JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop'r.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

THURSDAY, APRIL 11, 1889.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N.C. as second-class matter.

Artist Uhl, who is painting ex President Cleveland's portrait for the Corcoran Gallery, Washington, says that his subject is a most pa tient and pliable man. During his sittings Mr. Cleveland was as docile as a child, and made a model model, so to speak. He was conversational. but dignified, steady in pose, but graceful and easy; not handsome, but impressive, massive.

Mrs. Amelie Rives-Chanler has been visiting in Richmond, where she has had photographs of herself taken in various styles, many of which are characteristic of the fair authoress. In some haif a dozen of the pictores Mrs. Chanler's collie dog, which she brought with her from Castle Hill, is represented standing on his hind feet, and his fair mistress grasping his forepaw. Another represents Mrs. Chanler in flowing garments, lying on a couch, with closed eyes, while a colored maid bends over her.

The death of King John of Abys. sinia removes from earth the last of a noted line-if the late King John told the truth. He claimed to be a direct descendant of King Solomon and the vivacious Queen of Sheba. Owing to the death of his son by poison, King John left no issue. The extinction of a line going back to a long period before the late civil war will awaken regret among the Four Hundred of New York. A man like King John, who could claim a descent from so antique a leader as Solomon, is a loss to society, in spite expect him to be, for without rich, of the fact that he was a cold-strong, nourishing blood he will lack blooded wretch.

Judge Gresham has recommended the appointment of Judge Brown, of the United States District Court of Michigan, as the successor of Stanlev Matthewson the Supreme Bench, and Judge Brown also has the endorsement of most of the leading lawyers in the northern portion of the circuit. Michigan has never had a man on the Supreme Bench, while Ohio has had seven, and it is believed that the coming appointment will go to the former State. Gen. Harrison has intimated that he had a man in his mind for the place, but he has not yet indicated who

The vacancy in the House of Commons occasioned by the death of John Bright has brought political confusion to Birmingham. The Tories invited Lord Randolph Churchill to run as their candidate; the Lib eral Unionists put up Mr. Bright's son, John Albert Bright, and the Gladstonian candidate is Phipson Beale, a barrister. The candidacy Aching Sides and Back, Hip, Kidney and of Churchill would have been con-Uterine Pains, Rheumatic, Sciatic, Sharp and Weakening Pains, relieved in one minute by sidered a blow at Lord Salisbury, administered by his own partisans. Churchill, however, refuses to run. although this decision was not prompted by a desire to spare the feelings of Lord Salisbury. John Bright's district has never been canvassed on the home rule issue, and there is naturally great interest in the ontcome of the pending contest-

> The Eiffel tower, now complete at Paris, is the highest structure ever reared by human hands, being 1,178 feet high, or over twice as high as our great monument at Washington. The electric light at its summit will be visible for forty miles, and it will be strong enough to enable a person to read a newspaper at the distance of seven miles. The French are beating us in "big" things. Their Panama Canal and their cop per syndicate were far ahead of us and now their monster tower puts us out of sight. It is said that they built it to induce us to visit their grand exposition this summer. Who are our most successful business men? Go out on the street and look them over. You won't find them men who have pale cheeks. They are not thin, emaciated men. They are not nervous, irritable men. They are men whose faces indicate robust health. Men with good blood and plenty of it. That's the secret of their success. A man whose blood is thin and weak and poisoned with imparities, is never successful like his healthy neighbor. You can't the "vim" and "push" which the Oct. 15th. CHATTANOOGA, TENN., June 27, 1888—Swift's Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: In the early part of the present year, a bad case of blood poison appeared upon me. I began taking S. S. S. under advice of another, and to-day I feel greatly improved. I am still taking the medicine and shall continue to do so until I am perfectly well. I believe it will effect a perfect cure. Yours truly,

Doc. P. Howard,

COLUMBIA, S. C., July 7, 1888—The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: I was a great sufferer from muscular rheumatism a great sufferer from muscular rheumatism for two years. I could get no permanent relief from any medicine prescribed by my physician. I took over a dozen bottles of your S. S. S., and now I am as well as I ever was in my life. I am sure your medicing cured me, and I would recommend it to any one suffering from any blood disease. Your truly,

Waco, Texas, May 9, 1888—Gentlemen: The wife of one of my customers was terribly afflicted with a loathsome skin disease, that covered her whole body. She was confined to her bed for several years by this affliction, and could not help herself at all. She could not sleep from a violent itching and stinging of the skin. The disease baffled the skill of the physicians who treated it. Her husband began finally giving his wife Swift's Specific, and she commenced to improve almost immediately, and in a few weeks she was apparently well. She is now a hearty fine-looking lady, with no trace of the affliction left. Yours very truly, J. E. Sears, Wholesale Druggist, Austin Avenue.
