Many seemingly incurable cases of blood poison, catarrh, scrofula and rheumatism have been cured by B. B. B. (Botanic Blood vincing proof.

H. W. B. Raider, living 7 miles from Athens, Ga., writes: "For several years I suffered with running ulcers, which doctors treated and pronounced incurable. A single bottle of B. B. B. did me more good than all the doctors. I kept on using it and every ulcer healed."
D. C. Kinard & Son, Towaliga, Ga., writes:
"We induced a neighbor to try B. B. B. for ear-rache, which he thought incurable, as it had resisted all treatment. It delighted him, and continuing its use he was cured sound and well." R. M. Lawson, East Point, Ga., writes: "My wife had scrofula 15 years. She kept growing worse. She lost her hair and her skin broke out fearfully. Debility, emaciation and no appetite followed. After physicians and numerous advertised medicines failed, I tried B.
B. B. and her recovery was rapid and complete." Oliver Seacor, Baltimore, Md., writes: "I suffered from weak back and rheumatism. B.
B. B. has proven to be the only medicine that gave me relief."

City Court
The following cases were disposed of by the Mayor this morning: Ed. Fisher and Wm. Fisher, both colored, were arraigned on the charge of stealing coal. They were bound over to the next term of Criminal Court in the sum of $50 each.

Benj. Brown was found guilty of disorderly conduct, but judgment was suspended.

Jesse Smith was also arraigned for disorderly conduct. He was given the alternative of paying $20 or serving 30 days in the chain gang.

Silas McGuire was up for violating the sanitary ordinance of the city. He was found guilty but judgment was suspended on condition that he have his premises cleaned.

British Steamship Albany.
Capt. J. T. Harper and Capt. Jno.
W. Harper have returned from Norfolk, where they have been in attendance on the Federal Court, in Capt. Tom Harper's suit against the British steamship Albany for $50,000, claimed as salvage, which was tried in the U. S. Court at Norfolk, this week, before Judge Hughes. Judge Russell, of this city, and Mr. Elliott, of Norfolk, appeared as counsel for the plaintiffs, and Messrs. Sharp and Hughes, of Norfolk, for the defendant steamship company. After argument the Judge took the papers and reserve 1 his decision.

The Albany, it will be remembered, got aground on the bar at Little River, S. C., and was pulled off by the tugs Blanche and Italian, with the assistance of the revenue steamer Cofax, after throwing overboard part of her cargo of cotton.

Very Kindly Words.
Rev. E. A. Yates, D. D., writes us as follows from Durham: "I don't know what I am due the REVIEW, but I send $4—at a risk—for the current year. I think the paper improves all the time. I wish you much prosperity." These certainly are good words and kind words and would cheer and encourage any man's heart. We are very proud of the commendation of such a man as Dr. Yates. We have published what he said without his permission but we are sure that he will appreciate the motive and pardon us for so doing.

The Sick Horses.
The question which is now agitating horse owners and horse dealers hereabouts at this time is this:
Is the disease which has appeared here the glanders? Some assert positively that it is and others are equally positive that it is not. An expert from Washington City will be here on Monday and then the matter will be decided. In the meantime a horsepital has been fitted up at Mt. Tirzah, a few miles below the city, and all sick and suspected horses are being isolated and cared for there. So far as we can ascertain no new cases have developed to day and those that have become affected are generally improving.

Destructive Forest Fires.
Large forest fires have been raging for days past along the line of the C. C. R. R. On Tuesday they nearly caught the East bound day train.
The woods were on fire on both sides of the track and the engineer determined to make a break for it.
He could not see a rod ahead and he just opened the valve and let her go. He ran a mile in a minute. The heat was intense and both the engineer and the conductor had their hands and faces blistered.

Yesterday the fire took hold of the track two miles West of Hamlet and burned over some 500 feet of it.
It has all been replaced, however, and the trains will hereafter run with their usual regularity. Fires have also raged over the line of the R. & A. Line, but some of the telegraph poles have been burnt and the wires laid low and we cannot learn anything from there.

