Ex-President Cleveeland has sub scribed fifty dollars to the fund in aid of the Confederate home at Austin, Texas, and has written as follows concerning it: "I am in full sympathy with this enterprise and want to contribute to its success. It appeals to the broad humanity which ought to engage the sympathy of every right-thinking citizen. Surely neither prejudice nor passion should be allowed to interfere with the exercise of charity toward the unfortunate, nor with the tender of cheerful aid to the needy and suffering.

By the report of the bureau of statistics, covering the first three months of the present year, and the preceding nine months and year, it is shown that there has been a defi nite advance in our foreign trade, both exports and imports; that the grain is considerably in exports, but that in both exports and imports the gain has been mostly made in that must be put down. the first quarter of 1889. In that quarter, compared with 1888, there was an increase in exports of $30, 000,000, for nine months the gain was a over $27,000,000; for the year the gain was a little short of $30,000. 000. The report of the assessors shows a gratifying increase in the taxable values of the city of New Orleans to single year. The Picayune natural ly rejoices over this exhibit, which it attributes to a considerable devel opment in manufacturing, a large amount of building of a high class and the organization of many mo eyed and industrial corporations, parilla, which is peculiar to itself. This is certainly in pleasant con trast with the situation of affairs in the Crescent City during the "carpet-bag" reign; when business was prostrated and taxation amounted almost to confiscation.

An Important Announcement About six weeks ago, while at business, I was suddenly attacked with excruciating pains in my feet, knees and hands. So severe the attack that I took my bed immediately, and in two or three days my joints were swollen to almost double their natural size, and sleep was driven from me. After suffering the most excruciating pain for a week, using liniments and various other remedies, a friend who sympathized with my helpless condition, said to me: a friend who sympathized with my helpless condition, said to me:

"Why don't you get Swift's Specific and use it. I will guarantee a cure, and if it does not the medicine shall cost you nothing."

I at once secured the S. S. S., and after using it the first day, had a quiet night and refreshing sleep. In a week I felt greatly benefitted. In three weeks I could sit up and walk about the room, and after using six walk about the room, and after using six bottles I was out and able to go to business. Since then I have been regularly at my post of duty, and stand on my feet from nine to ten hours a day, and am entirely free from pain. These are the plain and simple facts in my case, and I will cheerfully answer all inquiries relative thereto, either in person or by mail.
