Harper's Bazar.

HALUSTRATED.

HARPER'S BAZAR Will continue to maintain its reputation as an unequalled family journal.
Its art illustrations are of the highest order, its iterature is of the choicest kind, and its Fashion and Household departments of the most practical and economical character. Its pat-tern-sheet supplements and fashion plates alone will save its readers ten times the cost of the subscription, and its articles on decora-tive art, social etiquette, house-keeping, cookery, etc., make it indispensable to every household. Its bright short stories and timely es-says are among the best published; and not a line is admitted to its columns that could offend the most fastidious taste. Among the attractions of the new volume will be serial stories by Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, Mrs. Alexander, William Black and Thomas Hardy, and a series of papers on nursery management by Mrs. Christine Terhune Herrick.

---Flies and Wolves.

When visiting a friend last suminer he called my attention to a curious plan for preventing the plague of flies in his house. The upper sash of one of the aindows in his sitting room being open for ventilation, there was suspended outside a piece of common fish net. My friend told me that not a fly would venture to pass through it. He has watched for an hour at a time, and seen swarms fly to within an inch of the net, and then, after buzzing about for a little, depart. He told me the flies would pass through the net if there was a through lightthat is, another window in the opposite wall. Though the day was very warm, I did not see a single fly in the room during my visit, though The volumes of the Magazine begin with the elsewhere in the town they were to from these brutes.

Gen. James S. Robinson, of Ohio, who is regarded as one of the most popular men in the Buckeye State, and who was persuaded a few years ago to quit his place in Congress to run for Secretary of State on the Republican ticket, is among the many distinguished men now in Washington. A few evenings ago the was visiting some friends on Capitol Hill. In the course of conversation the lady of the house recall ed a rather peculiar incident in Gen. Robinson's Congressional career. He was visiting these same friends one evening, when in strolled Gen. Cox, member of Congress from North Carolina. The two gentlemen were members of the same legislative body, but strange to say, had not met in Washington before. Their hostess thought, of course, J that they knew each other, but Gen. J eral Robinson said: "No, we have not met here before; I replied Gen. Cox, "and as you are I Jen. Robinson from Ohio, I expect 1 you are the Union officer who invited me to dine in my own house."

"The same Gen. Robinson," remarked the Ohio Congressman, as | he grasped the hand of the North Carolinian heartily.

It seems that Gen. Robinson was, 6 just after Gen. "Joe" Johnston's I surrender, using the house of Gen. I Cox as headquarters. A Street Annunciator.

"Drop a nickel in a slot and learn what comes next" is the latest application of the nickel and the slot distraction. Your nickel, however, goes into a conductor's pocket. The slot, nevertheless. exists, and your inquiry is answered just as effectual ly as though you saw your hard earned coin disappear into the sil-ver plated lips of the silent monster.

Over the door leading out to the dummy of each one of the Powell street cable cars is a device termed the "street annunciator," being simply a neat little oaken box with HARPER'S YOUNG PROPLE begins its tenth volume with the first Number in November. During the year it will contain five serial stories, including "Dorymates," by Kirk Munroe; "The Red Mustang," by W. O. Stoddard; and "A Day in Waxland;" by R. K. Munkittrick; "Nels Thurlow's Trial," by J. T. Trowbridge; "The Three Wishes," by F. Anstry and Brander Matthews: a series of fairy tales written outly inscribed, automatically up. an open glass face. Its position is such as to be in full view of all the fold and drop into view under the should always be used when children connecting with the mechanism in the box, causes the roll of paper to unfold just far enough to reveal the name of the next street. The invention is designed to save the yast quantities of breath on the part of passengers and conductors. - San

"I saved the life of my little girl by a prompt use of Dr. Acker's English Remedy for Consumption."— Mrs. WM. V. HARRIMAN, New York. Munds Bros., druggists

A Scrap of Paper Saves Her Life.

It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; she weighed less than seventy pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle; it helped her, she bought another and grew better fast, continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds. For fuller particulars send stamp to W.H. Cole, Drug gist, Fort Smith. Trial bottles of this wonderful Discovery free at Robt. R. Bellamy's wholesale and retail drug store.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Co!. W. K. Nelson, of Brooklyn, came home one evening feeling a peculiar tightness in the chest. Be fore retiring he tried to draw a long breath but found it impossible. He suffered four days from pneumonia and the doctors gave him up. Dr. Acker's English Remedy for Consumption saved him and he is well to day. Munds Bros., druggists

The Acme MANUFACTURING CO.

MANUFACTURERS OF

Fertilizers, Pine Fibre and Pine Fibre Matting.

WILMINGTON, N.C.

THE REPUTATION OF OUR FERTILIZERS the ACME and GEM, is now established, and the results of three years' use in the hands of the best farmers of this and other States attest their value as a high grade manure

The MATTING, made from the leaves of native pine, is conceded to be equal to any wool carpet for comfort and durability and the demand for it is daily increasing. It has vir tues not found in any other fabric.

The FIBRE or WOOL is extensively used for upholstering purposes, and as a filling for Mattresses is almost equal to hair, being light elastic and proof against insects.

Ceruficates from reliable parties using ou goods can be seen at our office, or will be mailed upon application.