The Crockett Case.
It is evident that there is to be a big fight in this matter, and a very stubborn one. A bill has been filed in the United States Circuit Court, at Raleigh, and the News and Obser- ver says:

A bill in equity has just been filed in the office of the Clerk of the United States Court here by William Mahone, a Warner Miller, John P.
Jones and George West against the Carolina Oil and Creosote Company and W. P. Canaday, Sergeant at-Arms of the U. S. Senate, and others connected with it. The complainants claim that some time ago Mr.
Canaday, who was president of the company, resigned and arranged to have himself succeeded by Mr. A. A.
Thomas, of Washington, and that Mr. Thomas was elected at a meeting at which there was a bare majority of the directors present, and which was held without the knowledge of the complainants, who are themselves stockholders and directors of the company. They state that they do not recognize the resignation of Mr. Canaday or the election of Mr. Thomas—that the proceeding was not according to the provisions of the by-laws of the company and not legal. Among other things the bill sets forth that a resolution was passed by the directors at the said meeting that the new president Thomas be empowered to issue a certificate for 781 shares of stock to be held by him as security or by such persons as he might arrange with for the loan of $20,000, which transaction they claim would have proved detrimental to the business. They pray that a full meeting of the directors of the company be ordered that Canaday may be removed from the presidency of the company and a successor duly elected. They also pray for an injunction restraining the issuing of the 781 shares of stock as provided in the resolution passed. A restraining order has been granted by the court and the motion for an injunction and the appointment of a receiver for the company as prayed for in the bill has been set for hearing on May 7th. The bill makes several specific and direct charges of fraud and interesting developments are expected.

The subject for the Gospel meeting in the Young Men's Christian Association rooms to-morrow afternoon at 5.30 o'clock will be "The Comes of the Bible." All men invited. Mr. W. M. Cumming will lead.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

W. M. CUMMING,
Opposite City Hall.

Prompt Payment of a $5,000 Claim.
We call the attention of our readers to the earl which appears elsewhere in this issue from the widow of the late Dr. Shober of this city, acknowledging the full payment of the life insurance carried by her late husband in the National Life and Maturity Association of Washington, D. C. Dr. Shober had been insured than two years, and in that time had passed from a condition of perfect health to his death. The payment made by him had been comparatively small, while the benefit is large, the amount of insurance being five thousand dollars.

The company has shown the same promptness in the settlement of the claim here that has characterized its dealings at all other points, and the result can but be satisfactory to the large body of policy holders which it has in Wilmington. The payment was made by Mr. Easterday, the Assistant Secretary of the Company and Mr. Gibson, the special agent.
They will remain in the city several days, and those of our citizens who need life insurance cannot do better than to improve the opportunity to take it in this staunch Washington Company.

The Best Yet.
Here is decidedly the best thing in the way of epitaphs that has come under our observation. It was copied for us from a tombstone in a churchyard in Cheraw by a gentleman who was there a few days ago: My name, my country, what are they to thee?
What, whether high or low, my pedigree?
Perhaps I far surpassed all other men, Perhaps I fell below them all, what then?
Suffice it, stranger, that thou seest a TOMB.
Thou know'st its use, it hides no matter whom.

A Letter from Dr. Hans Von Bulow.
The Knabe Pianos, which I did not know before, have been chosen for my present Concert tour in the United States by my Impresario and accepted by me on the recommendation of my friend, Bechstein, acquainted with their merits. Had I known these pianos as now I do, I would have chosen them by myself, as their sound and touch are more sympathetic to my ears and hands than all others of the country.

DR. HANS VON BULOW.
New York, April 6, 1889.
To Messrs. Wm. Knabe & Co.

Personal.
We are glad to note that Dr.
James E. Kea, who has been quite sick for some weeks past, has so far recovered as to appear on the streets again.

Mr. David S. Cowan, special agent of the Treasury Department, has resigned his position. There are just 38 hungry Rads, it is said, who are clamoring for the place.

We were pleased to receive a call to day from Mr. Geo. J. Easterday, Assistant Secretary of the National Life and Maturity Association of Washington City, who is here in the interests of his Company. He will remain here several days.

Prof. E. A. Alderman has resigned the position of Superintendent of the Goldsboro Graded School, to take that of one of the two Superintendents of the State Teachers' Institute, created by the recent General Assembly. Prof. Melver, of Peace Institute, is the other appointment.

Mr. A. S. Heide, who has been in Baltimore for some time past, has returned to the city. We are glad to know there has been some improvement although we regret to hear that one of his eyes is still seriously affected.

PLEASE NOTICE.

We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subject general interest, but The name of the writer must always be nished to the Editor.
Communications must be written only one side of the paper.
Personalities must be avoided.
And it is especially and particularly undestood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so stated in the edit columns.

WILMINGTON, N. C., April 13, 1889.
The National Life and Maturity Association, Washington, D. C.;

GENTLEMEN:—I have to acknowledge the receipt of five thousand dollars ($5,000) in full payment of the two policies of life insurance held in your company by my late husband, James F. Shober, M. D., of this city. Dr. Shober had been insured with you at the time of his death less than two years and the prompt payment of this sum by your company shows the value of life insurance and the fact that even those who seem at the time to be in the best of health may be the first ones whose claim will be made against a company.

Accept my thanks for the prompt payment thus made, proving the stability and soundness of your company, and its readiness and ability to meet every claim against it in full when due. Very respectfully yours,
