Senators Quay and Sherman. The the Pennsylvania Senator, has disregarded an agreement for an equitable division of certain spoils in the internal revenue bureau. Mr. Quay pronounces Mr. Sherman's outwitting him "discreditable and dishonorable," | tle too sick to go to school." and declares he will never, never, do anything for Mr. Sher- ion about Mrs. Smith, her next door neighbor. McLane, maternal grandfather was Louis McLane, President Jackson's secretary of State. He is a distinguished man in his profession, with a large practice. The place he is offered is said to be worth $25,000 a year in fees, but it is considered hardly likely that the Republicans of the New York Senate will confirm the nomination of any other Democrat Governor Hill may send in for the place. Dr. Hamilton himself does not expect them to do so, though he has the neat housekeeper, so is Hood's never engaged actively in politics. The text of the letter of Stanley to the Royal Geographical Society shows it to be exceedingly interesting throughout. To the discovery of a great mountain, which appears to be distinct from the one observed by him in former years, and his enforced exploration of what is apparently the most extensive and forbidding forest on the continentwith its undergrowth and its network of creepers so dense that it "had to be funneled through" here and there-he adds some exceedingly valuable observations on the watershed of Africa in the region of the great lakes. He notes the gradual diminution in size of Albert Nyanza, and has made a thorough study of the Aruwimi and some of its branches. No doubt the journey subsequently taken will clear up other problems of great interest.

In Findlay, Ohio, the Spiritualists claim to have materialized the spirit of August Spies, the Anarchist, who was hanged in Chicago. Spies' spirit is reported to have, said that since his soul had put on the garments of immortality he had become convinced that the doctrines he espoused while living, and for which he had sacrificed his life, were all wrong; and that the earthly fate of himself and associates was but a natural sequence to the teachings they had promulgated. To the inquiry as to whether he ever com municated with his pretty wife Nina, the spirit of the dead Anarchist refused to answer, only so far as to say that the relation existing between husband and wife, both on earth and in the land of souls, was too sacred to be the subject of conversation between strangers.

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Barsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. MISCELLANEOUS.

An Important Announcement An important Announcement
About six weeks ago, while at business, I was suddenly attacked with excruciating pains in my feet, knees and hands. So severe the attack that I took my bed immediately, and in two or three days my joints were swellen to almost double their natural size, and sleep was driven from me. After suffering the most excruciating pain for a week, using liniments and various other remedies, a friend who sympathized with my helpless condition, said to me: a friend who sympathized with my helpless condition, said to me:

"Why don't you get Swift's Specific and use it. I will guarantee a cure, and if it does not the medicine shall cost you nothing."

I at once secured the S. S., and after using it the first day, had a quiet night and refreshing sleep. In a week I felt greatly benefitted. In three weeks I could sit up and walk about the room, and after using six bottles I was out and able to go to business. Since then I have been regularly at my post of duty, and stand on my feet from nine to ten hours a day, and am entirely free from pain. These are the plain and simple facts in my case, and I will cheerfully answer all inquiries relative thereto, either in person or by mail.
