to work on the Albatross yesterday, with a force of hands, to unrig her to be towed to Norfolk tomorrow by the steam tug Alex. Jones.
 This morning Mr. Knoppel went aloft to unfasten the mainyard so that it could be lowered to the deck.
 After he had got his ropes and lowering tackle all right Mr. Dudley, who had remained on deck, began to lower away but one or two of the turns he had taken with the rope around the windlass slipped and the yard came to the deck with a run. Mr. Dudley saw the danger and tried to get out of the way but could not do so and was struck on the head by the spar and instantly killed. At the same time a colored workman by the name of John Johnson was caught by the falling yard and one of his legs was severely injured.

The Albatross belongs to Mr. B.
 F. Conway, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and he had sent Mr. Dudley here to take charge of her until she arrived at New York. The deceased was about 45 years old and leaves a wife in Brooklyn. He had been in Mr. Conway's employ for about twelve years.
 The verdict of the jury was that "the deceased came to his death on the morning of April the 3d, from the falling of a yard-arm on the barque Albatross and striking him on the head."

P stands for Pierce, the wonderful is concoctor,

 cake."

An evening train is to be placed on the Seacoast Railroad to-morrow.

Danish barque Herman, Christensen, cleared to day for Stettin, with 3,361 barrels rosin, valued at $3,308, shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co.

Mr. Richard Lamb, Chief Engineer of the Wilmington, Onslow & East Carolina Railroad, arrived in the city last night. Mr. J. A. Mattocks, constructing engineer, is with him.

Mr. Robert Garrett, ex-President of the B. & O. R. R., accompanied by a number of friends, arrived here last night in private cars. They stopped at the Orton and remained here until this evening.

Col. Julius A. Gray and Mr. George M. Rose, of the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. were in the city to-day on business for that road. They say that the work of laying the iron will begin here about the first of May and that the road will be in full operation between Wilmington and Fayetteville by the first of next January.

Mr. Chadbourn Resigns.
 At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Wilmington Seacoast Railroad, held last night, Mr. James H. Chadbourn tendered his resignation as General Manager of the road.
 It was reluctantly accepted and only on Mr. Chadbourn's assurance that it was absolutely necessary for him to give up the position, as he had other and important interests which imperatively demanded all of his time and attention. A resolution expressive of regret at Mr. Chad-bourn's retirement from the management of the road, and of appreciation of his services, was adopted by the Board. The election of a new manager was postponed for the present, and in the meantime, it was arranged that Mr. Chadbourn's resignation will not take effect until the appointment of his successor.

Mr. Chadbourn was very active in the organization of the company and in the construction of the road and has filled the position of General Manager up to the present time. Its success is due in a great measure to his exertions. He has labored faithfully, in season and out of season, and even during the dull winter months has by good management kept the receipts well ahead of the expenditures. He should have remained on the road a few months longer to reap the fruit of his labors as there is no doubt that there will be a big traffic over the line next Summer.

Semi-Centennial Reminiscences.
 This day, April 3d, 1889, is the semi-centennial anniversary of the laying of the corner stone of St.
 James' Church. The old edifice, which was a barn-like structure, was torn down in 1839 and the present handsome edifice (which has lately been added to) was erected.
 The church was consecrated on the fourth Sunday in Lent, March 29th, 1840. Rev. Robert B. Drane was at that time its rector, Dr. A. J. De-Rosset the elder, and Mr. Wm. C.
 Lord were the Church Wardens and the vestry was composed of Dr. Thos.
 H. Wright, Dr. A. J. DeRosset, Jr., and Messrs. William B. Giles, William A. Williams and James T. Miller. The plan of the building was designed by T. U. Walter, of Philadelphia, and it was built under the direction of John S. Norris, of New York, by Mr. John C. Wood as principal mason and Mr. C. H. Dahl as chief carpenter. These latter were both residents of Wilmington. The population of Wilmington at that time was 3,500. Martin Van Buren was President of the United States, Edward B. Dudley was Governor of North Carolina, Alexander Anderson was the Magistrate of Police (chief municipal officer), Dr. James F. McRee, Dr. A. J. DeRosset, Jr., W. J. Harris and E. P. Hall were Commissioners of the town and John A. Lillington was Town Clerk. The old church stood about 50 yards East of the present site, near the corner of the graveyard. It was partly on Market street.

There is one coincidence which must be narrated. This was the seizure and occupation of the church by vandals. The old church was taken possession of by Turleton's dragoons in 1780 and converted into a riding school and Schofield and Hawley, both worthy to wear Turleton's mantle, took possession of the present structure in 1865 and converted it into a military hospital.
